An elderly Plymouth man who refused to be intimidated last Wednesday night resisted an unknown assailant's attempt to rob him at gunpoint, Plymouth Police report.

According to police, 82-year old Gustave Dicks, of 1067 S. Main, was sitting in his living room when a man in a long dark coat wearing a black ski mask and carrying a .22-caliber rifle burst in and said "this is a stick-up."

Dicks, police said, picked up his telephone to call police, but the intruder, who had apparently broken in through a basement window, knocked it out of his hand and ordered him to sit down and hand over his wallet.

With the assailant's gun at his head, Dicks refused. He grabbed the rifle and wrestled with the would-be robber, police said. The assailant finally broke free, striking the elderly man with his gun before he fled, empty-handed.

Central blasted as alternative high site

Fallen heater sparks bedroom blaze

A PORTABLE SPACE HEATER which a pet dog may have toppled into drapes led to a fire which broke out late Monday in the home of the Ronald Kuster family of 43900 S. Umlerland in Canton. Fire Chief Mel Paulun (above) and Canton firefighters were on the scene within minutes. The blaze was contained in the bedroom, but smoke spread throughout the house. In early estimates, officials placed damage at about $6,000. (Crier photo by Bill Bresler.)

The Plymouth-Canton Board of Education Monday night showed support for an alternative high school, but was left with a big problem: where to put it.

The original proposal to house it in Central Middle School met heavy opposition from Central teachers and parents.

Total separation between the alternative high students and middle school students is not possible, said Fred Crissey, a teacher at Central. "The alternative ed students will be undesirable role models," he said.

Crissey presented to the board a petition against housing the alternative high at Central signed by the entire middle school staff.

Both he and Barb Carpenter, president of Central's Parent-Teacher-Student Organization, said they didn't oppose the alternative high school, but were against placing it at Central.

Carpenter gave the board petitions which she said contained about 600 signatures of persons against putting the new program at Central.

After hearing the opposition and a defense of the site by members of the district's Alternative Education Committee, the board failed to reach a consensus. Preliminary plans were made to discuss the proposed school's fate at the board's next meeting, Feb. 27.

Of the seven board members, only Joe Gray said

Canton turns down affiliation with Plymouth Community Fund

The Canton Board of Trustees decided unanimously Tuesday to continue to use the services offered the township by United Fund, and refused an offer by the YMCA to expand into Canton, thereby ending speculation that the township would one day join with the Plymouth Community Fund (PCF).

"We have not tried to make this a political issue," said Canton Supervisor Harold Stein. "I want to make that clear."

The Supervisor said in a summary letter to the trustees that "The Plymouth Community Fund, as good as it may be, will never be the size nor be able to offer the services that the United Community Services can."

"The township board may wish to continue its minimal support to the PCF because of the overlapping services that may affect Canton."

A Family Services group will begin to operate in a building next to Geneva United Presbyterian Church soon. That group will service township residents two days and one night a week and will employ four people - three social workers and one secretary.

Family Services will stay in the temporary facility until a more permanent building can be found or possibly built. Canton Finance Director Mike Gorman said possible locations for the social service groups were the senior citizen recreation building, fire station no. one, the Folker House (currently on the township's economic development funds wish list from the federal govern-

Decision due on random selection appeals

The fate of 42 appeals of random selection assignments to Canton or Salem high schools remain in limbo after the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education discussed the controversial policy at a workshop meeting Monday night.

Superintendent Mike Hoben's office considered yesterday whether an attorney's opinion on the appeal process of the policy is necessary, according to School Board President Tom Yack.

"In the future, we need a clear-cut appeal policy," Yack said.

Canton neighborhood, or vice versa.

The agenda has not been set, but the board may consider the policy at its next meeting, Feb. 27.

"The longer we procrastinate, the more we'll lose community support," said board member Elain Kirchgatter.

The policy gives students with older siblings at one of the high schools the opportunity to choose that school.

Eldest or only children, when they reach eighth grade, receive their assignments from a computer, which critics charge separates many students from their neighborhood.

The school administration originally granted only two appeals, both for special education. The grounds for appeal were "compelling education needs," but this is too vague, according to many parents who objected to their children's assignments.

No clear deadline was established for the conclusion of an appeal process, either, Yack said.

The majority of the appeals are from parents who said their children are going to Salem while they live in a

Canton ponders pinball ordinance

A mechanical amusement device ordinance was introduced to the Canton Township Board of Trustees last Tuesday, and even though the item was tabled, the board agreed to add an amendment to require pinball machine owners be fingerprinted for "investigative purposes."

Canton Supervisor Harold Stein cautioned that the licensing of 'pinball alleys' would attract loitering youths and create problems for the township.

The ordinance requires any owner to obtain a license from the township clerk and be reviewed by police, fire and building departments. According to the ordinance, the Canton police will investigate the "character of the applicant" and the applicant could be refused the license if the police "find any of the persons named in the application not of good moral character."

The license would have to be renewed by the owners each year and prohibits children under 12 from operating the machines without their parents or guardians.

Violation of any part of the proposed mechanical amusement devices ordinance could be punishable by $100 or 90 days in prison or both.

Assessment concept OKed to build parking structures

BY CHAS CHILD

To solve what seems like an eternal parking problem in downtown Plymouth, the City Commission has approved in concept the creation of special assessment districts to raise money for parking structures.

At a special meeting Jan. 30, the Commission gave the go-ahead for the Plymouth Municipal Parking Commission to study the proposal further and report back to the commission March 6.

"We're looking to the economic future of Plymouth," said Harold Guenther, chairman of the parking committee. "The city must entice people to come in."

As proposed, the amount of the assessment will depend on three factors:

- 1) Distance of the land (to be assessed) from the parking facility.
- 2) Total area of each parcel of land.
- 3) Current use of each parcel of land.

"The problem of parking needs in congested and land-scarce areas cannot be resolved by either the city government or private enterprise alone," the committee's report to the commission said.

If a business was being assessed, it would not have to

An Employee Assistance Program was approved Monday night by the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education.

The program will help school district employes with such problems as alcohol abuse and emotional problems.

comply with the present parking ordinance, and could build on any unused land or land used for parking, the proposal states.

The cost of retiring the bonds sold to build the structures would be split 50-50 between the city and the assessments from businesses, Guenther said.

"We've been tardy on considering parking for Plymouth," Guenther said. "The longer you wait, the more it will cost."

No place for trucks in Plymouth Twp.

If you're a truck driver looking for a place to park your rig, Plymouth Township is not the place for you.

Township officials last Friday put into effect an ordinance approved by their Township Board late last year that says a truck can't be parked, regardless of whether you leave it running, on land not owned or leased by the trucker or his firm. Friday morning township officials began ticketing violators.

Township residents and officials alike have complained that semi-trailers are often parked for days at a time on the township's own property off Mill Street behind Township Hall, while residents have also complained of tractor-trailers left running for hours in the parking lot of the Red Roof Inn or on vacant property east of Denny's Restaurant on Ann Arbor Road.

Said Clerk Helen Richardson, "We've told our constables that when they see a truck parked illegally to put a violation notice or a violation on it."

Mrs. Richardson was not present at the meeting at which Supervisor Tom Notebaert had urged passage of the new ordinance. The rest of the board gave the measure unanimous approval, although, as one proponent, Trustee Maurice Breen, observed, "Good luck trying to enforce it."

Township officials acknowledge that the ordinance may be impossible to enforce - the township has no police department and drivers who live elsewhere sometimes leave their rigs for days and then are bound for another state anyway. Most are out-of-town drivers anyway, officials speculate.

Finally, as Mrs. Richardson noted, "Frankly, there's no place in Plymouth Township that allows you to park a truck."

Nursery wins planners' OK

Canton Township Planning Commissioners Monday night recommended approval of a site plan request for construction of a landscape contracting office and nursery on the south side of Ford Road between Ridge and Napier in the western section of the township.

Landscape contractor Dennis Crimboli, who currently operates out of a Ford Road location in Garden City, said the facility would employ upwards of 10 persons during peak growing seasons.

The five-acre site is currently zoned for agriculture, and rezoning was not required. The site plan must now be approved by the township Board of Trustees.

Churches can use schools

The Plymouth-Canton Board of Education Monday night unanimously approved using school facilities for church activities.

EOE adopted

The Plymouth City Commission formally adopted an Equal Opportunity Employment policy at last week's commission meeting.

According to Assistant City Manager Mark Wollenweber, the move was to formalize what employment guidelines the City has already been using.

Teachers rock for charity

THEY WEREN'T EXACTLY Led Zeppelin, but the heavy metal musicians who took the stage in the Salem High Auditorium last Wednesday delighted their audience all the same. Climaxing the Centennial Educational Park Faculty Talent Show for 1978 was the appearance of the Lead Pencil - a supergroup of mostly art teachers from the Salem faculty. Whipping the student audience into a friendly frenzy were lead guitarist Paul Urbanski (right) and drag-dancing Graham Martin, who drew cheers for his solo on the Who's famed "My Generation." The show, emceed by Joe Dakoske, featured nine acts and raised about $675 for the local chapter of the National Honor Society and for a scholarship for art students. (Crier photo by Hank Meijer.)

Expansion may force scheduling change

Changes in modular scheduling at Canton and Salem high schools may be necessary next fall due to 500 extra students expected next fall.

The capacity of the two schools - 4,000 - has already been exceeded this year, and more than 4,500 students are expected next year.

At a workshop meeting of the Board of Education Monday, the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education will hear an administration report on the changes that may be needed not only in modular scheduling, but in staff, time and space scheduling, according to Florence Beier, administrative assistant for community relations for the schools.

Working since fall, the committee has heard the views of teachers, students and administrators on possible changes.

The board will also discuss at the meeting the Extended School Year (ESY) program, including rotation of tracks, Beier said.

The board will meet at Canton High School, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Township to buy new ambulance

Plymouth Township trustees were expected to give final consideration last night to a proposal to purchase a new ambulance for the fire department rescue squad.

According to township officials, the lowest bid received was for about $27,000. Some $20,000 of the total is expected to come from Federal revenue-sharing funds.

Pair vie to run golf course

Canton to name manager

Canton officials were expected to award the Fellows Creek Golf Course contract last night.

Daniel Ross, operator of the Plymouth Township golf course, Hilltop Glen, is again being considered by Canton officials as a potential manager for Canton's newly-acquired Fellows Creek golf course.

Two weeks ago the township's board of trustees had decided to negotiate a contract with another golf course manager, John Jawor, who currently manages Brae Burn golf course in Salem Township.

Harold Stein, Canton Supervisor, said he "suggested the board consider the two choices of the Recreation Committee." Stein asked the trustees to appoint him, Clerk John Flodin and Finance Director Mike Gorman to negotiate with both parties and find the best possible contract for the township, which the trustees could then consider.

Canton plans to lease the 18-hole golf course to one of the two managers for a percentage of the profits. A Class C liquor license for the golf course will have the manager's name on it, but Canton is considering adding a clause to the contract that would keep the license with the course after the manager's base expires.

A request for $1,000 to Canton's Commerce and Industry Committee to use for "promotional items" by Canton Supervisor Harold Stein resulted in Trustee Lynne Goldsmith proposing that the funds be asked for in writing.

"There was $7,800 in the budget for this and they haven't spent any of it," said Stein. "Their time so far has been a freebie."

The trustees agreed to table the item and were expected to receive a written request at last night's meeting.

"We investigated further and found the two contracts were both close on several points — especially the dollar amounts said Frank McMurray, member of the Recreation Committee. "Suddenly we didn't know which was the better choice. It was the economic concern at the time."

Jawor's proposal would pay the township $110,000 a year or 52 per cent of the total green fees should the fees exceed $110,000.

Ross' proposal would pay the township $100,000 each year or 50 per cent of the car and green fees — and Canton officials now think that could match or exceed Jawor's proposal.

No progress seen in principal talks

No progress has been reported in the contract negotiations between the Plymouth-Canton School District and its school principals.

Representatives between the district and the Plymouth Congress of Administrators (PCA) will meet with the Michigan Employment Relations Commission, probably either April 3 or 5, said Norm Kee, Assistant Superintendent for Employee Relations.

"The two sides may meet before that, to try to settle," Kee said.

The negotiations have been going on since April of last year and the PCA recently filed an unfair labor practice complaint against the schools with MERC.

The PCA represents 35 school principals, assistant principals, directors and assistant directors in the Plymouth-Canton district. It organized in February, 1977.

Canton planning panel keeps current officers

Canton Township Planning Commissioners Monday night decided to retain their same team of officers for another one-year term.

Re-elected chairman of the township planning body was Robert Padgett, while Joyce Willis will continue to serve as vice-chairman and Brian Schwall as secretary.

Other members of the planning commission are Dick Kirchgatter, Bart Berg, Robert Sherferly and Frank McMurray. McMurray and Schwall were absent from Monday's meeting.

Lilley Road mishap hurts local family

A 43-YEAR OLD CANTON woman was listed in "fairly good" condition in St. Mary Hospital Monday following a two-car collision on Lilley Road North of Joy late last Friday afternoon. Still hospitalized at press time was Lise Schmidt, of Gloria Street in Canton. Her husband, Ralph, who was driving, and two children suffered minor injuries when a car driven by an Ann Arbor man crossed the center line and struck their auto, Wayne County Sheriff's Deputies said. # City may form panel to promote industry

The Plymouth City Commission is expected to discuss the formation of an Economic Development Corporation to help the city regain some commercial and industrial vitality.

The city currently has an EDC, but according to city officials, it is inactive. An EDC is formed in communities where an urban land crisis exists — where there is lack of property unavailable for commercial or industrial expansion, which in part, causes an eroding tax base, unemployment and ultimately, lack of services to residents.

"We are losing industry to Ohio and other states," said Mark Wollenweber, assistant city manager. "An EDC would help keep the tax base healthy and offer tax relief to corporations." Money for an EDC project is obtained by issuing revenue funds, City Manager Fred Yockey told commissioners. The EDC is considered a public corporation, and no one nor the corporation can benefit from its earnings. EDC rulings cannot be taxed, but its property is. Any surplus money from an EDC project belongs to the city.

Twp. gets refund

Plymouth Township has received a refund of nearly $169,000 from the state as its part of the 1977 levy on business inventory in the township under the Michigan Single Business Tax.

The township board, as it did last year, is expected to divide the refund, proportionate to current millage, between the township's general fund, the water and sewer department and the storm drain fund.

Road House loses rezoning bid

The Plymouth Township Planning Commission earlier this month recommended rejection of a request by Ann Arbor Road House owner Adam Stoja to rezone the property on which the restaurant is located from residential to commercial.

The establishment currently operates as a non-conforming use, although the township's Board of Zoning Appeals has approved plans to expand and remodel it.

Stoja had earlier asked that acreage to the rear of the restaurant and lounge be rezoned from single-family residential to R-2, which would permit the construction of duplex homes. That request was withdrawn before the commissioners voted.

The question will go to the township Board of Trustees for final action.

I'll vote against school millage hike

EDITOR:

We hear that the schools will soon be asking for more money. Superintendent Hoben's preliminary budget calls for 1.9 additional mills. For the first time in 16 years of voting I may be forced to vote "no" on school millage.

It's not that I don't believe the schools need the additional millage. As a teacher, and President of the Washtenaw Community College Education Association, I'm fully aware of the pressing need for additional school monies. Further, we do live in an expanding school district. New students cost money! The taxes on new homes do not pay the increased cost of educating the children of these homes.

However, it is my opinion that the school board and administration has lost sight of the fact that they serve to provide an educational system according to the desires of the community - certainly within state guidelines and affirmative action procedures, and without undo meddling from the citizenry.

Two recent policy decisions demonstrate the Board's and administration's arrogant of high school students against the overwhelming wishes of the community.

Our neighborhood has a long history of involvement in Smith Elementary and East Middle School. My children are both in high school, so random selection will not affect our family. It will affect neighborhood involvement in the schools and my neighbors are upset.

We raise our children together and we expect them to attend school together. As an educator

I know the importance of friendships as students make the big adjustment from junior high to high school.

Another very questionable policy decision concerns the parking policy at Centennial Park. It's my opinion that students do not have the "right" to drive, rather, it is a privilege granted by the school district. However, student drivers do save educational funds. The parking lots are cheaper to operate than the cost of increased bus service necessary for all students.

Secondly, once the decision has been made to allow student drivers, the administration should be willing to amend and compromise procedures to accommodate parking problems.

It makes little sense to me that one lot should remain half-empty while students are turned away from another.

This type of attitude represents the arrogance that will cause me to consider voting "no" on subsequent millage proposals.

The administration has proposed an "alternative school" for students that can't adjust to the regular regimen. They should be listening to alternatives offered by the community.

No parking? Tough Rocks

Just read The Crier and noticed one of them letters to the editor. Seems that some crybaby was whining about payin' two bucks to park a car in a space which don't exist. Well shoot, just how many of them kids really need to drive their cars to school anyhow?

With all the hullabaloo about U. S. dependence on foreign oil, I figure more kids should be riding the bus, or walking. Now I realize it's considered un-American for a red-blooded teen to be without wheels, but the current energy shortage demands new values:

Shucks, I don't mean to sound like ol' Honest Abe (Lincoln, that is.) but just seven months ago, this ol' boy was walkin' to school at Michigan State, a distance of about two miles. Now I didn't suffer much, 'cept for a frostbit thumb from hitchhiking. What them kids need is a few more car pools 'stead of swimmin' pools.

Not enough parking? Well as they say at Salem High School, "Tough Rocks!"

BILL BRESLER

Canton keeps good team

It's not very often that you can be enthusiastic about the status quo, but the Canton Planning Commission is an exception.

The commissioners voted Monday to keep Bob Padget as their chairman and Joyce Willis and Brian Schwall as their vice-chairman and secretary.

It's a reassuring decision. Padget, in a low-key gentleman-like way, has presided over some controversial issues, including the rezoning hearings for the planned "Center" recreation complex on Haggerty Road.

That controversy and others have stirred emotions throughout the township, but Padget has always kept things in hand, dealing calmly with passionate, sometimes volatile voices in the crowd.

We are encouraged by his continuing chairmanship.

Why switch scheduling?

EDITOR:

A credible source has informed me that the High Schools will switch entirely to traditional next year. The reason given by our school system was predicted over-enrollment next year.

Isn't that the reason for setting up modular in the first place? How will the physical structure of the schools adapt to traditional?

For some children, modular was a disaster. They were not prepared to handle the responsibility. For older, mature students, it was excellent.

Please ask someone for an honest assessment. Is modular being dropped because it didn't work out in the long pull?

Why single out pinballers?

Organized crime is not welcome in Canton. Loitering youths aren't exactly welcome either.

That was made perfectly clear last week when Canton Township officials proposed adding a "fingerprinting clause" to a yet-to-be approved "mechanical amusement devices" ordinance.

The ordinance would require all operators of pinball alleys, juke boxes, and coin-operated bowling alleys to be subject to the approval of the township board and the police, fire and building departments.

The ordinance also requires each owner of any of those mechanical amusements to renew his license annually. The fingerprinting would clinch it.

Certainly organized crime is going to have a difficult time establishing a foothold in Canton if the hoods fear fingerprinting.

It is commendable that the township wants to keep itself not only free of the usual blight - neon signs, garbage in the streets - but also from the demoralizing human blight that accompanies organized crime.

To safeguard the township even further, however, perhaps the officials should consider extending the fingerprinting clause to other businesses that could possibly be influenced by organized crime. Are pinball parlors a hood's only haven?

What about butchers, bakers and candlestick makers? Or car washes? The list is endless.

If only pinball alley owners are subject to fingerprinting, it could be proven unconstitutional. That would really leave the township holding the bag.

Even if some applicants are judged to be "of good moral character" and agree to the fingerprint project, pinball alleys are not going to be popular with Canton Supervisor Harold Stein. He doesn't want to avoid teenagers just hanging around.

There are problems with pinball alleys in other communities to be sure. But eliminating the pinball machines won't eliminate teenagers hanging around. They'll find somewhere else.

The symptom is loitering teenagers, the problem is they have nowhere else to go.

Kids find history in museum

Plymouth-Canton students are now learning about American history by special historical programs offered to them at the Plymouth Historical Museum.

"We are not a big city business," Education Chairman Marjorie Mitchell says. "We care about each group that comes in."

More than 700 students visit the museum every month to learn about life at the turn of the century. Two volunteers spend 90 minutes with each student group presenting material specifically tailored to the appropriate grade level.

Students are offered a total learning experience Mrs. Mitchell says. They are given the opportunity to see, hear, touch, taste and smell the things of the past. "We stress the difference between observing and participating," she said.

One of the most popular educational programs offered by the museum gives students an opportunity to look inside "Great Grandma's Trunk". A trunk filled with toys, clothing and other memorabilia often creates lively discussions of great grandma's time.

Children learn how valuable horses were in the years before the automobile, and the importance of the various family chores, Mrs. Mitchell noted. They get a feeling of the cold Victorian parlor (used only on Sundays and for company) and the warmth of the family kitchen, the forerunner of today's family room.

Mrs. Mitchell and her assistant, Betty Childs, discuss the clothing of the Victorian era, and explain to the students that high-button shoes and longsleeved, ankle-length dresses were meant to be practical rather than stylish. Children are invited to smell herbs and flowers, lift and old-fashioned flatiron, grind a piece of sugar load and taste herbal tea.

The museum also offers a program on "Michigan Indians" and their family life, and has recently introduced an activity called "Let's Go Shopping". This new program focuses on the museum's 'street of shops' and offers young people a chance to shop in the general store and pharmacy. They learn to barter as their ancestors did - trading eggs for sugar, etc. - and wrap purchases as was done before the days of paper bags.

Plymouth-Canton school groups are invited to participate in the museum's study program free of charge, thanks to the Rotary Club of Plymouth. Groups from other school areas are charged 50 cents per child. Reservations can be made by calling 455-8940 Wednesday through Sunday.

WHICH IS REAL and which make believe? The photo above, of course, is the living room of Leo and Dorothy McNamara, while

McNamaras create 'real' doll-size world

BY PHYLLIS REDFERN

Doll houses are enjoyed by people of all ages both as toys and as hobbies. For years little girls have let their imagination take over as they spent many hours playing with their doll house. Once they have grown and have real homes of their own, their fondness for that little house still exists.

Dorothy McNamara has many great memories of the little doll house that she played with as a child. Shortly before Christmas her husband, Leo, decided to buy her a new doll house. "We looked at many different styles and sizes" said Dorothy, "until I saw the 12-room Victorian house and knew it was the one I wanted."

The McNamaras live in a Victorian-style home on Penniman Ave. in Plymouth. "It is like a house inside a house," said Dorothy who has been busy decorating the doll house to resemble their real house.

According to Dorothy, they varnished the floors and she made rugs out of scraps of material and ribbon to resemble their real oriental rugs. "I have pieces of Irish lace that was my mother's" remarked Dorothy when describing the curtains she made.

Once they finished wallpapering, Dorothy admitted that she didn't like one room so they repapered it - "It's much easier to do with a room in a doll-house."

"Furnishing a dollhouse can be almost as much fun as doing a whole house," said Dorothy. Leo made some of the furniture from kits and they received a few pieces as gifts from friends.

Looking from room to room is like taking a guided tour of the McNamara home. You can see the needlepoint rugs and wall hangings. In the kitchen there is a tea kettle made from a penny.

One bedroom has a canopy bed while another has an old fashioned brass bed. In the nursery is a little wooden cradle. The grandfather clock and the wall telephone look very real and the rolltop desk really opens. The chandeliers look like real pewter and even the little mouse in the kitchen looks very much at home.

Landscaping the front of the doll house is another part of the project that the McNamaras have been working on. Along with the trees, they put a hitching post that resembles the one in their own front yard.

"We have lots to do and I'm already thinking of changing some of the rooms around," said Dorothy. But she does admit that it takes almost as much imagination to decorate and furnish a doll house as it does to play with one.

Arts grant to finance films here

Movie production will soon be among the skills learned by students here.

The Michigan Council for the Arts granted $1,500 to the Plymouth-Canton School District on Feb. 1 to introduce the art of film making to students. Allen Elementary School is developing a model program which will eventually reach all elementary, middle, and high schools.

John Prusak, a professional film maker and art teacher, will be coming to Allen School on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 4 to 5:30 p.m. for ten weeks.

He works with eleven talented fourth and fifth grade students. At the end of ten weeks their films will be available for public showing and for entrance into the Michigan Film Festival.

Workshops will be held after school to allow all interested Plymouth-Canton teachers to familiarize themselves with film making equipment and the film making process.

Ann Depa, art teacher at Allen School, wrote the grant request and received help from Senator Robert Geake and Representative Thomas Brown in having the grant approved.

The P.C.C.S. has requested another $4,000 grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts for the 1978-79 school year to expand the program.

Canton sub has factories in its future

The Dye Brothers subdivision at Morton Taylor Road and Michigan Avenue, in Canton will likely turn into an industrial development area in several phases over the next 10 years.

Canton trustees were told by Canton township Planner George Peek that a public hearing on the residential subdivision will be held in the fall. He repeated what a Canton Planning Commission report had earlier recommended to the trustees: that the area was not conducive for single family housing and that sewer lines should not be brought out to the area unless it was for industrial development.

"There are no facilities, no residential amenities, schools or parks there," Peek said. He suggested a phasing-out basis for the 18 homeowners who live in the subdivision, originally platted in 1928. "The fairest, most effective way would be to begin buying up vacant lots there," Peek said.

The planner said because of the industrial use intended for the subdivision and because of the people, development of the industrial site had to be done gradually.

Allen plans 25th birthday

In celebration of Allen School's 25th Anniversary, the Parent Teacher Organization (PTO) will sponsor a Family Pizza Dinner. Each meal will cost $1 and include 2 pieces of pizza, salad, cake and beverage. Extra pizza will be available at 25 cents each. The anniversary dinner will be in the school's multi-purpose room from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 28. Present and past families as well as staff will be welcome.

Tickets will be available through Allen School by calling 453-5090. No tickets will be sold at the door. The Central Middle School Stage Band will provide music.

Allen has named in honor of Edna M. Allen, who was a principal and teacher in Plymouth Schools for 32 years. A graduate of Alma College and the University of Michigan, Miss Allen began teaching in a country school near Douglas Lake. She came to Plymouth in 1918 and served as high school principal for 10 years. She became an English instructor in 1928 and held the position until she retired in 1950.

During its history, Allen School has had only two principals: Don Rank and Tom Workman. Don Rank served as principal from 1953 until 1967. Tom Workman accepted the position in 1967 and recently celebrated his tenth year at Allen.

Allen School likes playground projects, a PTO member said. A Ground's Day project in May, 1970, involved 400 to 500 children, parents, and teachers. They set up the culverts, poles, tires, ropes, and boulders donated by citizens. "It was a festive day and the results were spectacular, and are often copied," the spokesperson said.

Allen has so far served more than 420 families and 590 students. It has two kindergarten rooms, 20 classrooms, a speech room, library, multi-purpose room, general offices, plus maintenance and teacher work areas. Recent renovations have been made in the office to create an "open" look.

Allen's school colors are red and white and the school symbol, a dragon, was recently named "Alexander" by the students.

Valentines day is a fun day for everyone. The kids have a great time cutting, pasting and gluing to make that special valentines. Then of course, there's always school parties and checking to make sure you received a nice valentine from your boy friend or girl friend. Even adults enjoy reading those little candy hearts.

Anytime is a good time for a party. Beulah Wagenschutz Smith was guest of honor at a birthday luncheon held recently. Hostess for the luncheon was Janet Richwine. Guests wishing Beulah a happy birthday were Florence Penkaw, Jeanette Schryer, Florence Gableman, her daughter Mary Lou Mills and Joanne Delaney.

The Livonia Youth Symphony Society will present its second concert of the season Saturday, Feb. 18, at 8 p.m. in Churchill High School, Newburgh at Joy Rd. A guest artist, "Fat Bob, the singing plumber" will be featured as the special guest of "The Senior Orchestra."

Area students performing in the concert are Cheri Neal of Aspen Dr., Ann Kaziak of Orhan, Sharon Smith of Ranier, Margaret Kaziak of Orhan and Eric White of Terry St.

Tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for all students and senior citizens.

St. Kenneth's Senior Citizen Club will meet Feb. 21 at noon. Following a bag lunch there will be a program entitled "To keep your car working for you". The mini course in car care will be presented by an automotive technician who will cover the key points to be checked on a car for safety and economy.

The meeting is open to anyone who is interested. You don't have to be a senior citizen to attend.

Beverly Ann Chlopan, a senior at Western Michigan University received the Russell H. Seibert Award. The title of her project was Television Graphics - a half-hour video tape documentary on all aspects of TV graphics. Beverly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Chlopan of Leicester in Plymouth.

Private Donald G. Bennett, son of Mr. Donald G. Bennett, Sr. of Kellogg Street in Plymouth has recently been assigned as a recruiter aide to the Army Recruiting Station in Plymouth.

PVT Bennett took his basic training at Fort McClellan, Alabama where he also attended the military police school.

Following his 30 day assignment in Plymouth, PVT Bennett will leave for his permanent duty station in Germany.

Ping-pong diplomat to address Lions

Graham Steenhoven

Graham Steenhoven, who may go down in history as the first "ping-pong" diplomat, will be the guest speaker at the Plymouth Lions Club 30th anniversary celebration.

The Lions Club members, wives and guests will celebrate the founding of the local club at a dinner party tomorrow evening.

Steenhoven will speak about his "experience of a lifetime" the year he visited China with the U.S. Table Tennis team and met Chinese leader Chou-en-lai.

As president of the U. S. Table Tennis Association, Steenhoven was in Japan in April of 1971 with the U. S. Table Tennis Team, playing in the World Championships. While there, he received an invitation to take his team to China.

Fate "tapped him on the shoulder" he said, to act as the key person in arranging the beginnings of diplomatic relations between the two countries. A Detroit resident who wound up a 46 year career at Chrysler Corporation as a Personnel Supervisor in 1975, Steenhoven will relate his story at the Lions Club 30th year gala.

As a part of his presentation, he will show a film made by his Chinese hosts and presented to him. It shows the Great Wall of China, the Palace of the Empress, his interview with Chou En-lai, and table tennis matches before 18,000 spectators. (At the time of his visit, the Chinese team was ranked 1st in the world; the U. S. team was about 28th).

A cook is an artist - so in a last-ditch attempt to understand the creative complexities of these serving-spoon Van Gogh's, The Crier has asked me (an alleged staff artist) to write the lunch column.

There are two things you should understand about creative people. The first is that the artist is only as great as the medium in which she or he works. If your paints include 50 gallon drums of government surplus soggy peas; and your palate is a 12 x 18-inch green plexiglass tray - well, you do the best you can.

The second thing about artists is that they are seldom appreciated during their lifetime. So take heart, today's beef fritters may be your bid for immortality.

Museum special exhibit honors Abe

In commemoration of Abraham Lincoln's birthday, the Plymouth Historical Museum is featuring a rare private collection of Lincoln memorabilia loaned to them by Dr. Weldon Petz, a nationally noted Lincoln authority. The exhibit of over 1,000 items, displayed throughout the museum, will continue through March 15.

Dr. Petz' personal collection of Lincoln mementoes includes some 40,000 items. Although Dr. Petz often makes his collection available as resource material, this is the largest number of items he has ever included in one exhibit.

Dr. Petz traces his interest in Lincoln to his childhood, remembering specifically when his parents gave him a book about American Presidents for his seventh birthday. In the 1940's, while working as a professional musician, he began collecting seriously. Many of his purchases were made at auctions for prices that are unheard of today.

The publication of his master's thesis, "Music and Abraham Lincoln", established Dr. Petz as an authority on the subject. The thesis, which involved three years of research, concerns Lincoln's influence on and his participation in music. It was the first work done on this facet of Lincoln's life.

In 1973 he published a book entitled "In the Presence of Abraham Lincoln". According to Dr. Petz, the book contains "85 items which have never been written about Lincoln before." In addition to the book, Dr. Petz has written many articles for history and Lincolniana journals. He also serves as an associate editor of the "Lincoln Herald", a publication of Lincoln Memorial University.

Dr. Petz sees his collection as something that should be used by people. "What good is it going to do sitting on a shelf?" he commented.

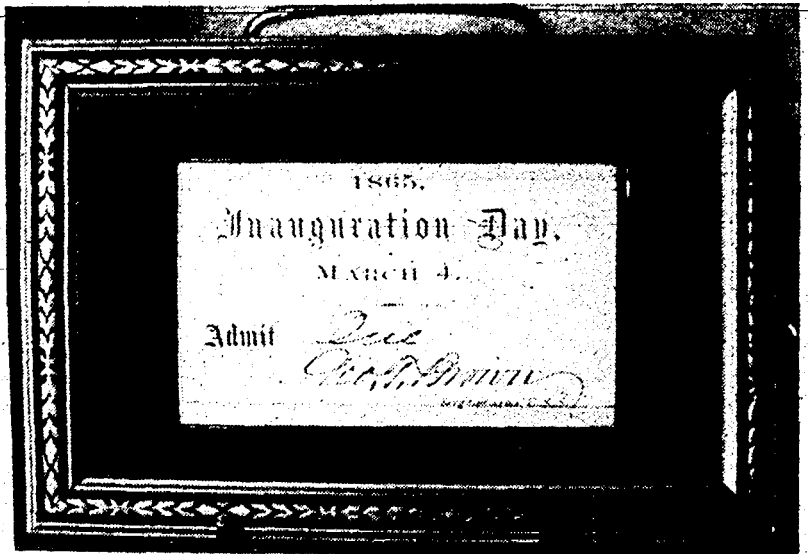

On June 4, 1972, Dr. Petz was awarded a "Lincoln Diploma of Honor" at the commencement exercises of Lincoln Memorial University. This is the highest recognition given for accomplishment in research knowledge of the Lincoln and Civil War facets of American history. Other recipients of this honor include Robert Sherwood, Carl Sandburg, Raymond Massey and Bruce Catton.

Among the pieces displayed in this special Lincoln exhibit are: an original copy of the Nov. 7, 1860 edition of the Detroit Daily Advertiser announcing Lincoln's presidency; a pass to his 1864 Inauguration; a book from his law office; and the original plaster model of Lincoln's head used by artist Arvard Fairbanks in erecting an heroic size statue of Lincoln at age 21. The statue now stands at the Ewa School in Hawaii.

Also included in the exhibit is John Roger's statuary of the Council of War featuring President Lincoln, General Grant and Secretary of War Stanton. According to Dr. Petz, Lincoln's son Robert considered Roger's interpretation of his father's facial expression to be the finest that was ever done.

The Historical Museum has also expanded the Civil War exhibit to complement the Lincoln exhibit. Among the items on loan from several area residents are artifacts of the 24th Michigan "Iron Brigade".

One 21-year old man from Plymouth, who has collected Civil War items since he was 11, found a Civil War tent in Traverse City that was being used by a farmer to house migrant workers, a Museum tour guide said.

1,000 items on display

Other authentic Civil War items include a Medal of Honor, various uniforms, letters from soldiers, weapons, calvary papers and eating utensils.

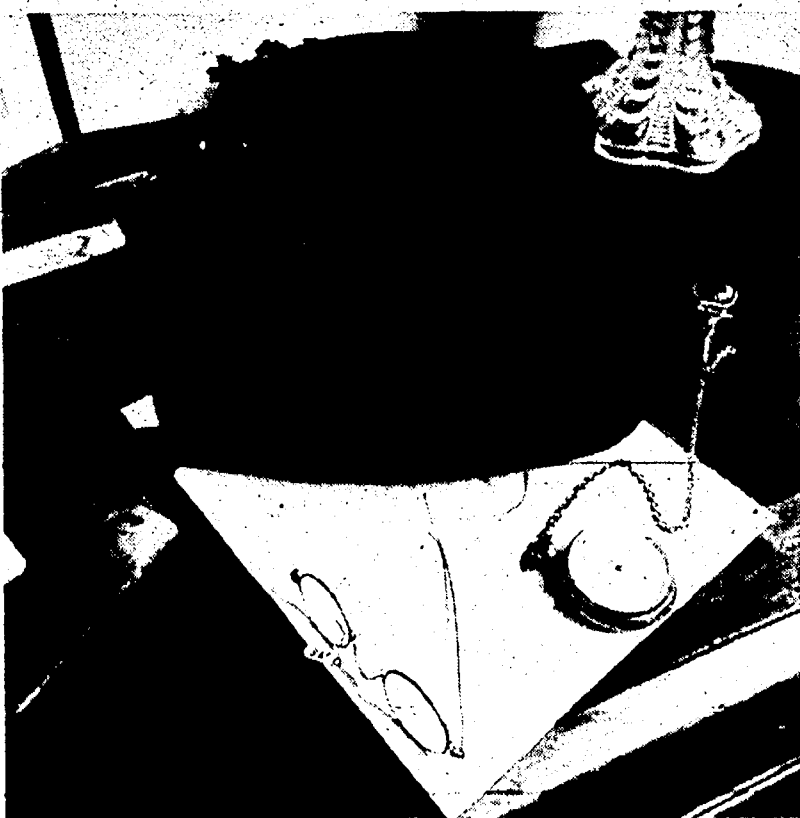

luncheon was prepared and served by members of the Plymouth Historical Society.

To mark the official opening of the Lincoln exhibit, Museum Coordinator Barbara Saunders invited the press to a luncheon and museum tour. In keeping with the spirit of the occasion, the menu featured "Mary Todd White Cake". Lincoln was known for liking coffee and dessert, Dr. Petz said. The

Down Bentley, 74-62

Rocks stay in Sub-8 race

BY CHAS CHILD

The Salem basketball team proved itself the best in the Suburban Eight last week, but was it too late to win the league championship?

The Rocks whipped first-place Bentley, 74-62, in a highly-charged game Friday, but they're still one game behind in the league standings with two games to go, assuming the Bulldogs beat Edsel Ford last night.

But the bright side of a possible second-place finish is this: The Rocks are peaking at the end of the season, just in time for the district playoffs and March Madness, now only two weeks away.

The Suburban Eight crown, however, is still up for grabs. Salem is 9-2 and with a victory over Edsel Ford last night Bentley would stand at 10-1.

Although the Bulldogs are in the driver's seat, they still have a tough row to hoe. Not only did they face Edsel Ford in Dearborn, but their last two games - Belleville and Redford Union - are also on the road.

The Rocks on the other hand finish their season at home - Friday against Edsel Ford and the following Friday against Belleville.

"Bentley has a tough schedule with the away games," Salem Coach Fred Thomann said. "if they win them all, they've earned it."

Despite Bentley's sixth man (the home-court advantage), the Rocks overcame the league leaders Friday with quickness, balanced scoring and bench strength.

The Bulldogs managed to pull within three points of Salem at the end of the third quarter behind the hot-shooting of Eric Thorderson, but a flurry of Rock buckets put the game away in the first three minutes of the last period.

Field goals by Mike Christie, Steve Horton, another by Christie, Rich Hewlett, Tom Ellinghausen and a pair of free throws by Hewlett gave Salem the cushion it needed.

Coach Fred Thomann made good use of his bench, and the tiring Bulldogs just couldn't stay with the Rocks continuous offensive pressure.

Salem's John Broderick played an excellent game, especially in the first half. His numerous clutch baskets took up the slack caused by the Bulldogs heavy guarding of Tom Ellinghausen.

Broderick finished the game with 17 points, while Rich Hewlett was the Rocks' high scorer with 21 points. Ellinghausen added 14.

"We played well," Thomann said. "We got good play off the bench and kept up good pressure."

Other scorers for the Rocks include Matt Etienne and Christie with eight each, and Doug Agnew, Steve Horton and Bob Hisson all added two.

Salem jumped out to a 19-10 lead in the first quarter but the Bulldogs fought back to within one, 32-31 at intermission.

Thorderson was Bentley's big gun, hitting a total of 24 points in the contest and keeping his team close with his outside shooting.

The Rocks shut him off in the final stanza, however, allowing him only two points. This and Salem's fast breaks and relentless pressure proved the difference.

Led by Hewlett's six points in the last three minutes of the game, the Rocks were actually accelerating offensively toward the buzzer.

the Crier Sports

Rocks keep rolling

Led by Tom Ellinghausen's 35 points, the Salem basketball team defeated Dearborn Fordson last night 65-60.

After Friday's big victory over Livonia Bentley, the Rocks naturally looked a little off their best game for non-league Fordson. But they still had more than enough for the win.

Heavily guarded by Bentley Friday, Ellinghausen broke loose for 21 points in the first half against the far shorter Dearborn squad.

He equalled Fordson's total points before intermission as the halftime score stood at 30-21.

Fordson refused to play dead, however, and narrowed the Plymouth lead to 40-37 at the end of the third quarter using a zone defense.

After the fourth quarter tipoff, the Rocks gave themselves a little breathing room with three quick passes under the basket - two to Ellinghausen and one to Bob Hisson - for easy field goals.

Deadly shooting by Fordson's Bill Cibulka, high scorer for his team with 27 points, pulled Dearborn within three, 59-56, with about one minute to go, but Salem held on to win.

Two free throws by Rich Hewlett, a field goal by John Broderick and a lay-up by Ellinghausen in the last minute kept Fordson at bay.

The victory boosts the Rocks' record to 15-2 and drops Fordson's to 11-6.

The Rocks swing back into the Suburban Eight League race Friday as they go against Edsel Ford at home.

Five Salem wrestlers head to state meet

BY CHAS CHILD

In the regionals at Ypsilanti Saturday, the Suburban Eight League co-champion Salem wrestling squad qualified five grapplers for the state meet, the most in the school's history.

And Coach Ron Krueger even has half an eye on the state title. "Conceivably we're in it for first," he said. "Only time will tell." It depends on who gets the breaks. You only get the team I have this year once in a blue moon. It's an outstanding team."

The five Rocks who finished in the top four were: Jeff Brown, Rene Leist, Jimmy Ross, Wally Brown and Bob Dasher.

Wally Brown at 165 pounds had the best finish for Salem - second. He won his first match by default and then beat Dave Lusk of Wayne Memorial with an overtime criterion decision.

Brown and Lusk were tied after overtime, but the Plymouthite got the victory by virtue of scoring the first escape in the match.

Then in a very close contest, Brown lost to Mitch Becker of Livonia Franklin 7-4 in the finals to cop second.

Brown now holds Salem's school record for most wins in a season with a 40-5-1 mark. "He's done an outstanding job," Krueger said.

Ross at 126 pounds started out the day with a convincing 5-0 victory over Matt Taylor of Dearborn Edsel Ford. After Ypsilanti's Reggie Holman beat him in the next match, 5-1, he came back to take third with a 1-0 victory over Jim Boraggina of Temperance-Bedford and a pin of his first opponent, Matt Taylor.

In a very tough 119-pound weight class, Rene Leist placed fourth. He lost his first match to Kerry Cousino of Temperance-Bedford, but proceeded to pin Craig Lee of Canton and decision Mike Rancon of Adrian, 7-6.

In the consolation finals, however, Leist lost to Joe Justin 4-1 for fourth place.

Leist now holds the Salem records for most career pins, fastest pin and most season pins with 20 this year.

Wally Brown's brother, Jeff, at 98 pounds, also earned a fourth. He won his first match against a Trenton grappler, 10-8, but lost to the eventual regional champion, Boo Pippens of Monroe in his next match.

Brown then earned a trip to the state meet by edging Dave Shell from Wayne Memorial, 3-2, but lost the consolation finals to Doug Turner from Temperance-Bedford, 10-8.

In the heavyweight division, Bob Dasher earned his trip to the state meet with a fourth place finish.

He started off with a victory over Terry Turner of Taylor Kennedy but then lost an overtime criterion decision in his next match. Dasher stormed back with a 7-1 decision over his next opponent but lost in the consolation finals to Mike Williams of Ypsilanti by a close 1-0 score.

"Overall, the competition was excellent," Krueger said. "Out of the five regionals in the state, ours was the toughest. I've seen fourth place finishers in our division beat winners of other regionals in the past."

Temperance-Bedford won the regional, followed by Monroe,

John Glenn, Wayne Memorial, Salem and Ypsilanti.

Four other Rocks competed in the regionals but failed to earn a spot in the state meet: Steve Ernst, Roger Penix, Bruce Piper and Bob Doherty. "They all did excellent jobs and had excellent seasons," Krueger said. The nine Salem grapplers was the most the team has ever had competing in the regional tournament.

The State meet will be held Friday and Saturday at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo.

Rock gymnasts improve scores

The Salem gymnastics squad lost to North Farmington last Monday 85.45-45.75, despite its highest score ever. On Wednesday, the Rocks' score slipped, however, to 39.9 as they dropped a triple meet to Clarenceville and Northville.

"We're an up and coming team," said Coach Gretchen Parcells. "We've gotten over the jitters and the girls are looking much better."

In her first varsity competition, Jackie Melnick did an excellent job in the triple meet, recording Salem's highest scores in three events.

In vaulting she earned a 5.8, while in the uneven bars and balance beam she earned a 3.8 and 3.95 respectively.

Natalie McClumpha, working on a new routine, was the Rocks' high-scorer in the floor exercise with a 3.6.

Clarenceville, with 83.2 points, won the meet, followed by Northville with 59.05.

Last Monday, Tina Melone tallied Salem's high score in vaulting with a 4.45, while Linda L'Heureux did the same in the bars with a 4.1.

On the beam Bonnie Peters earned a 3.6 and Natalie Mc Clumpha a 4.7 on the floor exercise to cop high scores for the Rocks.

"In general, I was pleased with our score Monday," Parcells said. "I hope to be in the high 40s next meet."

Heaton state bound

Canton's Kyle Heaton wrestled his way to the state meet with a fourth place finish in the regionals Saturday.

"He did a very good job," Coach Dan Chrenko said. "The state meet is the most exciting time of the year and I'm happy I'll have somebody to coach."

The Chiefs' two other regional competitors, Scott Collins and Craig Lee, failed to qualify. Collins pulled ligaments in his ankle earlier in the week and didn't compete and Lee was eliminated with two losses.

Heaton at 158 pounds built up a 5-2 lead over Mike Snyder of Temperance-Bedford in his first match but made a bad move and was pinned at 3:03.

He bounced back, however, and won a come-from-behind decision over Monroe's Mike Johnson, 11-8, in his next match and won a trip to the state meet with a 4-0 decision over Dave Lusk of Wayne Memorial.

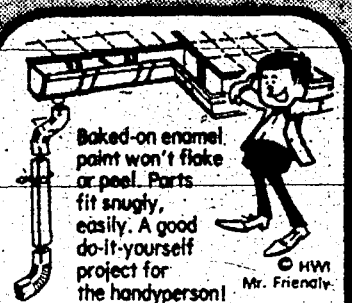

In the consolation finals, Mike Snyder, his original opponent, beat Heaton again, to give him a fourth place finish.

CEP gymnasts to meet

The Salem and Canton gymnastics teams will square off tonight in the first meeting between the two squads in their premiere season.

The meet will start at 7 p.m. at Canton.

Mustangs top Canton

BY JEFF REY

Can one week make so much difference?

Just ask Canton Coach Casey Cavell, who won his fifth game in a row last Friday and now after ruining the streak on Tuesday against Stevenson, lost his first league contest since mid-December on Friday to the Northville Mustangs.

Nothing really went right for the Chiefs, who were unable to generate any real offensive attack.

Canton had trouble getting inside the entire game and when they did, a depressing 36 shooting percentage from the field killed whatever chances they had.

The Chiefs also had their troubles on defense. "They were beating us back on our press," said Casey Cavell, "and our shooting really hurt us."

The Mustangs jumped out in front from the start, taking a quick 13-point lead after one quarter.

Northville's momentum didn't let up the second quarter, either, as they took a 40-27 advantage into the locker-room at halftime.

Canton managed to close the gap by two during the third period with Butch King pouring in 20 points for the Chiefs.

But what started to look like a Canton comeback at the beginning of the final quarter, dwindled away as the Mustangs were able to maintain their lead for the entire quarter.

Besides poor shooting the Chiefs also ran into some foul trouble with Brent Eckles leaving the game early. Canton finished with 25 fouls overall.

King was the Chiefs' only bright spot, finishing the game with 30 points. Randy Reinas has 12 points and Kurt Herbert scored 10.

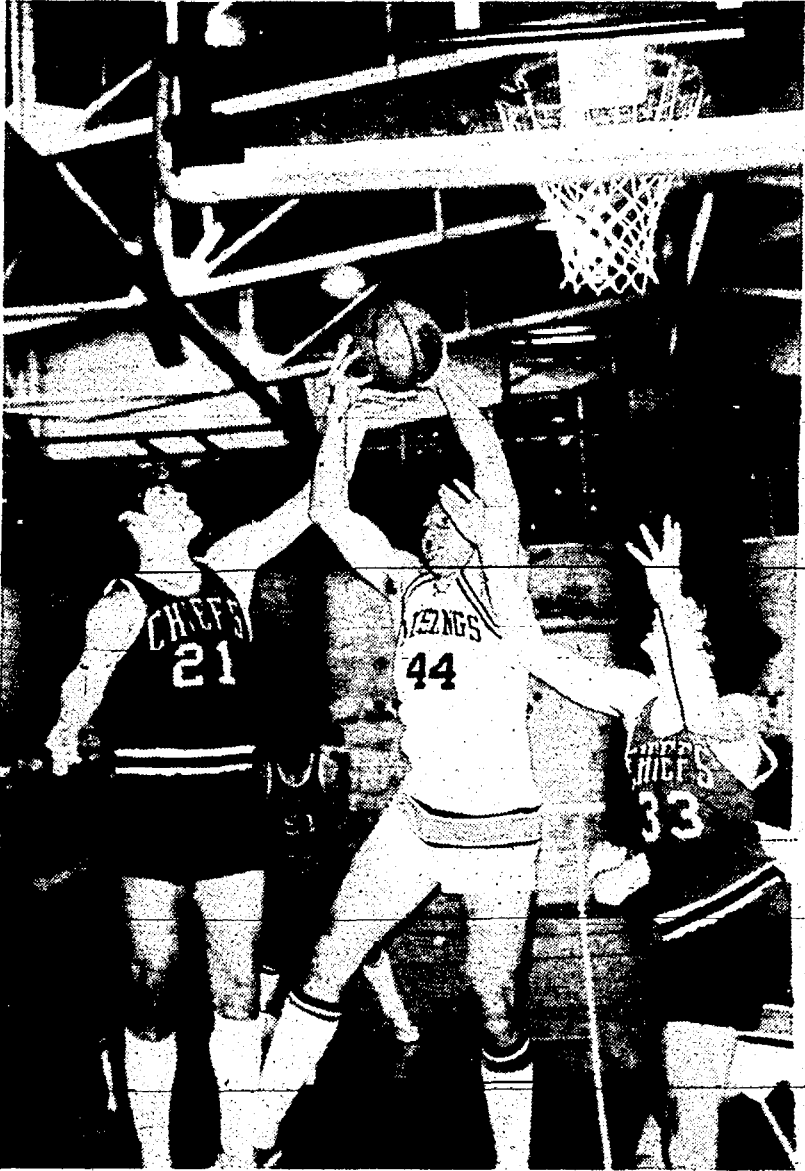

Rusty Mandle snatched 12 rebounds along with Reinas who had seven.

The junior varsity squad managed a second half comeback to beat the Mustangs 49-47, after trailing by 10 after the first half, 28-18.

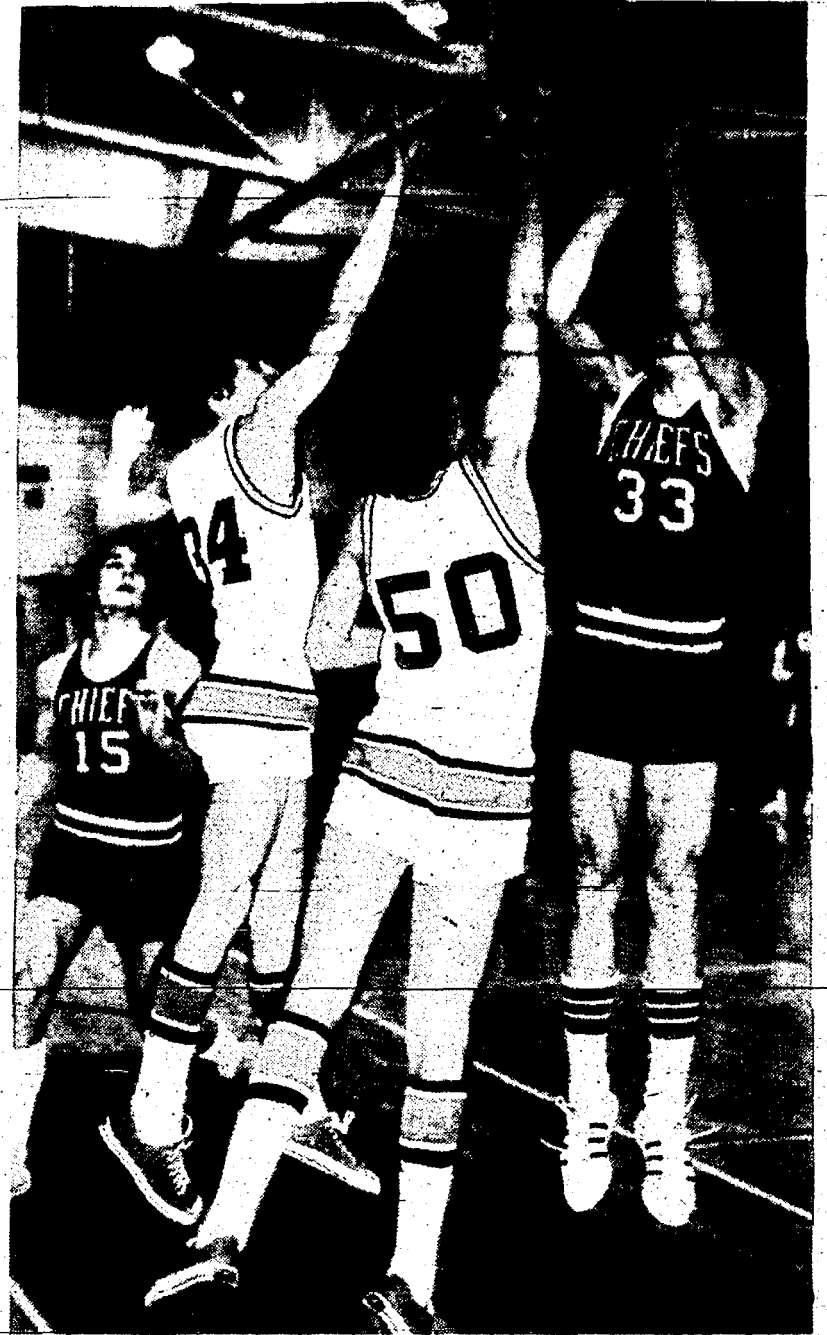

"Our guys played some better defense the final half," said JV Coach Wayne Weimer.

Brad Westin was high scorer for Canton with 20 points followed by Dave Visser with 16 and Dan McGlinn with eight.

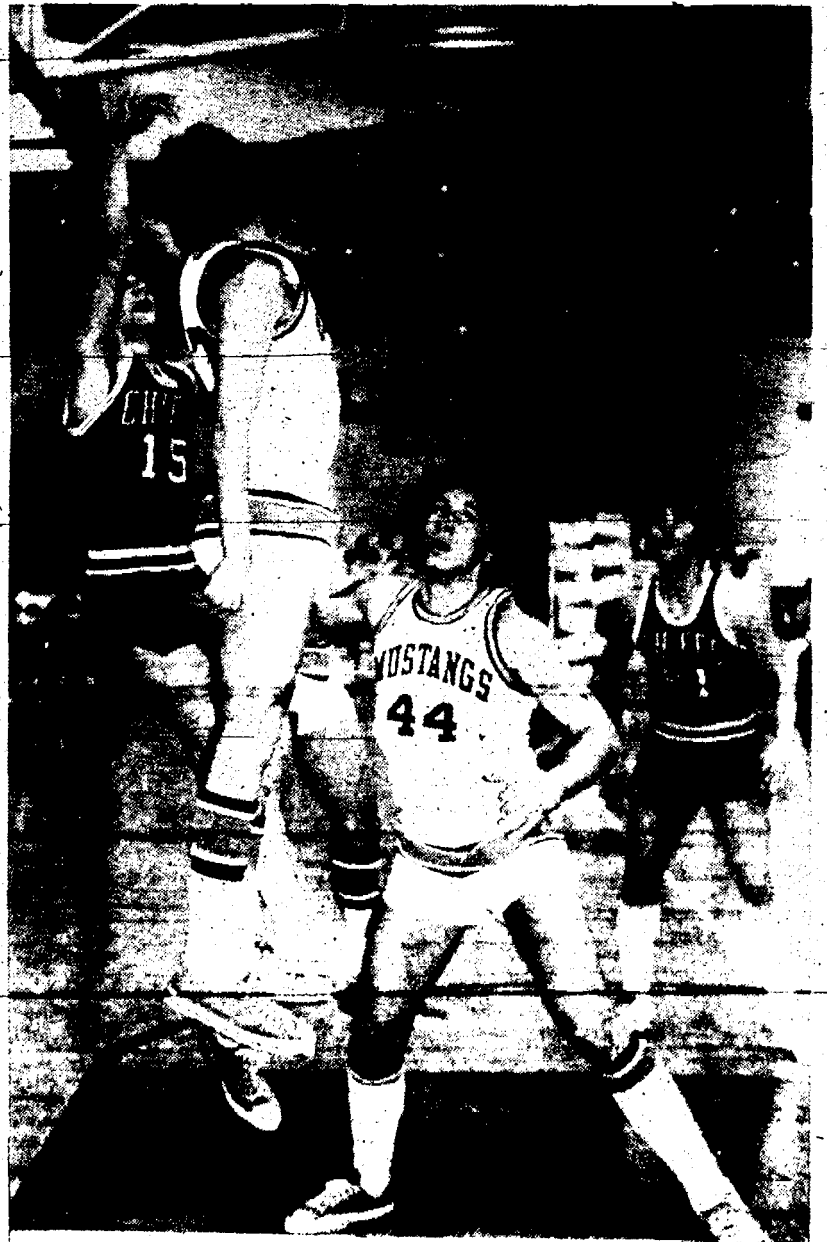

The Chiefs host Walled Lake Western on Friday where they will be defending their 6-2 league record. JV begins at 6:30 p.m. and Varsity at 8.

Cross country skier John Adams: The art of getting away (in winter)

BY CHAS CHILD

Too much has already been written on what makes a long-distance man tick. The answer to the hours and hours of grueling training, however, may not be complex at all.

For cross-country skier John Adams of Plymouth, it's simple.

"He likes being outdoors and he likes skiing," his wife, Debbie said.

Three days a week after work, Adams drives to Mayberry State Park in Northville Township and skis for three- and one-half hours. And if that isn't enough, on Saturdays and Sundays he skis from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. near Silver Lake in Washtenaw County.

This isn't downhill skiing either, but cross-country, which requires constant effort.

The love of the sport even drew John into racing, and no one was more surprised than himself by finishing 10th in the White Pine Stampede held Feb. 4 in Otsego County.

"During the race I was as tired as I've ever been physically," Adams said. "But I had that euphoria from the total exertion. I was exhausted, but not out of breath."

Although the Stampede is only in its second year and is not yet a major national race, John's 10th-place finish was excellent, considering he took up the sport only three years ago.

"I always hated winter," he said, "and I wanted to find some way to enjoy it. I liked skiing, but I didn't want to wait in line, so I chose cross-country."

"I had never tried it. I just went out and bought the skis and some books. I never got around to lessons."

Entering the Stampede was done on impulse, too. Adams said he simply filled out the application one day at a sport shop with a skiing friend, Mike Maurer of Plymouth. "We loaded up our managers — our wives — and took off for the weekend," John said.

Adams originally planned to tour the course, instead of racing, but "the old American spirit got in me," the full-bearded Plymouth High grad said, "and I started racing when I got going."

Although Adams picked up the technique of cross-country skiing by himself, he doesn't recommend that to beginners. "At Mayberry I see so many people with very small glides, only two or three feet. I call it the Mayberry shuffle."

EMU icers coming

The Eastern Michigan University hockey team will face off against the University of Michigan-Dearborn March 3 at 8:30 at the Plymouth Community Cultural Center.

Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for students.

The large crowds of Mayberry shufflers that gather on the popular cross-country ski trails are beginning to discourage John. "My whole purpose was to escape the crowds," he said. "And it's also getting very commercial — with expensive outfits and all."

Adams wears faded blue jeans cut off below the knee instead of knickers, the "uniform" of nordic skiers. "They're not fancy, but they work fine," he said.

"I used to tell everybody about cross country skiing, but I've sworn that off," said John, referring to the crowds. "Now, I tell them it stinks."

The popularization of the sport has led many dealers to sell unwaxed-style skis, which, according to Adams, is like "buying a car that can only go 20 miles per hour. "Waxing is an art in itself. With the proper waxing I can glide up to seven or eight feet," he said.

Unlike downhill or Alpine skis, Nordic skis are attached only at the toe. A good waxing creates the right friction so the skier can create a push-glide, push-glide rhythm that take him up and down hills for miles.

John's 10th-place finish in the Stampede gave him the race bug. "Next year I really want to improve my time in the 20 kilometers" Does he want to move up to the grueling 50-kilometer race? "No, I think I'll stick to the KISS method: 'Keep it Simple, Stupid'. Besides, if I started racing 50 kilometers, I'd be wasting all my money on Ben-Gay."

CROSS COUNTRY SKIER JOHN ADAMS

Register for junior soccer

Registration for the break-away Canton Soccer Club will be held Feb. 18 and Feb. 25 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Canton High School Cafeteria.

The new club will play in the Great Lakes Soccer League, a new group which broke away from the established Western Suburban Soccer League (WSSL) last week.

The new league was formed over a squabble about "franchising" in the WSSL. Franchising gives the four major organizations of the WSSL — Plymouth Parks and Recreation, Farmington Soccer Club, Livonia Family YMCA and Northville Soccer Association, the right to control the teams and coaches in the league.

Chuck Skene, Director of Plymouth Parks and Recreation, said he favors franchising because it insures equal competition and prevents recruiting in the league.

The WSSL split last week over the issue. The four franchising organizations, (including Plymouth Parks and Recreation) broke off to form a new WSSL and the Great Lakes Soccer League was also formed.

Chiefs cop crown

Avenging an earlier loss to Livonia Churchill in the semi-finals of the Plymouth Invitational, the Canton volleyball team went on to whip Clarenceville to capture its first title in the tourney's three-year history.

"The win over Churchill was a big win for us, Coach Cindy Burnstein said. "It will give us a big boost for the rest of the season."

The Chiefs are tied with Churchill for first in the Western Six with identical 5-1 records.

The field of 20 teams was divided into five pools of four squads each and Canton swept through its pool with a perfect 8-0 record.

That lifted the Chiefs into the quarterfinals where they nipped Garden City East, 15-13, 12-15, 15-12. The loss in the second game was the only one the Chiefs suffered all day.

Then going against Churchill, Canton edged the Chargers 17-15 in the first game which left the wind out of the Livonians' sails. The Chiefs easily swept the next game, 15-5, to advance to the finals.

Their opponent in the finals, Clarenceville, was a one-woman team, built around their star, Lisa Redford. She is so good, her teammates regularly set up spikes for her while she's in the back row.

"We'd never seen anything like it," Burnstein said. But the Chiefs countered with a rearranged defense which relied on the back row to cover everything, which they did.

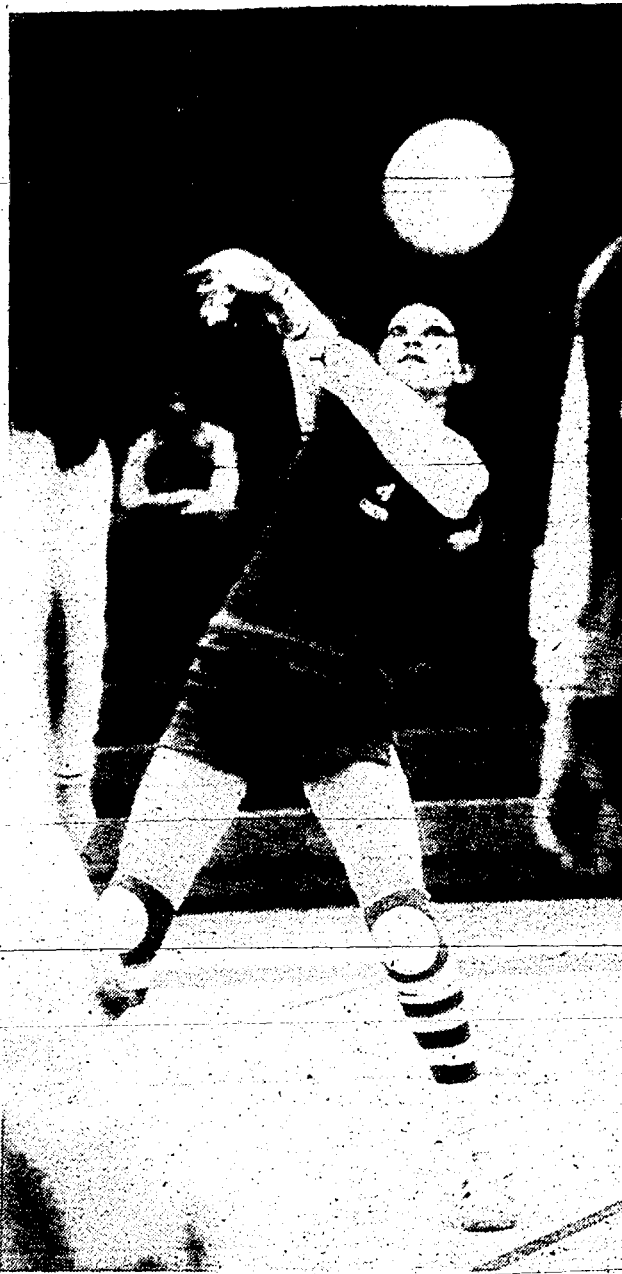

"Judy Freiman, Tina Decker and Kathy Sochacki did an excellent job on defense in the finals," said the Canton coach. "Their defense really worked." The Chiefs rolled past Clarenceville to take the trophy, 15-13, 15-8.

To add to Canton's glory, Kelly Heaton was named the tournament's most valuable player, while Judy Freiman and Sue Rekuc earned tourney all-star honors.

"Kelly played super," Burnstein said. "She had some great spikes."

Last Wednesday, Canton whipped league foe Farmington Harrison 15-11, 15-6, and edged a solid Ann Arbor Huron squad on Monday, 15-13, 11-15, 15-10.

The victories upped the Chiefs' record to 8-2.

JUDY FREIMAN serving (left) and setting (right) against Thurston Monday. The Chiefs won 15-9, 15-4 to boost their season's record to 9-2. Coach Cindy Burnstein said the momentum from their victory in Saturday's Plymouth Invitational carried them in the contest as they handled Thurston without much problem. The Chiefs had beaten them in the Invitational also. (Crier photos by Bill Bresler.)

Salem spikers 4th

BY JEFF REY

The Salem volleyball team finished off a long week of action last Saturday with a fourth in the 20 team field at the Plymouth Invitational.

The Rocks started the week just squeaking past Dearborn on Monday 15-7, 9-15, 19-17.

"We just hung in there," said coach Cathy Himes. The Rocks played an overall good match with Karen Prikosivits demonstrating some outstanding spiking along with setters Chris Ann Minoff, and Clarisse Hartnett.

On Wednesday the Rocks made it two in a row, beating Belleville in two games 15-2, 15-3.

All good things came to an end on Thursday though when Northville snatched victory from Salem 15-9, 12-15, 15-10.

The Rocks started off having difficulty with their serving, but Himes said, "I was displeased with some of the calls by the officials. I thought we could have beat them."

Saturday's Plymouth Invitational, held at both Salem and Canton during the day, turned out both good and bad for the Rocks.

Salem started the day off losing to Clarenceville, but were able to turn things around by winning their next five matches and qualifying for the consolation finals.

Unfortunately though, the Rocks fell apart in their final match against Churchill, losing the contest in three games.

"Our players just quit," said Himes, "They weren't talking to themselves on the court."

Canton ended up winning the tournament followed by Clarenceville, Churchill, and then Salem.

The Rocks host league rival Allen Park tonight where they will be defending a 5-1 league record. The match begins at 7 p.m.

Chief tankers whip Thurston

BY JEFF REY

The Canton swim team overwhelmed Livonia Thurston last Tuesday, 112-59.

The Chiefs won ten out of 11 events with Dave Tanner, Steve Wood, Bob Cline, and Paul Pederson all claiming double wins.

The 200-yard medley relay team of Cline, Pederson, Mike Gaab, and Doug Hetu finished first turning in a 1:49.5.

Tanner finished on top in the 200 and 500 freestyles with times of 1:55.6 and 5:20.3 respectively.

In the 200-yard individual medley, Cline took a first with a 2:12.9 effort and copped his second win in the 100 backstroke, turning in a 1:01.6.

Wood claimed first place honors in both the 50 freestyle and 100 butterfly with times of 23.5 and 57.6.

In the 100 freestyle Pederson finished first with a 55.1 and then his second win came in the 100 breaststroke with a 1:02.5 effort.

In diving, Steve Gray continued to do well, finishing second with his best score ever - 174.95 points.

The freestyle relay grabbed first place honors, turning in a 3:36.1 finish. Swimming the event were Gaab, Hetu, Wood, and Tanner.

Canton's other top finishers included Gaab with a second in the 100 butterfly and Dave Smith with a second in the 100 IM, and a third in the 50 freestyle.

"There was some good competition there," said coach Bill Faunce. Canton took three firsts starting off with the 200-medley relay of Cline, Wood, Pederson, and Tanner.

Pederson took two individual firsts in the 200 IM and 100 breaststroke.

Canton's other top performances included Cline with a second in the 100 backstroke, Tanner with a fifth in the 100 freestyle, and Wood finishing second in the 100 butterfly.

The freestyle relay ended the meet with a fourth place finish.

The Chiefs ended up fifth in their division behind number one Belleville, Wayne Memorial, Plymouth Salem, and Livonia Franklin.

The Chiefs dual meet against Farmington Harrison which was cancelled due to the blizzard has been rescheduled for Feb. 21 at Pontiac Central.

Salem swimmers win

The Salem swimming team handily defeated a hapless Redford Union team Thursday and finished the week Saturday with a solid third-place in the John Glenn Invitational.

Craig Finley led the Rocks in the Invitational with pool and meet records in the 200- and 500-yard freestyles.

His time in the 200 was 1:49.8, while he swam the 500 in 4:54.1.

Tom Rubadue also had an excellent day, copping seconds in the 50- and 100-yard freestyles.

Mike Etienne also placed in both the 50- and 100-yard freestyles - sixth and ninth, respectively.

In other events, Jeff Stella earned a fourth in the 100-yard breaststroke and a sixth in the 200-yard individual medley.

Rob Kuebler also placed in two events: fourth in the 100-yard butterfly and seventh in the 200 IM.

In diving, Jim LaRiche finished seventh with 314 points and John Atkinson was 12th with 245.5.

Kirk Albert placed twice for the Rocks, also. He came in third in the 100-yard butterfly and 11th in the 200 IM.

In the relays, Rubadue, Kuebler, Etienne and Finley touched second in the 400-yard freestyle relay in a time of 3:28.2.

And in the medley relay, Bruce Harwood, Bob Simone, Albert and Jeff Harris finished fourth with a 1:51.0 clocking.

The victory over RU boosted the Rocks' Suburban Eight League record to 2-1-1, while overall, the team in 5-3-1.

he was opposed to the new school regardless of the site.

There are too many "maybes" in the curricula of the students in the new school, Gray said. "It needs more positive direction and structure."

Dale Yagiela, director of Growth Works, and a member of the Alternative Education Committee which wrote the proposal for the new school, said the program will be more structured than the present routines at Canton and Salem high schools.

"The students will have day-to-day accountability," he said.

Some parents and board members said the alternative high school may become a "dumping ground" for problem students.

The school district's assistant superintendent for instruction, Dr. Michael Homes, said however that a cross section of students will fit into the alternative program.

The education at the new school would be "student-centered," according to a statement from Florence Beier, administrative assistant for community relations for the district.

"Learning must be a meaningful experience which provides the opportunity for personal growth and mastery of basic competencies. Although this goal is no different from that of the school system for all its students, individualization can be more intensive in an alternative school setting," she said.

Beier also emphasized that the school will not require "new" teachers. "The regular student-teacher ratio of the district will be maintained," she said. And "The only significant on-going additional cost would be a shuttle bus if the alternative school is located away from CEP."

ment) and the Canton Township offices.

"We are seeking space for a Canton outpost wherever we can find it in the township," said Lucile Cantoni, Family Services Area Director. Mrs. Cantoni said

Canton surplus nearly 4 mills

One mill in Canton township brings in more than $227,000, according to Canton trustee Lynne Goldsmith. The Crier reported the $836,000 surplus in the Canton general fund was "slightly more than two mills," but the trustee says it is almost four if one mill in Canton brings in $227,000. She noted that this year, the township will bring in even more because of Canton's growth and a higher value placed on township land by the state.

that not only low-income families are dealt with, but also "various types of families" have the same problems.

The United Community Services (UCS), part of the National United Fund, receives two-thirds of its money from the Torch Drive, Stein told trustees in a report.

Some services Canton will be getting from the United Fund are Dental care for Canton residents who cannot afford it and summer programs in Canton Commons.

The supervisor's report says UCS cannot sponsor organized sports activities, because they are a "local responsibility."

Social services Canton receives includes 26 different agencies which serviced 1,485 residents in 1976.

"Reported cases also show the demand for services is greatest in an area bounded by Joy, Cherry Hill, Hannan and Canton Center Roads," Stein reported. He also said the trend in Canton indicates the need for those services will grow with the population.

The report also noted that the Plymouth-based Growthworks and UCS cooperate, but have been "unable to get together" for a united effort.

Plymouth resident tapped by Edison

Wesley D. Kappler of Plymouth has been appointed superintendent of lines for Detroit Edison's Oakland Division.

He was most recently director of customer and marketing services for the division. He lives at 1261 Woodland in the city with his wife, Marjorie, and their four sons: Mark, Lee, Scott, and Kris.

Kappler earned a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering at Purdue University in 1958 and a master's degree in business administration at the University of Michigan in 1968.

He joined Detroit Edison in 1958 and progressed in a number of engineering positions with the company. In 1975, when the utility adopted its division organization, he was named director of engineering, Detroit Division. In mid-1976, he was appointed assistant director of Oakland Division customer and marketing services, and was promoted to director later that same year.

According to Dale Yagiela, Growthworks representative, that agency has helped sponsor some summer programs with Canton children.

Reunion planners seek classmates

A registered professional engineer, Kappler, 45, is a member of the Engineering Society of Detroit and the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers.

Bonds remain outstanding and unpaid as to either principal or interest:

(a) The Authority will punctually perform all of its obligations and duties under this Resolution and the Contract, and will collect, segregate and apply the Cash Rentals and all other rentals, payments and other funds to be received thereunder in the manner required under this Resolution and the Contract.

(b) The Authority will maintain and keep proper books of record and account relating to the operation of the Project and all rentals and payments received therefrom pursuant to the Contract. Not later than three (3) months after the close of each operating year the Commission will cause to be prepared a statement, in reasonable detail, sworn to by its chief accounting officer, showing the cash receipts and disbursements during such operating year, the assets and liabilities of the Project at the beginning and close of the operating year, and such other information as may be necessary to enable any taxpayer of the Township or any holder or owner of the Bonds, or anyone acting in their behalf, to be fully informed as to all matters pertaining to the financial operation of the Project during such year. A certified copy of said statement shall be filed with the Township Clerk and a copy shall also be sent to the manager or managers of the account purchasing the Bonds. The Commission shall also cause an annual audit of such books of record and account for the preceding operating year to be made by a recognized independent certified public accountant, and shall mail such audit to the manager of the syndicate or account purchasing the Bonds. At the option of the Authority, the aforesaid audit may be submitted in place of the aforesaid statement required above.

(c) The Authority will not sell or otherwise dispose of any substantial portion of the Project in a manner which might impair the security for the Bonds until all of the Bonds have been paid in full, both as to principal and interest, or until such full payment has been duly provided for, and will not do or suffer to be done any act which would affect the Project in such a way as to impair or affect unfavorably the security of the Bonds.

Section 16. Additional Bonds: Nothing contained in this Resolution to the Act, in anticipation of either full faith and credit general obligation contract payments or revenue contract payments, to finance the construction of additions to the Project or any new projects within the scope of its corporate powers, but said bonds shall be payable out of, and have a first lien on, the rentals or payments contracted for in connection with such new projects, and shall in no way have any lien on or be payable out of any of the Cash Rentals pledged to the payment of the Bonds of this authorized issue or any additional bonds issued to complete the acquisition of or repair the Project in accordance with the authorization provided in the Contract. The Authority shall have power to issue additional Bonds to complete the acquisition of or repair or alter the Project as authorized in the Contract.

Section 17. Contract with Bondholders. The provisions of this Resolution, together with the Contract herein referred to, shall constitute a Contract between the Authority and the holder or holders of the Bonds from time to time, and after the issuance of any of such Bonds, no change, variation or alteration of the provisions of this Resolution or the Contract may be made which would lessen the security for the Bonds. The provisions of this Resolution and the Contract shall be enforceable by appropriate proceedings taken by such holder or holders, either at law or in equity.

Section 18. Bond and Coupon Form. Said Bonds and coupons shall be in substantially the following form:

Park your car and zoom into Detroit for zip.

For one week, starting Monday, February 20, you can take the bus on us.

All you do is drive to a SEMTA Park & Ride lot, park your car (free) and hop on a SEMTA bus.

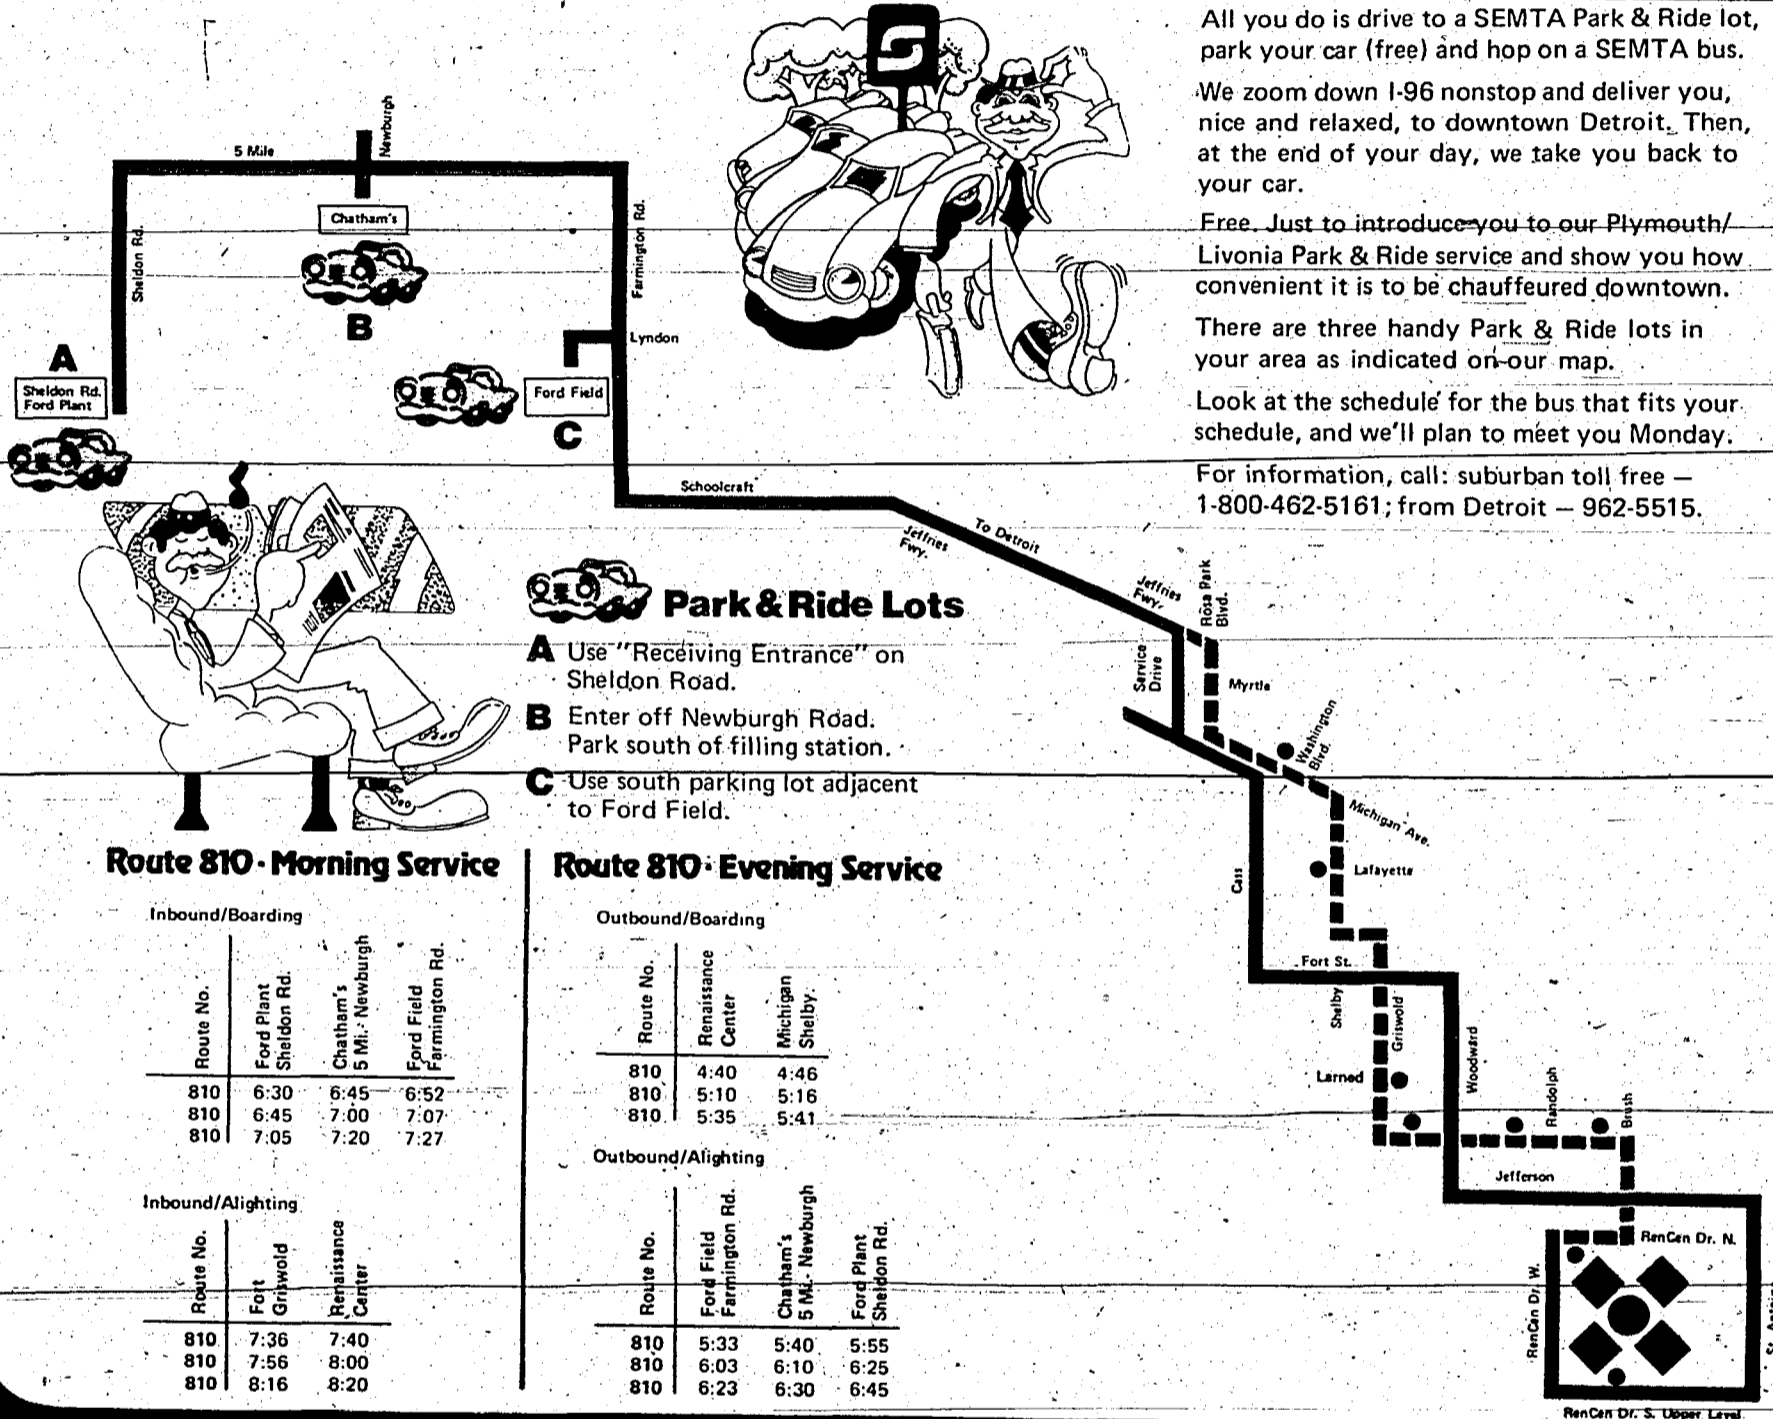

We zoom down I-96 nonstop and deliver you, nice and relaxed, to downtown Detroit. Then, at the end of your day, we take you back to your car.

Free. Just to introduce you to our Plymouth/Livonia Park & Ride service and show you how convenient it is to be chauffeured downtown.

There are three handy Park & Ride lots in your area as indicated on our map.

Look at the schedule for the bus that fits your schedule, and we'll plan to meet you Monday.

For information, call: suburban toll free — 1-800-462-5161; from Detroit — 962-5515.
