

Fire levy passes; new land use plan favored

BY THE CRIER STAFF
Canton voters Tuesday overwhelmingly approved a millage request to finance construction and operation of a second fire station.

According to unofficial returns (not including all absentee ballots) a proposal to establish a township-wide special assessment district to be taxed for the second station — planned for Warren Rd. West of Haggerty — was approved by about a three to one vote.

In an advisory question, the administration's controversial new master land use plan, designed to limit development in the township's western half, easily won endorsement over a plan first presented in 1974 which called for a full urbanization of the township.

The vote on master plan concepts culminate three years of debate over achieving a suitable land use plan for the township. The plan that would have called for development of the entire township with a projected population of some 200,000 people was rejected by the township planning commission in 1974.

The recently-approved master plan, designed to preserve agricultural land in western Canton by basing farm property taxes on use of farming rather than development was presented to the township this spring. Projected population under the new plan, with development in only the eastern half of the township, was placed at 100,000.

The new plan, promoted by Supervisor Bob Greenstein, met with stiff opposition from farmers who feared they would not be reimbursed for the price at which their property could have been sold to developers.

Proposition 1, the proposal to establish a fire millage assessment district, was the third attempt by township officials to levy millage for fire protection.

Two previous millages, which included levies for establishment of a police department, were defeated in 1974 election.

Cops refuse to take tapes--or oust trustees

SCRATCHING HIS HEAD at the request presented him last week by Canton Supervisor Robert Greenstein, Wayne County Sheriff's Deputy Dan Strickland thought twice before declining to intervene in a township board dispute over tape recordings of Canton meetings. Deputies were summoned by Greenstein after Trustee Bob Myers and Brian Schwall refused to conform to a new board policy banning their taping and instead switched their cassettes on as the meeting began. For more on the squabble, see page two. (Crier photo by Hank Meijer)

School race attracts 6

Six candidates — two incumbents and four challengers — have filed nominating petitions to become candidates for the Plymouth School District Board of Education on the June 14 ballot.

Up for election are seats currently held by Marda Benson and Flossie Tonda. Both Ms. Benson, 44, of 1073 Penniman in Plymouth, an education instructor at Wayne State University; and Mrs. Tonda, 49 of 39846 John Dr. in Canton, former chairman of the school district's safety committee, are seeking re-election.

Also seeking the posts are: Richard T. Arlen, 46, of 1441 Hartsough in Plymouth an accounting instructor at Schoolcraft College; William L. Brown, 42, of 44478 Albert Dr., in Plymouth Township, a State Police sergeant; Elizabeth A. Hamann, 29, of 42816 Saxony Dr., Canton, former chairman of Canton's Citizens Advisory Committee; and Stephen G. Harper, 33, of 11835 Appletree in Plymouth Township, a financial analyst for Ford Motor Co.

Ms. Benson was elected to the board in 1972 and is now board president. Mrs. Tonda was appointed to the board in January of this year to replace Gary Mirto, who resigned.

Japanese orchestra to visit

BY KATHY KUENZER
Plymouth' Bicentennial celebration will take an Oriental twist this August, when 43 young Japanese musicians and their 13 chaperones arrive by bus for a four-day visit highlighted by a concert in Salem High School Auditorium.

The orchestra, sponsored by the Minaninohon Broadcasting Company (MBC) of Kagoshima, Japan, has been endorsed by the Plymouth-Canton Bicentennial Commission and the Plymouth Symphony Board of Directors and by the Ann Arbor Kiwanis Club, which has sponsored smaller groups of Japanese students from MBC over the past 10 years.

According to Lois Andres, co-director of the Plymouth Suzuki Association and coordinator for the orchestra's Plymouth visit, the young men and women will stay in Plymouth from Aug. 4 through Aug. 8.

"For ten years," said Ms. Andres, "Mr. Suetaka Hatanaka, chairman of the board of MBC, has been sending 15 exchange students to personal friends in Ann Arbor, Shenandoah, Iowa, Atlanta; Washington D.C.; New York and San Francisco.

"This year, because of our Bicentennial, Mr. Hatanaka is sending over a whole orchestra composed of junior high through university age persons, to Plymouth as well as the other cities, to perform in honor of the occasion. Plymouth was selected because of its size and because of its support of music and cultural activities."

Currently, Ms. Andres is seeking housing with area families for the 43 musicians, who range in age from 11 to 28.

She says she hopes the community will welcome the students, "Sharing our American way of life with them, as well as learning about their culture, receiving the gift of music they will bring and kindling friend-

Diogenes, search is over

IS HONESTY ITS OWN REWARD? Margaret Churchman of Jefferson Drive in Plymouth has to believe it is. Ms. Churchman found a money clip beneath a pay phone at the Plaza Lane bowling alley last Wednesday night. "I was calling my husband when I saw what looked like a piece of paper," she said. Paper it wasn't, but the billfold turned out to contain some $460. She took the currency the next day to Plymouth's State Police Post. The owner was contacted and soon retrieved his cash. Ms. Churchman, shown here with her 11-week old daughter, Jamie, didn't feel the satisfaction she might have with her generous act, however. "It kind of made me mad," she said. "I didn't expect a reward, but I would have liked the person to call and thank me."

But won't enforce board rule
Cops called in tape dispute

BY HANK MEIJER
 Canton Supervisor Bob Greenstein called in Wayne County Sheriff's deputies last week in an attempt to force two township trustees to turn off their tape recorders.

After consulting with their command officer, however, the deputies who responded to Greenstein's call told the township board they could become involved in a board dispute only in the event of a breach of the peace, not simply when a board resolution was violated.

The deputies' arrival climaxed an escalating dispute among board members over tape recording by the township individual board members of regular township meetings.

Two weeks earlier, Greenstein said taping meetings could prove detrimental to the township, lest tapes be used as evidence by plaintiffs engaging in lawsuits against the township. His attempt to curtail the taping was foiled when the board voted 3-3 on a motion not to tape.

Treasurer Carl Parsell was absent. A week later with Parsell in attendance, the board agreed by a 4-3 vote to outlaw taping by the township. When Trustee Brian Schwall announced he would continue to record meetings on his own machine, the board passed another motion, again by a 4-3 vote, banning recording by board members.

The ban set the stage for last week's confrontation between Greenstein and the pro-taping dissidents. Schwall and Trustee Bob Myers came to the board meeting with tape recorders, which they switched on as proceedings began. When Greenstein noticed the recorders, he said, "The board has by resolution voted that there will be no taping by anyone except someone in the audience. Our attorney said that if officials of this township tape meetings, it's the same as if the township itself does."

Countered Myers, "I have every right in the world to tape these meetings."

Greenstein likened Myers and Schwall's defiance of the board's taping ban to the case which would arise should he light up a cigarette the week after board members agreed to a no-smoking resolution. He would call the Sheriff, he said, because he was compelled as chairman "to enforce rules and regulations adopted by this board. The Sheriff will be called to remove you and or your tape recorder."

When Schwall and Myers again refused to cease taping, Greenstein recessed the meeting and called the Sheriff. Officials and residents milled about in the fire hall and on the steps outside, waiting for the arrival of the road patrol. When the deputies drove up, the meeting was reconvened.

Greenstein explained the pair's violation of township regulations.

The deputy said he could do nothing without a written order. At Greenstein's urging, however he contacted his command officer, who affirmed the deputy's refusal to enter into the dispute. "I will keep peace if there is any disturbance, but I can't enforce board rulings," Deputy Dan Strickland added.

With that, the deputies left. In their wake, Schwall and Myers agreed that the board should seek a written opinion from its attorney — the earlier opinions opposing tapes had been delivered verbally — regarding use of recordings. They said then they would not tape meetings until the written opinion was presented.

City boosts non-union pay

Plymouth City Commissioners last Monday night approved a pay hike for 1976-77 for city non-union staffers that keeps pace with a boost granted unionized DPW employees

Some 25 non-union city employees will receive an 8% salary increase beginning July 1.

Trail paving need approved

Following a hearing on necessity last Monday night, Plymouth City Commissioners authorized the city assessor to prepare a special assessment roll of property owners to share in the cost of paving Ann Arbor Trail between Main and Sheldon.

Some 50% of the $95,000 cost will be born by Wayne County, city officials said, with the city paying for more than 29% and property owners picking up the tab for nearly 21%.

Upon completion of the project — slated for later this year — the action of thoroughfare will be transferred from county to city jurisdiction.

Several residents asked commissioners if they could force restrictions on truck traffic on the busy stretch of street.

Greenstein opens re-election bid

Canton Supervisor Bob Greenstein has announced his candidacy for re-election.

The 38-year-old attorney, elected to his first term in 1974, said he has chosen to run again because, in his words, "the job I started two years ago is not yet finished."

Greenstein said he would run, as he did two years ago, as a member of a "team" or slate of candidates including Treasurer Carl Parsell and Trustee Jerry Cheske, as well as Clerk John Flodin — who is joining the slate for the first time — and new candidate for trustee, Joyce Willis.

The "team" according to Greenstein, has kept, "every campaign promise we made." Among his achievement, the incumbent said, were the curtailing of multiple housing development, passage of a stringent new sign

Greenstein said he has averaged 60 to 80 hours per week in the $19,488 supervisor's post. "I don't think anyone can compare to that" he said.

He blamed Trustees Bob Myers and Brian Schwall for dragging out township board meetings into the early hours of the morning, and said problems of personality conflict among board members could subside when the pair find themselves up for re-election in two years. The only shortcomings of his administration, he said, have been those caused by dissidents, both on the township board and in the community.

ordinance, a changed look to the township's commercial areas through use of berms and restrictions on signs, and, perhaps most significantly presentation of a proposed master plan which Greenstein says can save farmland in the township.

If the controversial land plan is approved, he adds, residents can look forward to "immediate action" to create a farmers market in southern Canton.

He said he would not change his response to methods of dissent employed by Myers and Schwall — even if it meant calling out the Sheriff again to take away their tape recorders.

"If trustees are guilty of playing politics again," he said, "I will call that abuse to the attention of the voters as I did in the past — because the papers don't have the guts to print what happens at meetings, I have to do it."

"I'll continue exactly as I have in the past to accomplish things in the township. I have worked hard to do the things I've promised to do, and I think I've done them."

Ambulance lost in crash

The City of Plymouth's fire rescue squad lost a perfect record of 1,966 rescue runs without an accident when its ambulance was struck broadside and declared a total loss last Friday morning in Westland.

The ambulance was enroute to Wayne County General Hospital with an 88-year-old woman when a car ran a red light and hit the vehicle broadside.

Driver of the rescue van, firemen Donald Belsky, was not injured. Fireman Tom Lenaghan, who was attending the victim, was treated for bruises at St. Mary Hospital and released.

Plymouth Fire Chief George Schoeneman said no tickets have been issued in the accident. Fire officials received approval last Monday from city commissioners to purchase a new ambulance.

GOP hopefuls get petitions in Twp.

The deadline is still nearly two weeks off for Plymouth Township residents to submit petitions as candidates for township offices, but with the little interest that's been shown in the races thus far, as one township employe joked, "they may have to advertise."

At press time, no Democrats had taken out petitions for the three full-time posts — supervisor, clerk and treasurer — and two trusteeships at stake in the November election. June 1 is the deadline by which prospective candidates must submit their petitions to the township clerk's office.

Treasurer Joe West had taken out a petition for re-election, and a petition has been taken out by supporters of Clerk Helen Richardson to retain her in that post.

Supervisor J.D. McLaren has not announced his candidacy for re-election. To date, he has not circulated petitions.

Lone candidate thus far for Supervisor is Township Planning Commissioner Soren T. Pederson. Pederson has also taken out petitions for treasurer and the two trustee posts, although candidates for those offices have not yet been announced.

Terms of Trustees Russell Ash and Gerald Burke expire this year. Ash has indicated he will not seek re-election. Burke has not taken out a petition thus far.

Seeking one of the trusteeships, will be Republican Andrew Pruner of 40431 Newporte Dr.

Absentee vote sought

Applications for absentee ballots for the June 14 school election are available at the Board of Education office at 454 S. Harvey in Plymouth.

Applications may be obtained in person weekdays from 8:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. or by calling 453-0200 (ext. 401, 402, 422) and asking to have one mailed to you. Applications should be returned to the Board of Education Office in time for the ballot to be mailed and returned before June 14.

Absentee ballots are available at the Board office after May 26. Anyone who will be absent from the community or unable to vote June 14 may come to the office and vote during office hours any day before June 14.

Special absentee voting hours at the Board Office will be from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday June 12.

Twp. close to levy bid to start police force

BY DONNA LOMAS

The Plymouth Township Board of Trustees has unofficially agreed to request two mills for police protection on the August 3 primary ballot.

Trustees Richard Gornick and Frank Millington last week presented an oral sketch of what the township might expect in police protection costs. A written report will be presented at the next township meeting.

"Our study has been based on the Davids study — prepared by Fred Davids, s Plymouth Township Planning Commission and former Michigan State of Police colonel — of two years ago. It would cost the cost the township $237,000 to equip a police force," Gornick said. "That is a 17% increase from two years ago when the study was done. Other communities have had an increase of approximately 5% per year."

"Colonel Davids did not include rental of a building in his study," added Trustee Frank Millington. "But we must take that and other questions into consideration."

Muneio, other grid coaches resign anyway

BY DENNIS O'CONNOR
Canton High School football coach Jim Muneio and his entire coaching staff announced last week their decision to resign. The resignations follow a school board resolution that supported the administration's positive evaluation of Muneio's coaching performance. In releasing to The Crier a letter addressed to School Board president Marda Benson, Muneio said, "the best way to tell you how I feel is by the letter." The letter, signed by Muneio and seven other Canton grid coaches says to Benson: "Would you convey this message of appreciation to fellow board members: Lawton, Yack, Tonda, Borowski, and McClendon?" (Member Joe Gray was not included. Gray helped spearhead a campaign to seek the coach's ouster). "It is my feeling, and the feeling of the coaches, that you and the aforementioned people have done everything in your power to insure that the matter concerning the Canton Football Staff was handled fairly. "We would like to thank you for the time spent and energy expended by all of you in listening to both sides and formulating your conclusions as expressed in the resolution passed in the meeting of May 10, 1976. Some of your efforts were certainly beyond the call of duty. "I have given much thought to the decision of whether or not to return to coaching this fall. One of my concerns at this point, having made the decision, is the hope that the decision does not transmit a false impression of my feelings toward you and your colleagues. "The decision was made with reluctance in that, as you know as well as I, the will of the man, or group of men, who perpetrated this whole unpleasant situation has been done. This violates a very basic belief that I have always held that if you are right you will come out on top. "I feel that at least partially due to Mr. Gray and his associates, the Canton Football Program has become immersed in a pool of negativism. Anyone who has any knowledge of successful athletics knows that the winning programs are those that have parents and supported making positive contributions to the program, as well as the coaches. To my knowledge, this man has yet to make a positive contribution to a program here at Canton. The players have been exposed to negative comments and attitudes to the point that some of them have assumed a comparable posture in relation to the program. Coaching in a situation such as this could certainly become a very distasteful experience, and would not be beneficial to the program in its entirety. "In my experiences with athletics, I have been exposed to and a part of some very successful and positive programs. In these programs, the professional people involved (including myself) were respected for their talents and abilities. I find that I thrive in such a situation and have difficulty functioning when surrounded by distrust and the questioning of every action. I feel the Canton Football Program has had more than its share of this type of activity and would remain this way should I remain as coach. Hopefully, with my resignation, a new coach can be hired and he can begin his program without interference. Perhaps the negative contingent can refrain from its subversive activities and allow the program to thrive. I would like to wish you luck in finding a competent coach. "Again, thank you for your efforts and indulgence."

Anti-theft drive set for CBs

As the popularity of citizen band radios has grown so has the incidents on CB thefts. To help stem the tide of theft among new owners of the popular radios, State Police have planned a weekend campaign to engrave area CB radios as part of their Operations Identification. A special State Police van will be in the community Friday, May 21 through Sunday, May 23. The van's engravers operate on extensions, which allow police to engrave CB units right in cars. According to Trooper Michael Garrison, the engraving effort has been prompted by soaring reports of CB thefts, but residents are welcome to bring along other valuables for the free engraving.

"We don't want to limit anyone to what they can bring over," Garrison said, "If it's a stereo or a blender, we'll mark it." Friday, the van will be parked all day at the Sheldon Ann Arbor Road shopping center in Plymouth township; on Saturday, the van will be a Thrifty Acres at Ford and Canton Center in Canton; and Sunday, on Seven Mile east of Northville Road in Northville Township.

Canton building activity up

The Canton Township Building Department issued 269 building permits last month, making April the busiest month so far this year for building activity in the township. According to Chief Building Inspector Chuck Thompson, the 269 permits represent new construction with an estimated value of nearly $4.7 million. Some 121 permits were issued for single family homes.

Permits were issued for 65 fences, 30 garages and 13 swimming pools. In addition, the building department granted occupancy permits for 16 homes and 10 mobile homes.

Building permits were also issued for a Big Boy restaurant on Ford Road, a strip of stores at the corner of Haggerty and Cherry Hill and Super Bowl bowling lanes on Ford Road.

Parking is puzzling in Central Lot, study says

Plymouth's Central Parking needs revamping, city officials learned last Monday night, but how much the city can afford to spend to ease downtown parking pains is another question altogether, they concluded.

City commissioners accepted a report by the traffic engineering consulting firm of Reid, Cool and Michalski which urged them to create separate entrance and exit drives on the Harvey Street side of the Central Lot and to widen the alley which encircles the lot and install sidewalks between rows of cars to make the lot more inviting for pedestrians.

Consultant Stan Cool told commissioners some of the 225 spaces in the existing lot were too short, while some of the traffic islands has apparently been installed according to earlier plans and did not suit current traffic patterns. He said trash receptacles for businesses adjoining the lot were positioned so that they interfered with pedestrians and vehicles.

A survey of cars entering the lot showed that some 40% used the south entrance on Ann Arbor Trail, a significant enough percentage to maintain that entrance and widen the radius for cars turning into the narrow alley, Cool said.

His study offered a complete redesign of the lot, which city officials say would cost upwards of $113,000, as well as minimal improvements which would aid somewhat in easing traffic congestion.

Redesign of the Central Lot would have no bearing on overcrowding problems at the city's Wiedman Lot behind the Mayflower Hotel, he said.

Willis joins Dem slate in trustee bid

Joyce Willis, a member of the Canton Board of Zoning Appeals and an assistant bank manager, has announced her candidacy for township trustee as a member of the Bob Greenstein Democratic team.

Ms. Willis, 33, a Colorado native who has lived in Canton's Carriage Hills subdivision for three years, said, "I feel very strongly the current administration has attacked the problems of Canton with strength and courage."

At the same time that she supports administration efforts to implement a new master plan and hire an industrial coordinator, she said, she is not a member of Greenstein's New Democratic Club, and is capable of making impartial judgments as a trustee.

As outlined by Greenstein, who announced his candidacy jointly with Ms. Willis, team members are obligated only to work for the election of the slate and "always be available to talk about the issues."

"I have not always agreed on particular issues," she said, "but on the whole I've agreed with the team," she said.

She said she favors the township's strict sign ordinances, and would back a licensing ordinance, provided merchants could be shown to receive benefits from licensing. Her work as former secretary of the Canton Chamber of Commerce will aid the administration to continue to strengthen ties that have often been shaky between township officials and the Canton business community, she added.

The former teacher said she envisions her role on the board as that of a "calming influence" among current board members, who have been accused of dragging out meetings with personality clashes and political cat-fighting.

Taping meetings will become a campaign issue, she said, but she says she would support the opinion of attorney Burt Burgoyne should be concluded that taping could be detrimental to the board.

Tape ban is repressive act

EDITOR:

From late Neolithic times in the Near East, right down to our own day, two technologies have recurrently existed side by side — one authoritarian, the other democratic.

If I am right, we the citizens of Canton Township are now rapidly approaching a point at which, unless we radically alter our present course, our surviving democratic techniques will be completely suppressed or supplanted, so that every residual autonomy will be wiped out, or will be permitted only as a playful device of government officials, like local balloting for already decided issues on a totalitarian state!

Let's view the authoritarian situation in Canton Township. Supervisor, Chief of Canton Township's auxiliary police, Chief ordinance officer, Prosecutor and Defense attorney for Canton Township, and finally the Honorable Judge of Canton Township, is but only one man who dons multiple hats, when and where he himself delegates the need to fill a title. This man is known as Robert Greenstein.

At this point I presume you are a bit frightened; well let's move on to the latest issue, that being of 'To tape or not to tape public meetings'. I guarantee you'll find yourself not only a bit frightened but you'll feel intimidated if not hideously disgusted!!

The official tape recorder of Canton Township Board of Trustees meetings was turned off Monday 10th of May, without a written legal opinion as to whether this action was valid. Trustees Robert Myers, James Poole and Brian Schwall voted against the suspension of taping, and Supervisor Robert Greenstein, Clerk John Flodin, Treasurer Carl Parsell and Trustee Gerald Cheske voting to stop the tapes.

Tuesday night the township board's regular meeting came to a halt as Greenstein addressed Brian Schwall and Robert Myers... "If you don't cease taping, I'll halt this meeting, until the sheriff can come..."! However the deputies who arrived called the dispute a civil matter that was outside the jurisdiction of the law enforcement agency.

I can sympathize with Robert Greenstein for wanting to cease the tapings; boy, if I had as many official and unofficial hats to fill as he does, I too would be fearful of my actions being officially recorded. As Burt Burgoyne, attorney, said to Greenstein in the parking ... "the last person who taped his words was Nixon and we know what happened to him!"

Democracy in the primal sense should be necessarily most visible in relatively small communities and groups, whose members meet frequently face to face, interact freely, and are known to each other as persons!

My eyes and ears must be failing me, for I neither see, hear or even have any inkling of ... "Democracy in Canton Township!"

MARGRET WELLARD

Where's logic?

EDITOR:

As a veteran observer of the Canton political scene, I have become somewhat calloused to the shenanigans of the Greenstein Administration — unfortunately because they are so numerous and commonplace. But even I was jarred by the "logic" which prompted the taping of board meetings to be discontinued and Greenstein's subsequent calling of the police when Schwall and Myers refused to turn off their tape recorders.

I fear Greenstein and Company have completely abandoned reason and succumbed to that infectious often fatal illness, campaign fever. (What a shame for Greenstein that Myers and Schwall are not up for re-election.) They've left poor Robert defenseless; he can't accuse them of campaigning, which is his tired and true, standard accusation. But coincidentally, Mr. Greenstein and company are up for re-election.

Also, Greenstein's contention that the tapes could be used against the township because of a statement by the board ignores the obvious fact that the township could be saved by those very same tapes. And if one counts the numerous governmental units which tape meetings, it would seem for once Greenstein does not have the vote stacked in his favor. Or perhaps he thought summoning the police would intimidate Schwall and Myers in to seeing things his way.

I wonder who Greenstein thought of summoning to intimidate the police when after their arrival they refuse to meddle in the mess? As they were forced to inform our supervisor, they can't enforce board regulations.

Should we be concerned that Greenstein and company are so squeamish about being held accountable for their words? Or should we bow to Greenstein's "logic" and even add an additional precaution "in the best interest of the township?" We could gag all the Board except Greenstein and have the restraints removed after they've cleared their statements in writing with Greenstein.

After all, as Robert G. Greenstein would have us believe, he's an honest attorney, our personal legal "expert" who is just doing what is best for the entire township. Would you doubt Mr. Greenstein?

Greenstein trips in tape brouhaha

Canton Supervisor Bob Greenstein seems too afraid of losing a mile to ever consider giving an inch. When you're implacable and you're a trustee, that's one thing. There's room in the world, and in democratic governments, for the devil's advocate, the nay-sayer. But when you're implacable and you're chief administrator of the township, your actions can bring the workings of government to a standstill.

That's a distinction which makes the supervisor's job more difficult. He can argue convincingly that a move to curtail tape recordings by board members becomes holy writ the moment it takes the form of a board resolution, and therefore must be enforced at all costs before the business of the township can proceed, or he can recognize that the people of the township are best served by a government which can function in spite of disputes.

The spectacle of Sheriff's deputies asked to physically remove tape recorders or trustees (whichever comes first) from the Canton Firehall would be laughable did it not reflect a distorted understanding of their supervisor's job.

The buck stops with him. No matter how critically he views the antics of his fellow board members, perhaps as leader of the township he must choose between escalating squabbles or defusing them.

Lately he's done little of the latter.

Good job

KATHY KUENZER:

Thank you very much for the article you wrote about me and the Project. It seems that almost everyone in Plymouth read it and was very much impressed by the article and the Project.

I hope the article will encourage people to support our Project in any way. Thank you.

Crier needs proofreader

EDITOR:

The attached is not meant as malicious criticism, but I don't believe it!

The errors in spelling, spacing, letter case and context of idea took all the pleasure out of reading this edition for informational purposes, so I made a game out of finding them (see red underscoring).

I'm sure I missed some, but I was getting bleary-eyed from searching. I felt sure that when I got to the want ads I would find "Wanted - Proofreader - apply at Community Crier."

I'm sure the folks at the Observer don't feel they have to worry about competition if this is any example of what's to come!

Good thing I didn't have to pay for this or I'd really be upset!

If there is a valid excuse for letting this calibre of material go to press, I'd like to hear it. If not, please don't plan on me to purchase or promote your publication in the future.

IRENE M. THEISEN

EDITOR'S NOTE: It's always nice to know our readers notice what we do. Last week's edition of The Community Crier, in which Ms. Theisen found 16 typographical errors on the front page, nearly didn't make it onto the streets. Our typesetting equipment broke down early Monday night and the staff was hard-pressed Tuesday to get our copy down to the printers to be set. Then, one of the printer's typesetting machines broke down! It seemed the gremlins had it in for last week's edition. At any rate, as little chance as we had to proof-read the type, last week's paper got out. Fortunately, this is not our normal state of affairs, as you can see by this issue. We extend our apologies to any readers inconvenienced by The Crier's typesetting difficulties of last week.

Thought CP call was crank

EDITOR:

I feel compelled to respond to the letter printed on May 12 from Mrs. Lee Fidge. I have been unjustly criticized.

I indeed did receive a phone call from Chuck Lazette, election committee chairperson for the "Concerned Parents." At first, I thought that it was a crank call. I could not believe that they would consider interviewing me as a possible candidate. On numerous occasions the "Concerned Parent" have indicated that they were going to replace me on the Board of Education in June with a candidate who shared their views.

As the conversation proceeded, Mr. Lazette indicated that the only purpose of the interview was to help the "Concerned Parents" decide upon a candidate whom they could completely support. He indicated also that this support would include complete financial support for the campaign.

I told Mr. Lazette that I was not interested in complete financial support from any group. I have always paid my own expenses. Also, financial support during a campaign implies an ongoing loyalty and obligation to that group which supplies the support, in this instance, the "Concerned Parents."

If re-elected, my loyalty would remain with all the citizens and students of the Community School District, not to a particular interest group.

I am not interested in being supported as a candidate of the "Concerned Parents." However, if they would like to meet with me for an exchange of ideas and information, I am perfectly willing to do so with the understanding that I will not be their candidate. I am my own person.

Neither schools, Twp. required to guard kids

Neither schools nor cities and townships are required to provide crossing guards for youngsters going to and from school, but all have authority to do so.

That's the opinion of state attorney General Frank Kelley issued last week in response to a request by school officials who sought to pinpoint responsibility for providing the guards.

School board members and Plymouth Township officials have been at loggerheads over which body should pay for crossing guards serving on township corners. Township officials have repeatedly rejected school requests that they share in the cost of providing guards, claiming the schools are obligated to provide the guards, and exercise authority over them.

"From the tenor of (Kelley's) letter," Supt. John M. Hoben wrote the supervisors of Canton and Plymouth townships and the city manager of Plymouth, "I would assume then that the practice of joint responsibility is one that is justifiable and incumbent on all units. I realize there may be disagreement among you in the interpretation; however, that is how I view the information.

City deals in boots

The Plymouth City Commissioners approved an exception to their spending rules last Monday which they hope will boost revenues in the Cultural Center pro shop.

Commissioners authorized Chuck Skene, acting director of parks and recreation for the city, to place an order for some $2,500 worth of skate boots from Austria.

According to Skene, the boots, which sell for more than $100 per pair, are becoming increasingly popular with local skaters, yet the nearest distributor is in Cleveland. The pro shop should have no trouble selling the skates, he added, and for a profit that could boost lagging sales in the shop.

City officials waived their standard requirements that bids be taken on purchases so large, because a Florida wholesaler is sole distributor in the U.S. Instead, the commission on Skene's recommendation agreed to place an order which will make the city through its Cultural Center sole local distributor.

Bida names pair

Mayor Joe Bida last Monday appointed two Plymouth City Commissioners to a new committee on parking, and said he would add a third within a week.

Named to represent the city commission in talks with the planning commission designed to bring together information and opinions on parking in Plymouth were Commissioners Tom Turner and Mary Childs. A third prospective appointee, Commissioner Bev McAninch, said she would consider the offer.

Review of open hunting approved

Canton officials last directed a hunting committee to go back to the drawing board to study requests to close off the township's Section Five to hunting.

According to Section Five resident Ed Lough, a wide majority of residents and property owners in the square-mile section in the northwest Canton have petitioned to ban hunting in their area.

With only Supervisor Bob Greenstein and Clerk John

Flodin, dissenting, the township board agreed to seek reconsideration of the no-hunting special.

As Treasurer Carl Parsell put the motion, "the board requests the hunting board a committee of local and state officials which investigates the request and urged that it be denied - have a hearing." Township officials, Parsell said, agreed that serious danger to life, limb and property existed for a Section Five residents.

Voting in the minority, Flodin asked to be replaced as township representative to the hunting control committee. "Since the board has expressed dissatisfaction with our decision," he said, "I prefer that someone else sit on the committee."

Krum rescued the antique from the boxes of unsold goods and it has since been presented in the post's name to the historical society.

three-year pact with the DPW's teamster bargaining unit which calls for a pay hike of 8% in the first year.

The new contract takes effect July 1.

In the second year of the pact DPW employes are slated to receive an additional 7% pay boost and the addition of one personal leave day. One holiday and prescription drug aid were approved for the first year.

In the third year, wages and fringe benefits will become subject to negotiations while other provisions will remain the same.

Minimum hourly rate for a DPW employe under the new pact will be $4.95.

Dombecki seeks clerk's post

The Canton Republican ticket last week added a second name to its roster, with the announcement of Ms. Pat Dombecki's candidacy for township clerk. Ms. Dombecki, 32, a resident of Windsor Park, has lived in Canton for three years. She has been employed as a secretary at Ford Motor Co. for the past eight years and worked in part-time secretarial positions before that.

She studied computer programming at Henry Ford community College.

Ms. Dombecki says although she likes the master plan concept, the method of the current plan isn't the best.

"This one is poorly programmed," she said, "It is incomplete. Right now we don't need a plan, just a concept. I think a moratorium should be placed on building permits that would change commercial to residential - places like Canton Center Road. We're moving to fast on this."

She says both the campaign of the Republican ticket and the plan for a Republican administration is to operate with advisory groups such as Total Citizens Power and the League of Women Voters.

"We are not going to be a closed-minded team," she said.

Ms. Dombecki the first woman candidate to announce joining candidate for supervisor Peter Bundarin on the Republican ticket.

Canton parents optimistic Youth winning asthma fight

BY KATHY KUENZER

"Eric weighed 50 pounds from the time he was six until he was 10," recalls Mrs. Bobbie Williams. "He recently received a letter from him and he's gained 23½ pounds since he went to CARIH last August."

CARIH, the Children's Asthma Research Institute and Hospital in Denver, has been the home of 11-year-old Eric Williams of Canton since last August, when his parents took him west to find out how his apparently uncontrollable asthma could be treated.

"From the time he was born, Eric was in and out of the hospital for various reasons," recalls Mrs. Williams, "as he got older, we were told he had asthma. For awhile he responded to medication — then nothing worked."

Eric's battle with asthma left him underweight, uncomfortable and weak, but, says his mom, it never dampened his spirit for school and people.

"There were many days when I would have preferred to keep him home from school (Feigel) which he then attended), but he begged me to let him go. When he was younger, the kids often made fun of him and he couldn't understand why they teased him about his "funny way of breathing," but later he made friends who would defend him against anyone."

Mrs. Williams says she and her other two sons and husband "rarely had a night's sleep" with Eric's breathing difficulties, but they were determined not to baby him or make an invalid out of him.

"Last year, when he turned 10, our doctor asked us if we would be interested in sending Eric to CARIH. We just weren't making progress with him here, and there they have all the facilities for determining just what is causing Eric's asthma."

What doctors there learned is that Eric's asthma has multiple causes, including allergic reactions and a chemical imbalance in his blood.

Diagnosis of the problem has enabled doctors to find suitable medicines and a strict diet that allows Eric to function without the debilitating symptoms he had before.

"They have a very set, rigid routine at CARIH," says Mrs. Williams. "That's something it's hard to have at home."

"But in the months he's been there, Eric has started to participate in everything. He bowls, skis, rollerskates and even plays quarterback for the football team! In March we received CARIH's newsletter which shows Eric playing basketball."

The Williamses expect Eric to return home sometime this summer.

Mrs. Williams' strong belief in the work of CARIH, born out by the dramatic change in her son's condition, has lead her to become one of the 14,000 volunteers who seek funds for the center yearly.

"Some nine million people in the United States — half of them children — have asthma," she says. "There is no cure, but as long as I'm able, I will help find ways to support the work they are doing at CARIH."

The March for Breath, sponsored locally by the Greater Detroit Area Chapter of CARIH is canvassing the Plymouth-Canton area for contributions throughout the month of May. Mrs. Williams hopes that when volunteers knock on local doors, residents will respond with enthusiasm for the center that she knows saved her son Eric's life.

For further information on CARIH and its work, call Mrs. Williams at 453-1806.

Canton won't join in sewer Canton Board of Trustees went on record last week in opposition to the Wayne County Road Commission's proposal to build a "supersewer" sewage interceptor through Plymouth and Canton townships to serve western Wayne County and the Huron Valley watershed in Washtenaw County.

The Canton Board joins the Plymouth City Commission in indicating to county officials that it has no use for the giant sewer project, but not, as the city did, because it would not require additional sewage treatment facilities. Rather, Canton officials said, because they held suspect such a proposal promoted by the road commission.

Geneva opens

Geneva United Presbyterian Church will hold the first service of worship in its new building this Sunday, May 23 at 10 a.m. The church is located on Sheldon Road just north of Ford Road. Sunday worship and church school for nursery through fourth grade are both scheduled for 10 a.m.

The Geneva Congregation, which was started in the fall of 1972 by the Rev. Jeffrey S. Goldsmith, has been meeting for more than three years at th Pioneer Middle School. The church is now some 200 members strong.

Female troopers team up to patrol community

BY LYDIE ARTHOS

Heads often turn in amazement and curiosity at the sight of two female state troopers patrolling Plymouth, Canton and Northville townships together. Of Michigan's 2,000 state troopers, only nine are women, so it's novel enough to see just one female trooper. What's still more unusual is to see a pair of them on patrol together. Troopers Dorothy Brown and Nadine Yavanovich are greeted with quizzical smiles not just by the people they meet, but by their male counterparts.

But in spite of the initial surprise, Brown says people who have called for help are glad to see them arrive.

Certainly, the mother who couldn't get to the hospital in time was relieved to receive Trooper Brown's assistance in the delivery of her twins on the shoulder of Novi Road.

Brown and Yavanovich patrol separately from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. When it gets dark, they team up and patrol together until 11 p.m. As state troopers, they investigate everything from prowlers to rapes, as well as enforcing traffic laws. On an ordinary Wednesday night, they stopped cars for defective equipment and speeding. In addition, they investigated a call for harassment by a juvenile at Thrifty Acres.

the Crier's friends & neighbors

Although they've just begun patrol together, both Brown and Yavanovich have had about a year of patrol experience. They recognize that in police work, situations will arise which require the use of physical force either in self-defense or to restrain a suspect. While they are properly wary of situations they say they are prepared to act in the face of such difficulties.

As women, Brown and Yavanovich, believe they can offer a special contribution to local law enforcement. From experience, they have found that they are more successful than men in communicating with victims of sexual assault and with juveniles.

Female victims are more comfortable with them and more likely to confide in them they say. Yavanovich says male troopers have asked her to help in cases of sexual assault. They are often better able to establish a rapport with juvenile suspects. As a result, they may be able to gather more evidence about the crime under investigation.

Brown and Yavanovich have just completed a week of patrol together. While they recognize the novelty of their partnership, they're enthusiastic, and they're ready to take to the road again.

John D. Shingleton, director of placement at Michigan State University and John R. Kinney, chairman of the Board and executive director of the MSU Alumni Association, will be commencement speakers for Salem and Canton High School graduation exercises, respectively.

Shingleton is well-known in Michigan as a lecturer and author of magazine articles. He has co-authored three books and participated in two CBS television documentaries, "The Recruiter" and "Higher Education - Who Needs it?"

He has served as placement director since 1963.

Kinney, former placement director at Michigan State, has served as executive director of the alumni association since 1967.

He is a former professional baseball player with the Boston Red Sox, and served as director of alumni relations at MSU from 1963-1967.

Shingleton will speak at the Salem commencement ceremonies at 8 p.m. on Friday, June 11. Kinney will address graduating seniors at the Canton ceremonies on Thursday, June 10 at 8 p.m. Both graduations will be held at the Centennial Park field.

Dial a dialect

Canton Township telephone customers in the 397 and 981 exchanges will be able to dial direct to Chile, New Zealand, Peru and Singapore beginning this Saturday.

Haze Wilson, local Michigan Bell manager, said the four countries are being added to the International Direct Distance Dialing (IDDD) network at 2 p.m. May 15.

Stahl gets degree

The Rev. William Stahl, pastor of First Baptist Church of Plymouth will receive a doctor of ministries degree from Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Philadelphia May 23.

Rev. Stahl has been working toward the degree for three years. He came to the Plymouth church last fall.

DOC speaks

Crier Sports Editor Dennis O'Connor visited the sixth grade classes of Gary Balconi and Peggy Tsoucaris of Pioneer Middle School last Thursday to talk about journalism with students.

The Pioneer youngsters have been studying a unit on journalism over the past few weeks.

Art show, social mark Truesdell closing

Teachers and students of two kindergarten classes in Truesdell School will mark the closing of their building with an ice-cream social and art show May 21 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. All families of children who have attended the Haggerty Road school are invited to attend.

Next year, children of-kindergarten age in the Truesdell area will attend one of three new elementary schools now under construction in Canton.

Re-use of the Truesdell school building will depend upon the June 14 millage, school officials say. One possible use of the building would be the the PLUS pre-school program.

Senior activities set at CEP

Seniors of Salem and Canton High Schools will continue graduation activities with upcoming senior honors assemblies.

Salem will hold its rewards and recognition night Thursday, May 27, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in Salem auditorium. Canton's honors assembly will be held Tuesday, June 1 at 7:30 p.m. in the Canton cafeteria.

Parents of students receiving recognition will be notified the week prior to the event.

Senior banquets for both high schools will be held at the Mayflower Meetinghouse, with tickets costing $7 per person. Canton's banquet will begin at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, June 8. The Salem banquet will begin at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, June 9.

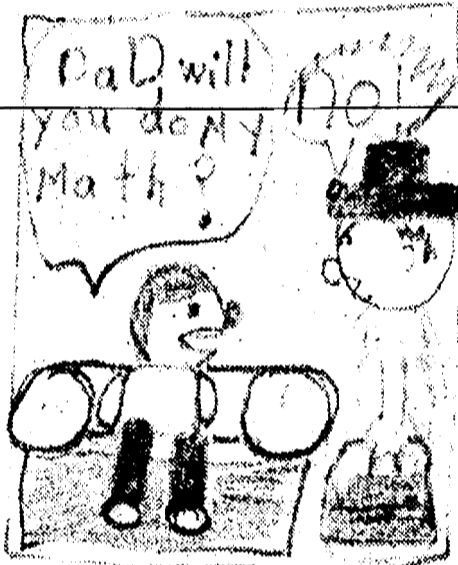

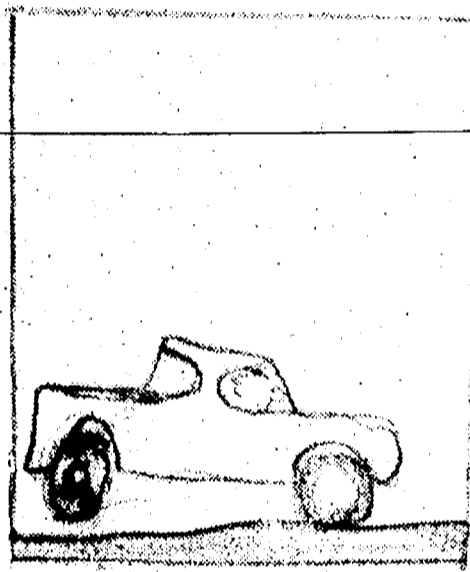

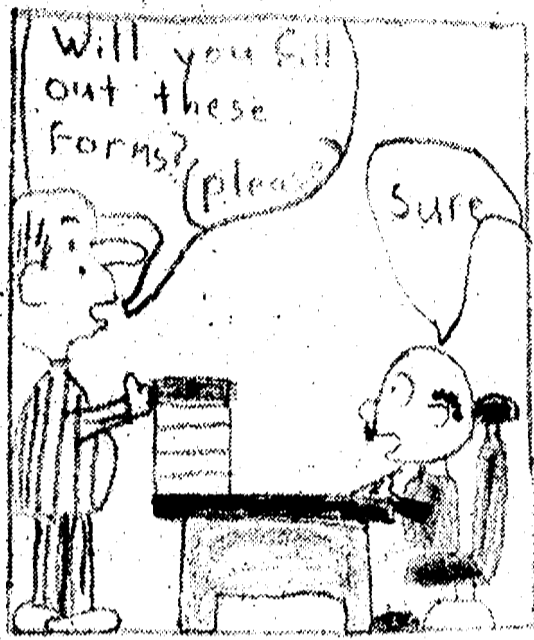

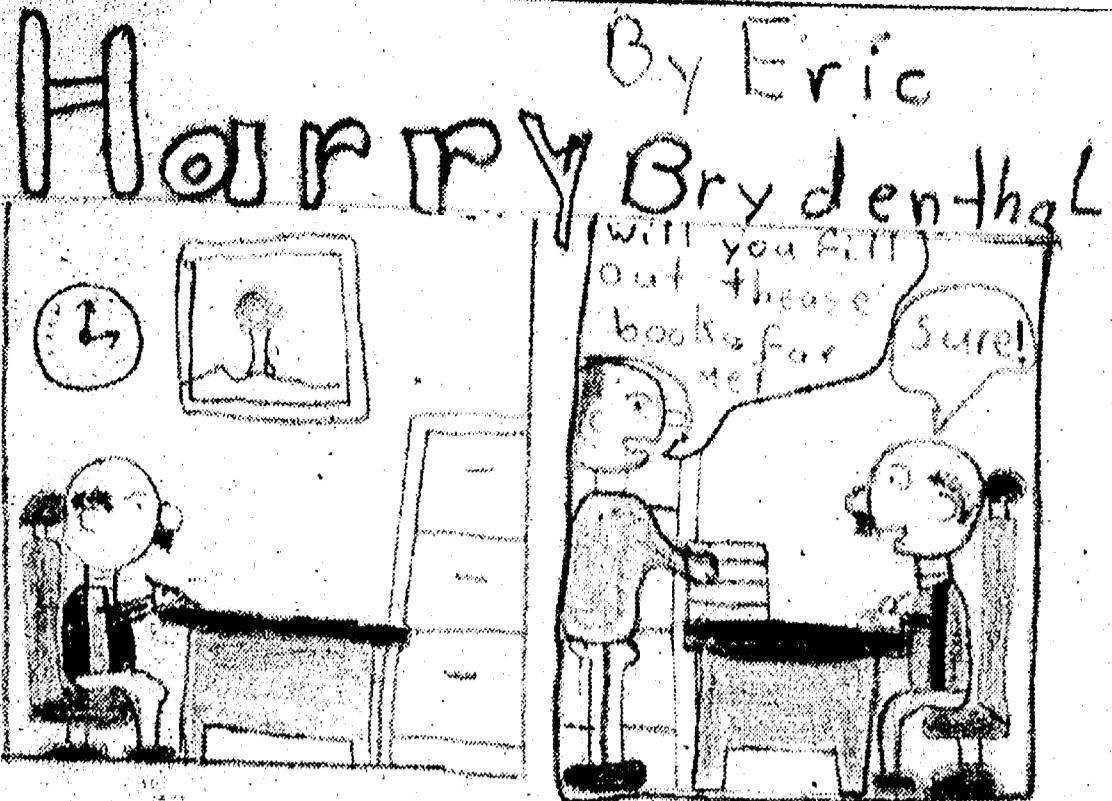

Baccalaureate services this year will be held in churches throughout the Plymouth-Canton Community on Sunday June 6.

Arts council offers new rent-a-paintings

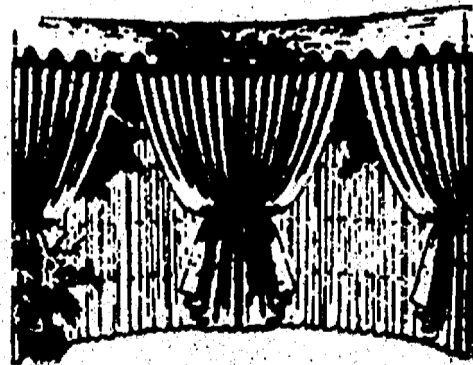

BY LYDIE ARTHOS
The Rental Gallery, a service of the Plymouth Community Arts Council, is offering a fresh perspective, a new dimension, for your home this spring, with 11 newly-acquired paintings. Of these, six reproductions are available right now for rental and acquisition, while the five originals will be available within a few weeks. The reproductions are a selection of European landscapes and still lifes, including Cezanne's "Chestnut Trees" and traditional American paintings, including Joseph Pickett's "Manchester Valley." The originals are all by American artists, primarily from the local area. Among these are Judy Fresser's still-life, "Emily's Chair," and Jo Schmidt's "Landscape Design".

These new acquisitions and other paintings are on view at the gallery on the second floor in Dunning-Hough Library, each Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Spring Trade Fair starts Friday

The Canton and Belleville Chambers of Commerce are holding their 2nd Annual Spring Trade Fair at the Wayne County 4-H Fairgrounds, located at I-94 and Belleville Roads in Belleville.

The fair will take place this weekend, May 21, 22 and 23. The Gooding Amusement Company will be providing the first carnival of the season in this area. Thrill rides, a ferris wheel and kiddie rides and games are featured. The fair provides an opportunity to give exposure to merchants, manufacturers, arts and crafts, car dealers, farmers with bedding plants, nurseries, recreational vehicles, outdoor furniture dealers and many more services that are available to the citizens of Western Wayne County.

Featured this year will be an antique auction on Friday (May 21) at 7:30 p.m. and again on Sunday at 2:30 p.m. A Polish ethnic dance group will also display their talents on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

City to study parking again

BY DENNIS O'CONNOR

After more than two and one-half hours of discussion of parking in Plymouth, the city commission and planning commission agreed to form a joint parking committee aimed at answering the questions of officials and residents.

"I would hope we get off the ground with this thing and get it going," said Mayor Joe Bida.

"In the 2½ years I've been on the commission, we've talked about this, but nothing is ever done. We just can't sit here and talk every year.

"Let's get down to the fact that we have a serious problem."

"Anything's better than nothing — and we've done nothing," echoed Planning Commission Chairman Tex Thomann.

"In terms of number of spaces, we have adequate space," Planner Eldridge said. "But the places are not in the spaces demanded. The immediate demand is downtown."

Officials return

Canton Supervisor Robert Greenstein, Treasurer Carl Parsell, and Trustees Jerry Cheske, Jim Poole and Robert Myers returned home from Washington D.C. May 15 after meeting with representatives of federal agencies to discuss financial aid programs.

Lunch with LOMAS

Too - too! It's Popeye the salad man — next Friday at Central elementary and middle schools.

Mixed with Olive Oyl and greens, it isn't a Wimpy mixture. Even a heavy (weight) like Brutus might like it.

Remembering the Alamo is no easy task these days — as Isbister will discover next Thursday. General Santa Anna would be chagrined to learn that his place in history is — a chili dog?! Davy Crockett's green 'frijoles' will be there too — but perhaps not remembered.

The Alamo has a 'tossed salad' named after it today. But in 1836, a hardy band of Texas patriots captured Santa Anna and his gang in San Jacinto a few weeks after the Alamo. They (Isbister) named a dessert after it and everything is peaches now.

Critters find home in 'wild' yard

Hungry birds and animals may soon be passing the word along the wildlife grapevine and the welcome mat is always out at 42424 Bradner Court, home of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald H. Fitch. The Fitch property has just been registered as a certified Backyard Wildlife Habitat by the National Wildlife Federation as a link in its nationwide network of mini-refuges for wildlife in residential neighborhoods.

Steps taken by the Fitches to attract wildlife include planting of about 250 trees, shrubs, vines and flowers and feeding and providing water for birds and squirrels from October through April.

In certifying the property, Thomas L. Kimball, executive vice president of the National Wildlife Federation, wrote the Fitches, "Your thoughtful faithful efforts to meet the basic needs of wildlife in your neighborhood are in the best tradition of conservation and natural resource stewardship."

Other residents who would like to encourage wildlife to nest and feed in their yards, or are interested in having their property registered as a certified Backyard Habitat should write to Backyard Wildlife Program, National Wildlife Federation, 1412 16th St. NW Washington, D.C. 20036 for a free Backyard Wildlife Kit containing a copy of the reprint "Invite Wildlife to Your Backyard."

WSDP to air levy kick-off

Wednesday, May 19 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. live from Canton High School, WSDP will broadcast the millage kickoff campaign for the June 14 election for the Plymouth Community School District. Dave Bulmer and Kurt Hoffner will present the program.

Thursday, May 20 is an open house at the high school for incoming freshmen, and WSDP will stay on later in the evening. This show will be a continuation of the Dave Braunscheidel Show, which normally runs to 8 p.m.

At 5:15 p.m. and 6:45 p.m. every day, Bicentennial minutes will be aired which will be done by the second graders at Tanger Elementary.

Scouts plan 1976 salute

Plymouth and Canton area Girl Scouts will celebrate the Bicentennial Saturday, May 22 with an afternoon of special events at West Middle School, located at the corner of Sheldon and North Territorial.

The "Girls Scouts: Salute to '76" will be open to the public from 1:45 to 5 p.m. with the scout troops arriving earlier in the day to set up their displays and booths.

The public portion of the day's events will begin shortly after 1:30 p.m. with a flag ceremony with all troops participating troops.

Exhibits of Colonial crafts, skills, and recreation will be staged both inside and outside West. Movies and performances are also being planned for various times throughout the afternoon.

The day's events are free, but donations will be sought at the door to help cover the cost of use of school facilities.

For further details, contacts Mrs. Jean Boshe at 459-1135.

Real Estate

BY WILLIAM DECKER

REALTOR

Interest Down-Cost Up

Are you waiting until interest rates drop before you buy a home? Do you think that this will save you money? The home you have your eye on will cost you more in monthly payments two years from now - even if the interest rate drops one percent.

For example, take a home that costs $40,000. With a 20% down-payment and financed with a 25 year, 9% mortgage, the monthly payment would be $268.80. But two years from now, if prices keep rising at the average rate, the now $40,000 home would likely cost $45,000. If the interest rate decreased to 8% not only would the down payment be $1,000 more, but the monthly payment would increase to $277.99. If the interest rate stayed at 9% the payment would come to $302.40.

So, it's obvious that the overall value of the home - not the interest rate - makes the biggest impact on your monthly payment. Since there is no indication of property values decreasing, the moral of the story is - Buy now or pay more later.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at REALTY WORLD - Wm. Decker, Inc. Realtors, 670 S. Main St. Plymouth. Phone: 455-8400. We're here to help!

Wolcott wins 10th and 11th Salem spoils RU upset hopes, 13-4

BY DENNIS O'CONNOR
Brian Wolcott had to pitch 12 of the Salem High Rocks' 14 innings last week, but the results didn't change one bit. Wolcott won the 10th and 11th games of his remarkable season and all but wrapped up Salem's Suburban Eight League title for the second consecutive season.

Salem subdued Redford Union 13-4 on Friday, and Belleville 3-0 last Tuesday, to increase its overall record to 12-2 for the season.

And going into yesterday's contest against Trenton, the Rocks held a comfortable three-game lead with only five games remaining in conference play, posting a perfect 9-0 record. All of those loop victories were recorded by Wolcott.

The upset minded Panthers from Redford scored two runs in the opening inning, thanks to Salem sloppiness in fielding and throwing.

But Howard Inch held off the second stanza safe on first after an error, and Bob Smith smashed a 360-foot fly ball over the leftfielder's head and into the creek for a homerun that tied the score.

"That homer really picked us up," said coach Brian Gilles after the game.

The Rocks then proceeded to load the bases in that same inning on back-to-back walks to Bruce Gerish and Ben Wilcox and a bunt single by Dave Pierce.

With two outs, John DenHouter forced a walk to score one run, and cleanup hitter Mitch Symonds came through with a clutch single up the middle for two more tallies and a 5-2 lead.

Salem made it a comfortable 7-2 lead after three innings on a two-run double by Pierce.

The Panthers got two back in the fourth, but Salem maintained the five-run margin at 9-4 with two of its own in the fifth, before Wolcott gave way to John DenHouter, who once again solidly cleaned things up for the final two innings to preserve another victory.

The Rocks made a rout of things in the sixth, scoring four more runs thanks to a wild Redford pitching staff.

Salem totaled nine hits in all, as Smith added a single and sacrifice fly to his homer. Wolcott and Pierce chipped in with two hits each.

Tim Lilley and Smith were defensive stars, making fine catches in the outfield.

In the Belleville game, Wolcott didn't get the support he is accustomed as the Rocks collected only three hits, scoring two of their three runs on a wild pitch and a bases-loaded walk. Smith scored Symonds for the third run on a double.

Wolcott went the distance, throwing only 100 pitches in scattering three hits and striking out 11 enroute to the shutout.

4-2 Salem hitters trim Tigers

The Salem softball team raised its record to 4-2 in Suburban Eight League last Monday afternoon, as they teamed the Tigers from Belleville 7-2 at the Centennial Park.

The Rocks presently hold on to second place in the conference, tied with Trenton.

Debbie Pitera went all the way on the mound, striking out 15 but walking 12. She allowed just one hit all day, that being a bunt single.

Dorothy Spitz led the Rocks nine-hit attack with three singles. Goodrich and Kathy Leehman added two hits a piece. One of Goodrich's safeties was a triple.

Donna Goodrich and Kathy Dillon scored single runs in the first two innings of play, giving the Rocks an early 2-0 advantage.

But a combination of walks and sloppy fielding gave Bentley three runs in the fourth and Salem never caught up after that.

Julie Miner, in relief of starter Debbie Pitera, was the losing pitcher.

Qualifying quests coming

Although both Salem and Canton baseball teams are in the midst of league action the state baseball tournament begins this week with qualifying games for pre-district play.

The Rocks begin their defense of the state championship crown they won last season with a qualifying game against Suburban Eight League opponent Dearborn Edsel Ford this Saturday, May 22. The contest will be played at Centennial Park beginning at 11 a.m.

If Salem wins that game, the team faces Garden City East in Garden City for a pre-district game the following Saturday.

If the Rocks lose, they're out of the tournament. The Chiefs are in the similar do-or-die tournament situation, as they open play on Thursday, May 20 against Dearborn Heights Crestwood. That contest will be played at Central Middle School beginning at 4 p.m. A victory advances the Chiefs to the pre-district against Livonia Franklin in Livonia. That game will be played on Saturday, May 29.

Johnson, Randazzo miss action

Salem baseball clean-up hitter Charlie Johnson missed Friday's game against Redford Union after suffering a face injury last Wednesday afternoon.

Johnson fell asleep under a sun lamp for close to eight hours, suffering third-degree burns on his face.

He was in the hospital in serious condition on Thursday, but improved enough to be released from Ann Arbor on Friday. He was expected to be ready for action in yesterday's contest at Trenton.

Canton Chief second baseman Kevin Randazzo was out of action last week with a severe sore throat.

Thinclads comeback for 1st victory

Rocks snap RU string

BY DENNIS O'CONNOR

It's been eight long years since a Plymouth track team has beaten a squad from Redford Union.

But that long string ended last Thursday night, when the Rock thinclads won their first dual meet of the season, a narrow 67-65 victory over the Panthers. In the other half of the double dual action, the Redford Union girls team beat the Salem girls 78-36.

What made the meet a thriller for coach Gary Balconi and his young team was the come-from-behind nature of the triumph. The Rocks trailed by a hefty 19 points after their field events, 32,13, and still trailed by 16 points with only four events left, 60-44.

Then Salem runners surprised everyone, with clean sweeps in the two-mile and 220 dash that lifted them two points ahead of the Panthers.

The squads split victories in the last two relays, as the Rocks hung on to their two point margin of victory.

The evenly matched teams split first place finished the middle, each squad picking up eight. But Salem won two of three relays.

Bob Spisich was the long field event winner for Salem leaping 20'1 1/2" in the long jump. Mike Cristie placed first in the 120 high hurdle with a :16.4 clocking, and miler Walt White raced to an 18-second victory in that event.

Greg Davis ran a slow 100-yard dash with a 10.7 time, but still took first.

Scott Lekam, Curt Judd and Jeff Econom were the three Rocks who swept the two mile, while Jerry Basierbe, Tim Kindree, and Christie were the 220 dash and pointgetters.

Davis, Kindree, Larry Rightler and Basierbe won the 440 relay in :45;1. Davis, Kindree, Chris Ritchey and Basierbe were runaway victors in the 880 relays with a time of 1:34.0

Twenty-four personal best times and distances were compiled by the Rock varsity and junior varsity teams.

Chief softballers lead surge into loop

The Canton Softball team took over first place in the Western Six League standings with two victories over conference opponents last week.

Canton holds a 4-1 league record and a 4-3 overall mark not including yesterday's game.

The Chiefs vaulted into first place in the conference last Thursday with an 8-6 victory over the defending champs, Waterford Mott, at the Canton field. Freshman Laura Butler replaced Lucy Howe in the opening inning hurling the final six for the victory.

Canton jumped out to a 3-0 lead after the first stanza, but Mott caught up with two runs in the sixth, and three more in the final stanza finally crushed the Waterford squad.

Shortstop Cindy Krieg, who batted two-for-three in the game, forced the winning runs home with a two run shot to leftfield that a Mott fielder booted for an error.

The Chiefs got a total of seven hits in the game, as Judy Friedman collected two safeties.

The game was ended on a double play by Krieg, second baseman Kathy Peck and first baseman Kim Zoladz.

That same threesome teamed for two more double plays against Walled Lake Western on Tuesday, in a close defensive battle that saw Canton win 3-2.

Howe went all the way on the mound for the victory, allowing just five hits and striking out two.

The Chiefs put together another seven hit attack, led by the sophomore Friedman's three hits.

Cathy Verduce scored the winning run, when Peck walked with the bases loaded in the fifth inning.

Sommerville, Szilagyi fire 98s

In this, their first year, the Salem and Canton girls golf teams didn't qualify anyone for the state meet, but ended with 10 and 11th place finishes in the field of 18 teams in regional competition last weekend at Grand Blanc.

Canton's Kristi Sommerville and Salem's JoAnn Szilagyi share the community's best scores on the day, both firing 98 for the 18-hole course.

The Rocks finished with a fourplayers total of 480 for their 10th place finish. The Chiefs were right behind at 485. "The competition was great," said Chief Coach John Crosson, who was especially impressed with the regional winners from Clarkston. "It was a worthwhile experience and the girls learned a lot. We saw some tremendous

Water Waves clinic

A synchronized swimming clinic sponsored by the Centennial Park WaterWaves will be held May 25 at 3:30 p.m. All eighth, ninth, tenth, and eleventh graders interested in trying out for next year's squad should report to the Salem pool with suit, towel and bathing cap at that time. This year's Water Waves will instruct prospects on what they will need to know for the tryout.

The club's annual show was held last weekend.

golf," the Canton mentor said. Salem coach Bob Waters echoed Crosson's remarks adding that "the caliber of girls golf in the state is really blossoming."

Redford girls prove too tough for Rock runners

The Redford Union girl tracksters proved why they are the team to beat in the Suburban Eight League when they easily handled the Rocks, 78-36 in a double dual meet last Thursday night on the Centennial Park track.

"We felt that if we scored 40 points it would be a great performance for us," said a pleased coach Fred Thomann, whose squad fell just four short of that mark.

Salem took five first places in the 14 events, including a school record toss by Clarice Hartnett in the discus throw. Her distance was 90'10".

The Rocks controlled both sprint races, with JoAnn Langkabel and Jean Sellman winning the 100 and 220 dashed respectively. Langkabel raced the 100 in 12.2 seconds while Sellman won in :27.2.

Both girls teamed up with Dana Worsnop and Polly Richards to win the 880 relay with 1:49.8 timing.

The Rocks and Chiefs faces each other for their final dual meet of the short season yesterday afternoon at Hilltop.

Sandy Esso also won the mile in 5:58.4. Sue Stanwood ran a personal best in the half mile run, taking third in 2:35.9.

Chiefs fall short in last relay

It came down to the last event, the 440 relay, but the Canton girls track team lost that final race by two-tenths of a second to fall to Churchill 62-52 in Western Six League action last Wednesday.

The Chiefs placed first in six of the 14 events, but won only one of the three relays, Veronica Gray, Beth Richardson, Robin Radoye and Meagan Ford teamed up to race 1:51.5 in the 880 relay and win that event.

Gray was an individual victor in both the high jump and 220 dash, with a 4'6" leap and a :26.9 clocking.

Lynne Bigelow was first in the 100 hurdles with a :17.6 clocking, and Ford won the 100 dash with an improved time of 12 seconds flat.

Beth Tregembo won the 440 yard run in 1:04.7.

LEAPING HIGH enroute to a third place finish in the long jump is Salem's Larry Rightler. The Rocks won the dual meet against Redford Union 67-65 for their first victory of the season. (Crier photo by Dennis O'Connor)

Chief netters notch 1st win

After a mid-week lineup change by Coach Jim Hayes, the Canton High tennis squad won its first match, beating Waterford Mott last Wednesday, 4 1/2-3. The netters fell to Walled Lake Western two days before Wednesday's victory. Steve Prueter remained undefeated Wednesday, winning in three sets. Junior Steve Pasley rebounded from a losing first set to defeat his Waterford opponent in three sets. The vic-ponent in three sets. The victory was Pasley's second in as many tries. When John Herron won his second consecutive match at third singles, the netters needed only one winning match in the remaining four to take the team match.

Diamondmen lead loop

Wet weather caused cancellations of three Canton baseball contest last week, but the Chiefs managed to get a Western Six League game in last Wednesday, shutting out Waterford Mott 3-0.

The Chiefs scheduled Saturday doubleheader with non-league opponents Highland Park was cancelled because of rain. A conference game against Northville on Monday was called off due to wet grounds at the Mustangs field.

That game was rescheduled yesterday at Central Middle School.

Going into that Tuesday contest, Canton opened an important week which includes two league games and a qualifying contest against Dearborn Height Crestwood.

The Chiefs hold a first place 4-1 record in the conference, not including yesterday's game, and a 10-5 mark overall.

Today May 19, the Chiefs travel to Haggerty Field for a league contest against Livonia Churchill, before playing Crestwood the following day at Central.

Bill Parson was masterful against Mott, riddling the Waterford opponents for the second time this season.

Parson made quick work of Mott, going all the way for his fourth victory against one setback. He gave up a mere two hits while striking out 15.

After Dave Pink scored the initial Chief run in the second inning, coming home on a passed ball, catcher Tom Close put the game away for good with a two-run homer over the left-field fence that score Steve Dugan in front of home. Dugan got on base when he was hit by a pitch.

Salem streak hits 4

BY JOE PIERCE

With victories over Allen Park and Livonia Franklin, the Salem Tennis team extended their winning streak to four.

In Thursday's match against Allen Park, the Rocks shut out the Jaguar squad 7-0.

Co-captain Kevin Bloom had a tough match competing at the first singles slot winning 6-2, 7-6. Curt Schultz played a fine match in downing his opponent 6-3, 6-3.

Bill Cook, had an easy time in third singles coming out victorious 6-2, 6-1. Freshman Bob Braun made it a clean sweep in the singles play for the Rocks, trouncing his opponent, 6-1, 7-6.

The first doubles team, consisting of Jeff Bearup and Chris Saxton, scored a convincing victory over a Jaguar tandem 6-1, 6-3. Craig Stevens and Curt Lewis completed the rout with a 6-2, 6-0 victory.

In Tuesday's match with Franklin, the Rocks had a difficult time in winning 4-3.

Bloom and Schultz, were the only winners in the singles play, 6-2, 6-2 and 6-0 and 6-0, respectively. Saxton and Bearup continued their winning ways 6-3, 6-4. Thomas and Andress had to go three sets before downing their foes 4-6, 6-4, 7-6.

Bennett boasts two firsts

BY MATT NORRIS

Canton High thinclads lost their third league meet of the season Thursday, by a score of 97 1/2 - 44 1/2, against Farmington Harrison at Harrison's track.

Coach Brian Schwall said he was pleased with his team, however, which collected five first places, six second places, and six thirds.

Senior Brian Bennett displayed his strength in the middle distance races, grabbing first in the 880 and 440 yard runs.

Canton placed a thinclad behind Bennett in both events, as Cliff Norris took second in the 880 and Mike Morry third in the 440.

The Chiefs won the 880 yard and mile relays with 1:37 and 3:43 times. The mile relay team of Bennett, Mowry, Norris and junior Steve Seppel has won in its last three meets, and each time has been faster than the last.

Canton took one more first place, with Gerry Durocher's 23.6 clocking in the 220, trailed by third place freshman Rich Fleisher. Durocher also sprinted to second in the yard dash.

Sophomore Brent Eckles replaced injured teammate Randy Reinas in the pole vault, as Scott Gray and Eckles won second and third places.

Rocks edge Chief frosh, 1-0

It was pressure-packed. It was emotional. It was all the things you would expect in a Salem-Canton matchup - even at the freshman level.

The Rocks won the Centennial Park rivalry baseball game 1-0 behind an unusual two-hitter hurled by Matt Etienne.

Etienne went all the way for the win, but a touch of wildness caused the freshman to walk nine Chiefs.

Canton left 13 men on base in the final five innings, without scoring a run. Etienne finished with 12 strikeouts.

Opening-inning singles by the Rocks' Paul Dillon, Mike Michalik, and Dave Wilcox accounted for the lone run of the game.

The Rocks' seven-hit saw Michalik collect three, with Dillon and Wilcox adding two each. Jay McKinley was the loser for Canton, going all the way on the mound in a heartbreaking effort.

'Bicentennial-in-the-park' begins tomorrow

America's Bicentennial spirit and Michigan's heritage will be celebrated jointly in the opening Bicentennial-in-the-Park scheduled during Michigan Week, Thursday, May 20 from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. in Kellogg Park.

All area residents are invited to the park program to share in Bicentennial festivities. Admission is free and seating is up to the individual (i.e. bring your own chair or blanket). The program will move to the Central School gym in the event of bad weather.

The program will begin with music by the Plymouth Fife and Drum Corps, which has been traveling statewide during the 1976 year under a Michigan Bicentennial Grant. The 42-member corps will recreate historic sounds of America with traditional 18th and 19th century melodies.

Corps members will be making their first Plymouth appearance dressed in the new full dress colonial uniforms worn in the Washington Cherry Blossom Parade. The Corps will play the following selections: 'Olympic Fanfare', 'Revolutionary War Medley', 'Farandole from L'Arlesienne Suite', 'Iron Flute Medley,' 'Spirit of '76 Drum Solo" and Stars and Stripes Forever.

Plymouth Mayor Joseph Bida will welcome the City's special guests for the opening evening of the Bicentennial-in-the Park series. Visiting officials will then be introduced to the audience.

After introductions, the remainder of the program will be turned over to the Plymouth Community Schools. The school program will open with choral singing by the Tanger Elementary School Concert Choir. Costumed Smith School students will present dances performed by their forefathers.

Dance numbers include the Minuet, the Varsouvienne (also known as ("Put your little Foot") and the polka.

Following the dancing, the Plymouth-Canton and Plymouth Salem high school students will meet in the fourth Annual Log Rolling and To-Man Saw Finals. Two sets of boys and of girls will compete first in the log rolling and then in the sawing contest; both of which have been held at Centennial Educational Park for the past three years as part of Michigan history study.

When the matches are completed, students from Miller

School will offer a vocal and string instrument performance of popular American folk tunes.

For the evening finale, the Tanger chorus will return to the stage to lead the park audience in songs saluting America.

Master of Ceremonies for the evening will be Canton drama teacher Jim Courtney. The school program is coordinated by James KeKeire, with teachers Eleanor Burton and Claudia Tull directing individual groups. Wayne Weimer is organizing the log rolling and sawing contests. Director for the Plymouth Fife and Drum Corps is Mark Petty.

'76 spotlight shines on CEP

The final "spotlight on School Bicentennial" exhibit will feature displays from Centennial Educational Park. Projects made by students at Canton and Salem high schools will be on display at the Plymouth Historical Museum from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday, May 20 and Saturday

May 22 and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday, May 23.

During the display week, students from the two high schools will have free admission to the museum when accompanied by a paying adult relative.

Highlighting the museum exhibit will be a large wooden cannon, which is a replica of cannons used around the time of the Civil War built in the Salem woodshop. Also included in the display are a pictorial map of the Battle of Gettysburg and posters depicting eras in American history.

In addition to American history, students at the park will give special emphasis to Michigan history during Michigan week. Since the logging industry is an important facet of Michigan's heritage, students have been holding log rolling (or birling) and two-man saw contests during Michigan Week for the past three years.

Several musical programs celebrating the Bicentennial are planned by the CEP this spring. Vocal music and orchestra departments will present a concert, "Happy Birthday, USA" in Salem Auditorium on May 26. On June 2, the cadet, varsity and concert bands will perform in the South Mill behind Salem High School. The CEP band will hold a Bicentennial Concert in Kellogg Park June 4.

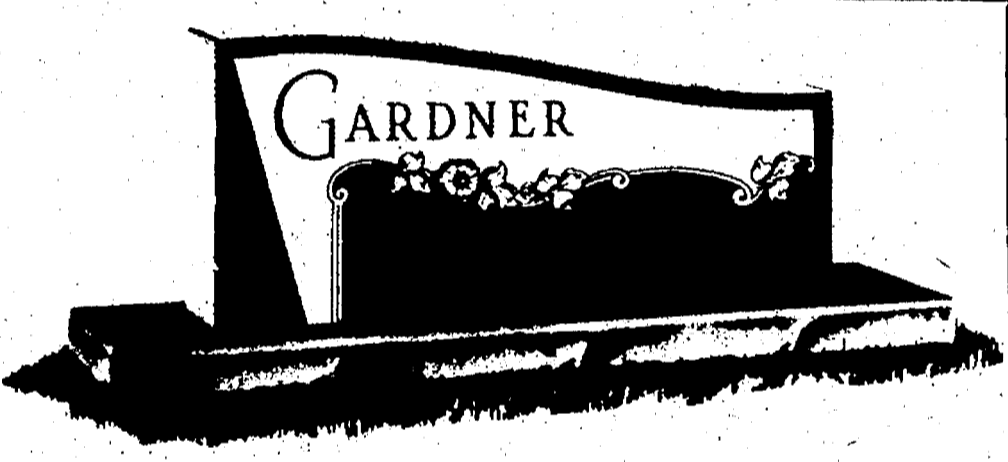

Chiefs to host Western-6 track

Canton High is the host of this season's annual Western Six League track meet, scheduled for this Tuesday, May 25.

The field events begin at 3:30 p.m. while preliminaries for the running events start at 4:30 p.m.

Finals take place at 7 p.m. with admission $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Community deaths

Stuart Oldford Sr. dies

Steward Oldford, 75, of 48075 Colony Farms Circle, in Plymouth Township died May 13 in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Services were held in Lambert Funeral Home with The Rev. John Osgood Hart officiating. Internment was in Riverside Cemetery.

Mr. Oldford, who was born in Newfoundland, came to Plymouth in 1947, where he established a building contracting business. In 1963, he formed Stewart Oldford and Sons auto dealership and Stewart Oldford Realtors with his sons, Howard and Stewart.

Bogenschutz

Lillian I. Bogenschutz, 75, of 1300 Dewey Ave. in Plymouth died May 12 in Botsford Osteopathic Hospital. Services were held in St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church with Vicar Roger L. Kuerth officiating. Internment was in Glen Eden Cemetery.

Mrs. Bogenschutz is survived by two sons, Roger of Plymouth and David of Coquitlam, B.C. Canada; daughters, Mrs. Delphine Campbell of Plymouth, Mrs. Joanne Foster of Lake Park, Fla., and Mrs. Ruth Moyer of Plymouth; a sister, Mrs. Mamie Trapp of South Lyon; two brothers, Arthur Frank of Dexter and Milan Frank of Dexter.

She was a lifelong resident and a member of St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church.

He is survived by his wife Adelia; sons, Stewart, Howard, Martin and Larry; a daughter, Marion Beatty; brothers, Augustus of Newfoundland, Joseph of Orchard Lake, Mac of Detroit, Ross and Alister; sisters, Flora Troke of Orchard Lake, Beatrice Schrivens of Detroit and Elsie Hitchcock of Nakomis, Fla.; and 12 grandchildren.

Billings

Jimmie Billings, 78, of 1142 Byron in Plymouth died May 13 in Martin Place Hospital West. Funeral services were held in Main Street Baptist Church with arrangements by Schrader Funeral Home. Internment was in Parkview Memorial Gardens. The Rev. Headley Thweatt officiated.

Mrs. Billings is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Clara Rutledge of Chicago and Mrs. Margaret E. Hess of Northville; 14 grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren.

She came to the Plymouth community 12 years ago, and was a member of Main Street Baptist Church.

Sullivan

Earl Sullivan, 73, of 14138 "F" Dr. Plymouth Township, died May 10 in St. Mary Hospital. Funeral services were held in Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church with The Rev. Fr. Robert F. Keller officiating. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Mr. Sullivan is survived by his wife, Josephine; a son, Earl of Detroit; a niece, Ella Stockinger of Wyandotte; a brother, Charles of Detroit and two grandchildren.

He is a retired employe of Hillsdale Road Commission.

Foster

A Plymouth Township woman was killed last Sunday when she was kicked by a horse. Laura Foster, 33, of 9440 McClumpha Rd., died during surgery at University Hospital, Ann Arbor, where she was taken following the accident.

Further information on Ms. Foster's funeral arrangements were unavailable at press time.

IF YOU'VE WONDERED ABOUT

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS

Here at Lambert's we welcome your inquiries. So often people are faced with their lack of knowledge at a time when making decisions is necessary. It's wise to be aware of what has to be done before the need occurs.

Chamber hears Al Ackerman

Channel 7 sportscaster Al Ackerman talked sports at the monthly Plymouth Chamber of Commerce luncheon at the Plymouth Hilton last Thursday.

In his speech Ackerman admitted, "I've always believed a reported should be a reporter and not a fan. If I've ever been a fan, I've been a silent one."

ORMAL E. DUNHAM, of Plymouth celebrated his 25th anniversary with Dunn Steel Products May 20. At a special meeting for all employees, he was presented with a diamond studded tie-tac and personal photograph. He works in Dunn's shipping department as an inspector shipper.

Contract awarded

Plymouth City Commissioners last Monday awarded a contract to D.R. Diaz Associates, contractors for $47,446 to build a lunchroom and locker facility to be added to the city's DPW building.

BOARD OF EDUCATION
PLYMOUTH COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT
BY GEORGE F. LAWTON, Secretary

Plymouth Township Board minutes

TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH BOARD OF TRUSTEES - REGULAR MEETING MAY 11, 1976

Supervisor McLaren called the meeting to order at 8:00 p.m. All members were present except Mr. Burke.

Mr. Gornick moved to approve the minutes of the regular meeting of April 27, 1976, as submitted. Supported by Mr. West and carried unanimously.

Mr. Millington moved approval for payment of the bills in the corrected amount of $41,889.03. Supported by Mr. Gornick and carried unanimously.

Mr. Ash moved that the Board of Trustees approve the request from the Plymouth Community School District and officially recognize Sunday, June 6, 1976 as a day honoring the graduating classes of Plymouth Salem and Plymouth Canton High Schools of 1976. Supported by Mr. West and carried unanimously.

Growthworks Inc. Re: Requesting financial support. Mrs. Richardson moved approval of the $2,000 expenditure, as budgeted, approval of the contract and approval of the Supervisor and Clerk to sign said contract on behalf of Plymouth Township. Supported by Mr. Gornick and carried unanimously. Mr. Gornick moved that the Board of Trustees recommend disapproval of the request for transfer from John J. Carlo, John S. Klein and Arthur Koblerzynski for transfer location of 1974 Class C Licensed business with Dance Permit from escrow at 14707 Northville Rd. Plymouth Township, Wayne County to 14510 Northville Road, Plymouth Township, Wayne County to the Liquor Control Commission of Michigan inasmuch as the property is vacant land and presently zoned R-2-A thereby a rezoning would need to be effected, also this would put 3 liquor licenses within a very limited area, and this would set an undesirable precedent and is not in the best interest of any community, not only Plymouth Township. Supported by Mr. West and carried unanimously.

Mrs. Richardson moved approval of the Distribution of the 1975 Tax Collection resolution as presented by Treasurer Joseph West. Supported by Mr. Ash and carried unanimously.

Mrs. Richardson moved approval of the release of the final payment in the amount of $7,506.56 on the Abbott-Peterson Water Main, Fire Station No. 2 to the Abbott-Peterson Company, as recommended by Herald Hamill, Supported by Mr. Gornick and carried unanimously. Storm Drain at Ann Arbor Road and Haggerty. Mr. Gornick moved that the Board ask Mr. Hamill to give a report on the amount of work already accomplished on this item, the amount to be completed and an estimate of cost to complete the study, showing alternate routes, along with desirable financing for the Township. This report to be submitted within 30 days to determine future action. Supported by Mr. Ash and carried unanimously. MR. ASH MOVED to add the following item to the agenda. Supported by Mr. West and carried unanimously. Dover Homes Company-Application No. 301. Final Preliminary Plat Approval-Trallwood Subdivision No. 3. Mrs. Richardson moved approval of the Final Preliminary Plat of Trallwood No. 3 as covered under Application No. 301. Supported by Mr. Ash and carried unanimously.

Mrs. Richardson moved to authorize the Township Engineer, Norman L. Dietrich to study and determine the physical improvements such as grading, clearing earthmoving, etc., that could be done at this time to facilitate any possible future storm water retention in the open space as covered in Mr. Dietrich's communication of May 11, 1976, at a cost not to exceed $200.00. Supported by Mr. Millington and carried unanimously.

MRS. RICHARDSON MOVED to add the following item to the agenda. Supported by Mr. Gornick and carried unanimously.

Advertise for bids on Township vehicles: Mrs. Richardson moved approval to advertise for bids in the local newspaper for four vehicles, two for the building department, one for the Constable, Liquor Inspector and one for the Fire Chief and that Supervisor McLaren and Treasurer West sit down with Mr. Gignac and go over his specifications before submitting them to the various car dealerships. These bids may be made with or without trade-ins. Supported by Mr. Millington and carried unanimously.

Mrs. Richardson moved to adjourn the meeting. Supported by Mr. Gornick. Supervisor McLaren adjourned the meeting at 10:02 p.m.

Approved, J.D. McLaren, Supervisor
Respectfully Submitted, Helen Richardson, Clerk
