Canton ends Salem win streak

CANTON'S BASEBALL team swept two games from Salem High Saturday afternoon ending the Rocks 12-game winning streak. Here, early in the first game, Salem diamondman Mickey Madsen slides toward home plate while Canton's Bill Hanis protects it. Madsen was safe on the play to score the first run of the day. For more highlights of the doubleheader see page 20 of today's sports section. (Crier photo by Robert Cameron)

3 bidders seek Plymouth Twp. trash contract

Plymouth Township's Board of Trustees was expected to approve a bid for a single garbage collection contractor in the township, at last night's regular meeting of the board.

Three bids were received by the township. The lowest bid came from Canton Disposal Recycling, owned by John and Stan Denski of Canton. Their bid was $2.77 per month per stop.

The other bids were $3.18 per stop from Midwestern Sanitation Inc., and $4.24 per stop from Waste Management of Michigan. Midwestern is based in Inkster and Waste Management is based in Wayne.

A committee of Township Supervisor Maurice Breen, and Trustees Gerald Law and Barb Lynch were expected to make a final bid recommendation to the board.

The final price, per stop per month will be slightly higher with the addition of administration costs, say township officials.

Elderly Canton man fleeced by fast talkers

Canton Police are seeking three men who pulled a scam on an elderly man Thursday, making off with the 84-year-old's safe containing savings bonds and an envelope containing $1,200 in cash.

According to the police report the trio showed up at the victim's house on Canton Center Road. While one man distracted the victim with a conversation in the yard, the others went inside and carted off the safe. It was not until a couple hours after the trio had left that the robbery was noticed.

Police have little to go on. A neighbor reported a blue Chevrolet pickup without a tailgate in the victim's yard. That is about the only lead, according to Canton officers.

Farmington Hills man found dead in Canton lot

Canton Police were called to the Center Stage parking lot last week to investigate the death of Thomas Goodman, 42, Farmington Hills. His body was found in a truck in the parking lot and according to Lt. Larry Stewart, Goodman had been dead for several hours before the discovery of the body.

A syringe and spoon were found in the vehicle, according to the police report.

Goodman was a self-employed sweeping contractor. He was married and the father of three daughters.

Committee report cites Omnicom non-compliance Canton raises TV questions

BY DICK BROWN

Thanks to some research by Charles Miller, chairman of the Canton Cable Television Advisory Committee, Canton Township Board members have some questions to ask Omnicom of Michigan officials.

Just who will be answering the hot questions is anybody's guess. Peter Newell, president of Omnicom, which owns the cable franchise in Canton, as well as the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township, has reportedly been promoted to executive vice president of operations for the Northern Division of Capital Cities, parent company of Omnicom.

Miller made a report to the Canton Township trustees at the May 4 meeting in which he pointed to several things which were in the Omnicom proposal document which he claimed is a part of the franchise agreement. Township Supervisor Jim Poole admitted that several copies of the proposal document have been gathering dust in the Canton Administration Building.

According to a section of the franchise ordinance "the company shall establish, construct, operate and maintain the system in accordance to any proposals or representations made to the Canton Cable Television Committee or to township authorities. A copy of the company's proposal to the municipality has been filed with the clerk of the municipality and is by this reference incorporated herein."

If Miller is right in the loopholes he has picked out so far, the implication is that Canton could gain in future local programming benefits and so would the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township.

The city and Plymouth Township franchises, which were written ahead of the Canton franchise, had a provision giving these two municipalities any provisions written into the Canton franchise proposal and agreement.

Miller cited some of the things in the proposal that Omnicom has not as yet delivered.

The proposal contains provisions for a studio which can be operated "in full production by a staff of six." Miller pointed out that Omnicom now shares a studio with Dennis Campbell's Channel 13 and has limited production equipment and a staff of one and half people.

Some of the other non-performance charges Miller cited included lack of 24-channel two-way capabilities, a digital character generator, basic origination facilities for the township, a system of bi-directional (two way) capabilities, and not following the time limit on construction.

Miller pointed to the biggest non-performance on the part of Omnicom -- the three percent gross finance fee and two percent for overage operational expense.

"There has been no accounting of the percent revenue grant for the operation of a program advisory board," Miller said.

He also pointed to the lack of local Canton programming.

Trustee Steve Larson said, "This plan was certainly the basis for granting the franchise. Obviously, you would expect some deviation but it is pretty clear the system proposed and the system installed are not identical."

I don't want to fight about it. I just want to get what's coming to us." Larson said.

Clerk John Flodin said, "I confess that I did not attach the importance to that proposal book, and I don't think that anyone -- Omnicom included -- knew about the proposals, but obviously it is an important book."

Several trustees pointed out that there was a different management team at Omnicom which made the ori-

Westland girl killed in Canton crash

A WESTLAND WOMAN died Sunday of injuries received in a three-car accident in Canton, which occurred at 10:30 p.m. Friday. According to Canton Police Cpl. Robin Cripe, a car (top photo) driven by William Ide of Westland was eastbound on Ford Road near Lilley when it was struck by a car (center photo) driven by Mary Celesky, 22, of Dearborn. Police say the Celesky vehicle apparently crossed the center line and sideswiped a car (bottom photo) driven by Stanley Mathews, 76, of Ann Arbor, before striking the Ide vehicle. Linda Ide, 16, who was a passenger in her father's car along with Dean and Scott Murphy, sustained severe head and facial injuries, said police. She was transported to Oakwood Hospital, where she died early Sunday morning. Celesky has been charged with manslaughter, police say. (Crier photos by Robert Cameron)

Resident trips over downed wires

Katherine Robinson of 530 Byron in Plymouth was injured Thursday morning walking along Main Street near the Plymouth Furniture store, according to a Plymouth Police Department report.

Robinson tripped over several lines of wires that had been laid across the pavement according to the report, which said she sustained scrapes and abrasions to her face, nose and left knee. She was treated by city firefighters but refused to be transported to a hospital.

According to the police report, the wires were laid on the pavement as the city's DPW crews were removing them from street light poles, which are being replaced. The wires were used to connect power for the city's Christmas lights.

Central Education Park accredited by NCAACS

Central Education Park (C.E.P.) has been accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

The new accreditation is nothing new to C.E.P. or to the former Plymouth High School. The high school has been accredited every year since 1916.

Action was taken to accredit C.E.P. at a meeting of the association in Chicago March 31. C.E.P. was commended for its efforts to provide a quality program of education for its students. No deviation from policies or standards of the accrediting group were noted.

"This puts us in a very select group," said Bill Brown, Salem High School principal, "and it is a credit to the entire community. The accreditation process is designed to help teachers, administrators and students maintain a high quality of education. I believe the Association has been very instrumental in upgrading teacher certification, and colleges look very favorably toward students from accredited high schools."

Summer hours to begin at Plymouth City Hall

Beginning Tuesday, June 1, summer hours will prevail at Plymouth City Hall with offices opening at 8 a.m. and closing at 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Residents may make payment of tax bills, water bills and parking tickets by using the drop box located next to the Treasurer's Office window before and after regular working hours.

Payments for tax bills and water bills can also be made at Lakepointe Village Branch of Detroit Bank & Trust, First National Bank of Plymouth and National Bank of Detroit.

Regular office hours are scheduled to resume on Tuesday, Sept. 7.

At the 35th District Court located near Hillside Inn on Plymouth Road, office hours will be 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Garden plots available to Canton residents

It's community gardening time in Canton Township. The Canton Parks and Recreation Department will again have its garden plot program on township property located at Lilley and Warren Roads.

Registration for the family garden plots is set for Monday, May 17.

The plots, measuring 25 feet by 50 feet, are available for $2 per plot for all Canton residents. Proof of Canton residency will be required upon registration.

For further information call Canton Parks and Recreation Department at 397-1000 between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Registration can be made at the Canton Parks and Recreation Department, 1150 S. Canton Center Road, Canton.

It's Buddy Poppy time

The Plymouth Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 6695 and its Auxiliary will have its annual Buddy Poppy sale Thursday, May 20.

The Buddy Poppy is the VFW symbol that "We Honor the Dead by Helping the Living."

The sale of Buddy Poppies prior to Memorial Week is the VFW organization's only direct appeal to the public for aid to the needy veteran and the veteran's family.

Summer work available to local youths

Youths and young adults ages 16 through 21, who are residents of the Plymouth-Canton Community may be eligible for parttime employment with federal, state, county, city, and township governments and school districts and non-profit agencies this coming summer.

Wayne County Employment and Training Administration is sponsoring several summer youth employment opportunities which pay $3.35 to $4 per hour.

Interested applicants should contact their local high school Project Score or Summer Youth Employment Program coordinator. The eight-week program will start June 21.

Jaycees taking orders for filling sand boxes

The Plymouth Jaycees have again scheduled their sandbox fill project. This year it is set for May 22 and May 29.

The Jaycees will deliver sand to individual homes for $2.50 per wheelbarrow. Residents can arrange for delivery by calling Faye Polkinghorne at 981-0446 or Gale Owens at 459-1597.

The Jaycees will fill the first 120 orders on a first come-first filled basis.

New Morning School plans benefit auction

A familiar voice will be emceeding this Sunday's auction at the Plymouth Hilton to benefit New Morning School.

The sixth annual auction to benefit the Plymouth Township parent cooperative school will feature WMJC "Magic" radio disc jockey Joey Ryan, who hosts the Saturday night "Solid Gold Show" from 7 p.m. to midnight.

Preceding the auction will be a buffet luncheon starting at 1 p.m. with doors opening at 2 p.m. for the auction itself. Ryan will get the bidding underway at 2:30 p.m.

Tickets for the luncheon are $7.50 per person. They can be reserved by calling 420-3331, which is also the number to call for more information or to donate items to the auction.

At the luncheon guests will be entertained with a country western dance routine provided by the Detroit Quicksteppers. Klutzie the Clown will also be on hand to perform and has donated his services at a party to the highest bidder during the auction.

Among the many items to be auctioned off are a $200 sleigh or carriage ride for a wedding or anniversary by Banbury Cross, a $65 print of two black Labrador Retrievers with a kitten peeking from behind one of the puppies, a nine minute and a 14 minute segment on Cable Channel 13 as a talk show host with your own guests.

A pinball machine, aquarium, two sessions with a hypnotist, two-day mini vacations at local hotels, Jack Balogna's new book on computers, MS. Magazine autographed by Gloria Steinem, legal services, dental care, calico baby comforters, oil changes, 150 original top 10 cut tapes, two quarter-page ads in The Crier, and many gift certificates.

There will be garden items, dinners for two, beauty services, auto supplies, children's items, arts and crafts supplies, carpeting, an 11-piece coffee set, a 102-piece socket wrench set, brass candlesticks, subscriptions to Monthly Detroit and other magazines.

A selection of the auction items will be on display in the Wiltse Pharmacy window on Main Street during the week.

Money raised by the auction will be used to help perpetuate the goals of individualized education offered at New Morning School.

Canton Country Fest begins to take shape

The pace is quickening for the Canton Country Fest Board of Directors as board members nail down the plans for the Aug. 6 through 8 extravaganza.

According to Flossie Tonda, Canton Country Festival Corporation president, over 600 applications to groups, organizations and businesses to take part in the parade.

"There is even more interest being shown this year," she said.

The concession committee has sent out applications to over 50 non-profit organizations who requested them.

Arnie Williams, chairman of the entertainment committee, is busy lining up entertainment.

In addition John Schwartz is working with the Canton Township Board and township departments to make improvements at Griffin Park to accommodate the festival activities.

Bids due on June 1 for Canton post office

BY DICK BROWN

Canton's prospects of having its own post office in the near future moved a little closer with the U.S. Postal Service officially requesting bids for existing office space.

Bids are being sought for what the postal service labels "Canton Finance Center" in the area bounded on the north by Joy Road, on the east by Haggerty Road, on the south by Cherry Hill Road and on the west by Canton Center Road.

The postal service is seeking to lease 2,155 square feet of office space with 8,710 square feet of parking and driveway. The building must also have a loading platform or dock of 120 square feet.

The lease would be for 10 years with four five-year renewal options.

Bids must be submitted to Robert T. Wilkes, Jr., realty management and acquisition specialist, 17117 W. Nine Mile Rd., Suite 1214, Southfield.

Deadline for bids is June 1.

No bid guarantee or performance bond is required.

In order to be considered property must be properly zoned to permit post office use and the owner of the property will be responsible for the proper zoning.

Bidders must agree to provide adequate heating, air conditioning, electrical, plumbing, water and sewage service and separate meters for gas, electric and water.

Any interior remodeling necessary will be designated by the U.S. Postal Service, accomplished by the bidder and paid for by amortizing over base bid as additional rental.

Township officials have been pressuring postal officials for years to provide Canton's 50,000 residents and businesses with its own postal facility. Last year, with help from Cong. William Ford, Canton received promises of action.

Canton man arrested after attacking police

Robert D. Ramsay, 26, of 41275 Michigan Ave. in Canton, was arrested Friday evening after attacking a pair of Plymouth Police Department officers, according to a department report.

C.E.P. will host state band competition

Plymouth-Canton C.E.P. will be hosting the Michigan state marching bands championship next fall.

The competition which will draw top high school marching bands from all over the state is scheduled for Oct. 23.

The Plymouth-Canton Music Boosters Club is promoting the championship competition as well as the Plymouth-Canton music programs through a raffle on June 4.

On Saturday, May 15, high school music students will be canvassing the community selling raffle tickets.

The drawing will be conducted on June 4 at Kellogg Park during the intermission of the band concert.

Ramsay had been involved in an auto accident at Haggerty and Ann Arbor Roads. One driver was injured in the mishap and a witness told police that Ramsay disregarded the red signal on southbound Haggerty causing the accident.

Ronald Kaminski and Richard Webster responded to the accident call. Ramsay failed a sobriety test and was arrested on driving under the influence charge.

On the way to the station, read the report, Ramsay became loud and vulgar. He then kicked Webster twice in the back of the head. The officers stopped the car and tried to subdue the subject, according to the report. In the process Kaminski was kicked in the groin. The officer, according to the report, then sat on Ramsay for the remainder of the ride to the station.

At the station the resident had to be quieted several more times.

No medical attention was needed by either officer, according to police.

LWV will discuss arms race

"The Arms Race—Where is it Heading? Political and Ethical Considerations" will be the topic at the May 13 meeting of the League of Women Voters of Northville-Plymouth-Canton- Novi. Addressing the meeting will be Miroslav Ninic, assistant professor of political science at the University of Michigan and author of "The Arms Race."

Chapter member and chairperson of the meeting. "Our aim is to educate ourselves by seeking to understand the arguments we hear that tell us, on the one side, that more nuclear weapons mean better deterrence, and those who say we are less secure as our nuclear stockpiles grow at the rate of three new warheads per day."

City draws Farmington for mayor exchange

The City of Plymouth will celebrate Mayor Exchange Day on Wednesday, May 19, with the City of Farmington as part of the Michigan Week celebration.

Also scheduled to speak is Fr. J. Robert Schaden, campus minister of Schoolcraft College.

The topic of study at the May meeting has been recommended by the National Board of the League of Women Voters.

The public is welcome. The meeting will be held at West Middle School at Sheldon Road and Ann Arbor Trail beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Canton homeowners file their protests on drainage projects

BY DICK BROWN

There were plenty of protests registered at the May 4 meeting of the Canton Township Board when it came time for the hearing on the necessity of a storm sewer and drain project along Haggerty Road.

Twenty residents included in sections of the proposed special drainage districts showed up to voice their objections to the plan which is necessary if the township is to go ahead with Haggerty Road improvements and the development of township-owned lands within the proposed district for industrial purposes.

The area north of Ford Road is composed mainly of several long time residents who expressed a desire to keep their land just as it is.

Most of those who spoke told township trustees that they couldn't afford the special assessment and expressed concern at the prospect that would almost assure that the project would be done in as much as the township itself owned most of the land within the district.

Most of those who spoke at the public hearing expressed the same sentiments as those expressed by Richard Bobinac who told the board, "You can't convince me that I would show any benefit from such a measure."

Vern Cecil urged the Canton board to either sell or give away the township property rather than continue with the project. "I don't think the township should be in competition with private enterprise," he said, in referring to development of the property in question for industrial purposes.

After over an hour of discussion the trustees directed the township engineers and planners to prepare auxiliary plans which would reduce the size of the special assessment district by eliminating much of the residential property.

Supervisor Jim Poole urged the residents of the area to attend the May 25 meeting when the matter will again come up for discussion and a formal determination on the necessity of the drainage improvements will be put to a vote.

The next meeting of the Networking series sponsored by the Plymouth Community Family YMCA will be held at Hillside Inn

Jacob Room on May 13. A social hour is set for 7:30 p.m. with the speaker presentation at 7:45 and the Networking in Action session at 8:45 p.m.

The guest speaker will be Judy Berry, manager of First National Bank of Plymouth Ann Arbor Road branch, who will talk on "Financing and Credit Today."

The Networking system is geared to the individual to provide an opportunity to share experiences and resources in support of career endeavors and community interest.

There is a $1 charge to help defray rental costs for the meeting room and refreshments.

Those attending for the first time will be admitted free. An annual membership costs $22.

For more information concerning Networking, call 453-2904.

A different kind of tribute to mothers

MOTHERS DAY is usually a family celebration, but last Friday kindergarten classes at Isbister School showed their support for the women who mean so much to us all. At two programs, students entertained their moms with a specially-written play, and at the grand finale there was nary a dry eye in the house as the kids paid a tribute to the people who make so much possible. It was indeed a heart-felt thanks to a very special bunch of ladies. Hooray for mothers! (Crier photo by Robert Cameron)

WSDP auction labeled a success

EDITOR:

In these difficult economic times, the Plymouth-Canton Community showed its true colors in its fantastic backing of WSDP Radio's Third Annual Auction.

The merchants came through in a large way by donating a wide variety of items to be auctioned off. Our friends helped with the underwriting of advertising. Celebrities took time off from their busy schedules to help us, but, most of all, you, our listeners, called and bid on items to help us make $9,300 to continue the operation of WSDP radio.

If it wasn't for all these factors, it would be very likely that WSDP would not be able to continue serving the community.

The student staff learned many things from this auction. The most important thing was that in order to have something and keep it, you have to work. And work they did, along with their parents as well. They thank everyone for their help and generosity.

A special thanks goes to the Auction co-chairpersons, Chet Latka and Joe Slezak of the WSDP Advisory Committee.

It is our hope that WSDP will continue to bring you the type of programming that the community has come to expect. This is not to say that we have it easy, now, but the staff of WSDP knows it is going to have to continue to work for your support and endeavor to operate WSDP judiciously.

Again, all of us at WSDP thank all of you for your help and assistance.

Cable TV programming needs that local touch

It is certainly heartening to see community residents take a more active role in an important community resource -- public access on cable television.

One of the most recent examples was a one-hour program put together by Jim Irwin and Matt and Martin Brzezinski, entitled, "Laff Riot." A series of comedy skits, the effort seemed to generate quite a bit of interest, according to Omnicom Programming Director Shawn Bredi.

Over the past several months several other locally-produced programs have been aired over the access channel, including spots on last month's Newcomers Fashion Show and "Youth Views" presented by Lutheran Church of the Risen Christ.

However, "Laff Riot" response also generated a few qualified remarks: viewers liked the overall program but were incensed by the attempts at religious humor.

We think the increased participation in public access is an excellent sign that community residents are willing to take a more active role in shaping the kinds of programming available through our local cable television system. We also support the right of any citizen to raise objections to that same programming.

Omnicom can be commended for their willingness to promote and encourage these types of program offerings. Public access to local television programming is an important as public access to the press.

Main Street drivers need slowing down

New Morning School books auction

PUBLISHER'S NOTE: This column was purchased during the WSDP auction by Carol Levitte who in turn donated its topic for this coming Sunday's New Morning School auction and for recognition of Elaine Yagiela.

If the excitement of an auction is your cup of tea, there's an unusually fun event coming up this Sunday - the sixth annual New Morning School auction.

This year, the event will be held at the Plymouth Hilton Inn starting at 2:30 p.m. (doors open at 2 p.m.) and will be preceded by a buffet luncheon at 1 p.m. (Tickets for the lunch are $7.50 per person.)

There will be door prizes, special appearances by Klutzie the Clown and the Detroit Quicksteppers and other fun as well as hot and heavy bidding for the many items.

To emcee the auction, the New Morning School has pulled in a heavy-weight volunteer: Joey Ryan, the voice of golden oldies on WMJC "Magic" radio Saturday nights from 7 p.m. to midnight.

Ryan, in addition to giving his time as emcee, will be donating a collection of cassette recordings with the original top 10 hit singles for each year from 1955 through 1969.

"Whoever is the lucky bidder on this item will become the owner of more than 150 recordings that can be termed 'solid gold,'" said Ryan, who also is known for his freelance announcing on commercials.

Besides the "solid gold" at the New Morning School auction, there'll be a chance for you to bid on two nights at the Holiday Inn, a Gloria Steinem autographed copy of Ms.

ELAINE YAGIELA

magazine, a birthday party with Klutzie the Clown, subscriptions to Monthly Detroit and other magazines, carpeting, legal services, 102-piece socket wrench set, an 11-piece coffee maker set, two quarter-page ads in The Crier, an electronic arcade game, a horse-drawn sleigh or buggy ride, a Wildwing's print, a chance to be a talk-show host, dental care and other goodies.

Many of the items are on view through Saturday in the window of Wiltse's Drug Store on Main Street.

All the fun and the bargains are for a good cause: support of the New Morning School, the kindergarten through eighth grade parent cooperative school which also features a preschool program. The school is located on Haggerty Road just north of Schoolcraft Road.

The school has provided a quality alternative form of education since it started in 1973.

Among the movers behind New Morning School's programs, for example, is Elaine Yagiela. She's a dedicated teacher who has shunned publicity (this mention is a surprise to her) because of the cooperative approach at the school, but there's no denying she's been responsible for many of the good things at New Morning School.

Elaine received her teaching degree from University of Michigan in 1971 and taught at Hawthorne Center until 1973 when she began New Morning School. Since then she's coordinated the program at the school, which moved from rented building to rented building, until the permanent home was opened last fall.

It isn't just that Elaine's daughter, Heather, goes to the school that motivates her either. She's a dedicated teacher as well as a mother. Her other loves are running (usually with her husband, Dale of Growth Works), gardening, sewing and quilting, and canning.

Sharing Elaine's goal of individualized learning at the school are Rita Heaven, Marilyn Romack and the parents at New Morning.

For more information on the school's program, the auction or to reserve luncheon tickets for Sunday, call 420-3331.

Coloring it Brown

By Dick Brown

From here on out I'm hoping for inclement weather for all holidays which bring on a family gathering. The old man just can't take it anymore.

The Brown clan gathered in Bay City for Mothers Day. There was a sizeable group, all of whom consider themselves endowed with athletic prowess. It's a family of jocks composed of sons, daughters, sons-in-law and daughters-in-law, many of whom are high school coaches. In addition there is a collection of grandchildren all actively engaged in various athletic pursuits.

To celebrate Mother's Day there was a little softball and then the day degenerated to a driveway basketball game.

I don't mind being done in by a son or daughter. I can even smile when tripped up by a grandchild.

But I call it quits when my wife body checks me into the garage door while I am making a Dr. J drive to the bucket.

I had to have help driving back to Canton Sunday night because I was in so much pain. From here on out these games of family violence are taboo for the old man.

I intend to sit in a lawn chair and watch when the Memorial Day family outing arrives and save myself for the Canton Cow Chip Fling.

There have been times when it has been somewhat painful to reign over a family of eight children. It was always tough going through the checkout lane at the supermarket. It was tough making those college tuition payments, particularly on several occasions when there were three in college at the same time. It was even tough hauling their entire worldly belongings off to college and then loading up twice as much for the return trip at the end of the school year.

But nothing was as tough as getting out of bed Monday morning with assorted bruises, cuts and abrasions picked up in the fun and games of the Mother's Day Celebration.

But on the other hand, I recall there was some mention made in a moment of rage and bruised feelings while I was picking myself up off the driveway, that the old man was going to get even at the next family gathering, so maybe I won't announce my retirement just yet. I may even see if I can join a neighborhood basketball orgy on Palisades Drive in Canton and pick up a few mean tricks of my own.

You blew it, Milt Wilcox

EDITOR:

Open letter to Milt Wilcox.

I am writing this letter not only to ease my mind, but also to let you know how disappointed and disenchanted you made a group of youngsters.

On the night of Thursday, May 6, two full hours before game time, with no more than 50 to 75 people in left field, where you were positioned during Tiger batting practice, some youngsters, sporting jackets that read across the back, "Milt Wilcox Runners Unlimited," were calling to you and holding up their jackets to show that they played baseball on a team you sponsored.

You were less than 25 feet from these youngsters and you would not even turn around, smile or wave or acknowledge their presence. Your other teammates, who were out there did acknowledge these youngsters.

As a professional ball player, Detroit Tiger and Plymouth-Canton businessman, you certainly showed very poor judgment in ignoring these star-struck youngsters from your community.

Perhaps just a word or so from you would soothe the hurt feelings of these youngsters.

KofC thanks community

EDITOR:

As Grand Knight of Fr. Victor J. Renaud Council, Plymouth, I wish to thank the City of Plymouth and Canton Township for granting us permission to conduct our annual Tootsie Roll Drive on April 2 and 3.

We wish to express our gratitude to the area merchants who allowed access to their property to promote our drive.

A special thanks to my brother Knights, their families and friends, and to the students of the Plymouth-Canton National Honor Society who braved the elements to solicit funds.

The people of the Plymouth-Canton area should feel proud of themselves as we of the K of C are of you. In spite of the waning economy, you came forward with your generous gift of money for the mentally retarded children. Because of you, many special citizens in our community will benefit greatly.

'Art in Park' date set

If you visit this year's Art in the Park, you'll be in for a high-flying time literally.

That's because this year's event will be held in conjunction with the second annual Mayflower Hot Air Balloon Festival.

Art in the Park will be held July 10 and 11 in (where else?) Kellogg Park in Plymouth, and will feature a variety of art forms as well as crafts. "It will be like a judged show," says organizer Diane Quinn. In addition, this year's edition will be opened up to include entries from throughout the area. And last but certainly not least, Art in the Park will be held in the midst of the balloon festival, which is scheduled for July 9 through 11.

For more information on Art in the Park, contact the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce (sponsors of the event) at 453-1540.

Town Hall Series ticket sales start

Ticket sales for next fall's Plymouth Town Hall series featuring outstanding authors, performers and news personalities. The series is sponsored by the Plymouth Friends of the Y with proceeds being given to the Plymouth Family "Y" building fund.

Kitty Carlisle, chairman of the New York State Council on the Arts, popular Broadway star, songstress and panelist, will open the series Oct. 6.

She will be followed on Nov. 3 by Irene Kampen, author of several books, including her latest best-seller, "Fear without Childbirth."

On Feb. 2 Bill Schustik, historical balladeer and folk story teller, will present songs and stories of the American Revolution, the Civil War era and New England sea chantees.

Jack Reynolds will appear March 2. He has been NBC's "Man in the Orient." He will become bureau chief in Peking as soon as the Chinese government okays a bureau.

All programs will be given in the Penn Theatre and will start at 10:30 a.m.

After each program a celebrity luncheon will be served at the Mayflower Meeting House.

Ticket prices for the lecture series will be $25 with a sustaining member ticket price of $30 and a patron ticket cost of $35.

The price of the ticket for the four celebrity luncheons will be $30.

Mrs. Janet Kelvey is in charge of the lecture ticket sales. Mrs. Carol Lewis is handling the sales of the luncheon tickets.

Canton seniors have busy school wind-up

Canton High School seniors are getting ready for a busy windup of their high school careers.

The hectic schedule started off Friday night with the senior prom at the ballroom of the Union Building at the University of Michigan. The prom theme song was "Looks Like We Made It." Music was furnished by Contraband.

Next on the schedule will be the Canton Senior Honors Assembly set for Monday, June 7, at Canton High School cafeteria, at 7:30 p.m. The awards and recognition ceremony is being arranged by the Honors Committee, Guidance Department and faculty. Parents of students receiving recognition will be notified a week in advance. All seniors are welcome to attend.

Individual churches in the Plymouth-Canton Community will be scheduling recognition Sunday on June 13 in honor of graduating classes at both Canton and Salem High Schools.

Graduation itself is set for Wednesday, June 16, at Centennial Park Football Stadium, beginning at 8 p.m. In case Mother Nature doesn't cooperate the commencement program will be moved inside to the Salem High School Gymnasium.

After commencement the Canton Senior Party will take place in the Canton physical education facility. This party will be hosted by parents of seniors. Tickets will cost $8 per student and may be obtained in advance during fourth hour the week of May 24 in the Canton lobby.

It's recognition time

Plans are underway for the 13th Annual Recognition Night of Passage-Gayde American Legion Post No. 391 and its Auxiliary.

The banquet, which annually honors outstanding Plymouth and Plymouth Township residents, is scheduled for Friday, May 11, at Miles Standish Room at Mayflower Hotel.

A cash bar will open at 6 p.m. and the dinner will be served at 7 p.m., followed by the awards presentation.

Friendship Station group will deal the cards

Deal the cards!

Once the call went out for Plymouth Township Senior Citizens interested in playing their favorite card games, the rest was just a matter of setting up a day and time agreeable to those who expressed an interest.

The pinochle club will meet at Friendship Station at 42375 Schoolcraft Tuesday nights at 7:30 p.m.

The bridge group will meet at Friendship Station Wednesday nights at 7:30 p.m.

All township residents who are 55 or older are invited to join. Seniors Club president Carl Peterson said, "The more tables that can be made up the more fun it is going to be for everyone."

Those participating will be asked to pay

25 cents at the start of the evening with the entry fee used to make up the purse of the top point winners.

Peterson added, "As a member of the Plymouth Township Seniors there are many benefits and a wide range of planned activities."

Peterson concluded, "Remember, there are no strangers at Friendship Station. You get to meet new people from other areas of the township. Best of all, you can play an important role in the growth of the Plymouth Township Seniors. We need your ideas and most of all, your participation."

For more information contact Peterson at 453-3422.

She makes her own cookbooks, too

BY DAN BODENE

Because one homemade turkey roll turned out so well, you may be able to learn how to save up to half the cost of many commercially available foods and household items.

The connection really isn't as startling as you may first imagine. Actually, that long since enjoyed turkey roll was the inspiration for the book (and forthcoming sequel), "Make Your Own Groceries" by Daphne Metaxas Hartwig of Plymouth.

She says the concept of both books is simple. "What I wanted was for people to be able to make at home the things that are found processed in stores. And you shouldn't have to have a food processor or meat grinder or any other special equipment to do it."

The turkey roll was a beginning — after making it to use for sandwiches, Hartwig not only found it was cheaper and more wholesome than the commercially available varieties, but it tasted better, too. From there, it was a matter of expanding the idea.

That meant months of trudging up and down the aisles of local supermarkets, checking the shelves and figuring how to duplicate prepared foods using simpler ingredients. Research took even longer, mainly because every recipe was tested (in the book's dedication, Daphne's husband Glenn is thanked for his appetite as well as his support and patience).

The contents not only include complete make-it-yourself meals and side dishes, but also bakery goods, snacks, sweets, baby foods, beverages and household items. Without any special talents or equipment, readers can learn how to make items ranging from condiments to floor cleaners.

Every recipe fulfills two criteria: it costs less to make at home than its commercial counterpart, and does not require any special processing techniques or equipment.

For instance, Hartwig found that her homemade variety of pot pie contains twice as much meat and vegetables than a commercially available one has, and for a lower cost.

In fact, the only things left out of her recipes are chemical additives and preservatives.

Hartwig says the list of possibilities grew with every trip to the supermarket, but not all made it into the original book. "There was a lot of extra research," she says of the sequel, due next spring. "The first manuscript was originally 1,000 pages, cut to 750."

Manuscripts, by the way, were nothing new to her. A graduate of Michigan State University, she landed her first job as assistant editor in the books division of "Better Homes and Gardens" magazine. "I was

DAPHNE HARTWIG doesn't have to rely so heavily these days on the supermarket's foods — she has found a number of cheaper, better ways to make them herself. And better yet, she has had her recipes published. A sequel to her book, "Make Your Own Groceries" is now in the works and should hit the bookstands in the spring. (Crier photo by Dan Bodene) rewriting another woman's cookbook and my boss suggested I try doing one of my own," she remembers. "I found I liked writing more than editing, so I wrote about what I knew."

Taking down a collection of family recipes led to the publication of her first book, "Classic Greek Cooking," which eventually won the R.T. French Tastemaker Award.

Hartwig says the book took only nine months to complete (the "Make Your Own" volumes were years in the making) because all the material was there for the asking. Only minor adjustments were necessary, she adds, such as translating the "handful" measurement used by cooks in her family to a more identifiable amount.

But as a first effort, it was considerably harder to see printed, she adds — 24 proposals to various book publishers yielded 23 rejection slips.

Now that her latest work is off to New York, for the time being Hartwig says she intends to devote most of her time to her husband and three-year-old daughter, Theone.

When Theone begins school, however, keep an eye on the bookstands: There just may be another Hartwig volume in the works.

Youth for Understanding group seeks host families

Youth For Understanding, a non-profit student exchange organization, is searching for host families for incoming students representing 25 countries. Homes are being sought for these students for the 1982-83 school year.

Students range in age from 11 to 18 years. Host families are particularly being sought in the Plymouth-Canton Community. The host families are expected to provide room and board for the visiting student, making him or her part of the family in its daily routines. The natural family of the student takes care of medical insurance, clothing expenses and spending money.

Students will live in the United States for six months to a year.

Hull-Rybicki engagement is announced

Linda Ann Hull is engaged to be married to Lawrence Edward Rybicki.

The bride to be is the daughter of Mrs. Rita Jeanne Hull of Plymouth. She is a 1973 graduate of Salem High, and a 1977 graduate of the University of Michigan. She is presently employed as an inventory control scheduler at the General Motors Hydramatic Division in Three Rivers.

The prospective groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Donald Rybicki of Wayland. He is a 1978 graduate of Ferris State College, and is employed as a quality control manager and director of safety at Travel Accessories Mfg. in Three Rivers.

A Sept. 11 wedding is planned.

tell it to Phyllis

What ever happened to birth control? Lately everytime I go shopping or look out the window I see a pregnant woman walking by.

Don't misunderstand, I have nothing against people starting families. I've already done my bit to boost the population.

Seeing women bursting at the seams of their maternity clothes and pushing a toddler in a stroller reminds me of a few years ago when I was in their situation. Ah, the good old days of getting up at 2 a. m. to feed the kid or 4 a. m. to change a diaper.

It's funny how quickly we forget what life was like with little ones in the family. I can remember saying, "I can't wait until the kid can talk so she can tell me what she wants." Once she learned how to talk, she never stopped. I still can't find the off switch.

Then there were the tea parties we used to have in the back yard. I'll never forget the day she got mad at me and went to her room, picked up her toy telephone and called grandma to tell her all about it. Now when she doesn't agree with me, she goes to my room, picks up the real phone and calls one of her friends.

When the second kid arrived the pace picked up. There was never a dull moment around the house. The big sister was always there to tell her little brother what to do. Unfortunately he didn't listen to her anymore then than he does now.

I love babies and little kids. However, it doesn't take long for them to grow up and before you know it they're trying to borrow your clothes.

Ferris State College in Big Rapids recently announced the names of students receiving degrees following winter term. Graduates from Canton include: Gerard Engler of Haggerty Road, BS in auto and Heavy Equipment Tech.; Donald Glasel of Elmhurst, a BS in advertising; and Lisa Hamann of Holmes Drive, a BS in data processing. Plymouth students receiving degrees are: Jeffrey Johnston of Pinecrest, a AAS in printing; Jace Stokes of Beck Road, a BS in auto and heavy equipment tech.; and Thomas Reuther of Bradford Court, a AAS in printing.

Area students who received degrees from the University of Michigan Dearborn last week are (from Canton) Terry Cavanaugh B.A.; Kathleen Hibler B.A.; Janet Arszno M.A.; John Jaye M.S.E. Eriksson to host Plymouth-Canton Author conference

The 11th Annual Plymouth-Canton Community School District Young Authors Conference will be held at Eriksson Elementary School on Saturday, May 22, beginning at 9:15 a.m.

Young authors will participate in enrichment sessions dealing with some aspect of space. These sessions will cover astronomy, robots (real, make-believe and edible), solar energy, computers, making star maps, using a helicopter and a hot air balloon.

Conference presenters include a number of experts from the Detroit Metropolitan area as well as several expert staff members from the school district. The feature program of the day will be presented by Paul Passeno of the Detroit Science Center. He will have several of the young authors assist him with demonstrations using laser lights, voice projections, holograms and liquid fuel cells.

Participants at the conference are selected because they have written a good book. One student, grades one through six, chosen to represent each classroom across the district, will participate.

Approximately 260 students will attend. Conference participants will be treated to refreshments and each young author will receive a certificate of merit and a conference souvenir.

Skatin' Station plans May 23 Skate-a-thon for Heart Association

Coming to the Skatin' Station on May 23 is the Skate for Heart Skate-A-Thon to benefit the Michigan Heart Association.

Registration will be $3, which includes skate rental. The Skate-A-Thon will run from noon to 5 p.m. Each participant must collect a minimum of at least $10 in total donations in order to skate.

Prizes will be awarded, as follows: over $25 in collected donations entitles the skater to a Skate for Heart T-Shirt; over $75 in collected donations entitles a Skate for Heart gym bag and a T-Shirt; and over $150 in collected donations wins a Skate for Heart wind breaker, gym bag, and T-Shirt.

You can pick up your Skate for Heart packet now, either at the Skatin' Station managers office or at the cashiers window.

3 Plymouth artists have work on display at Ann Arbor show

Three Plymouth artists have had paintings accepted for the Ann Arbor Women Painters spring show.

Johnny Crosby is displaying "Shoreline, Gyamis, Mexico" and "Sheep Ranch in Winter."

Jessie Hudson's watercolor, "Provincial Landscape," and Doreen Lawton's watercolor, "Fence Row, Spring," were also selected for showing.

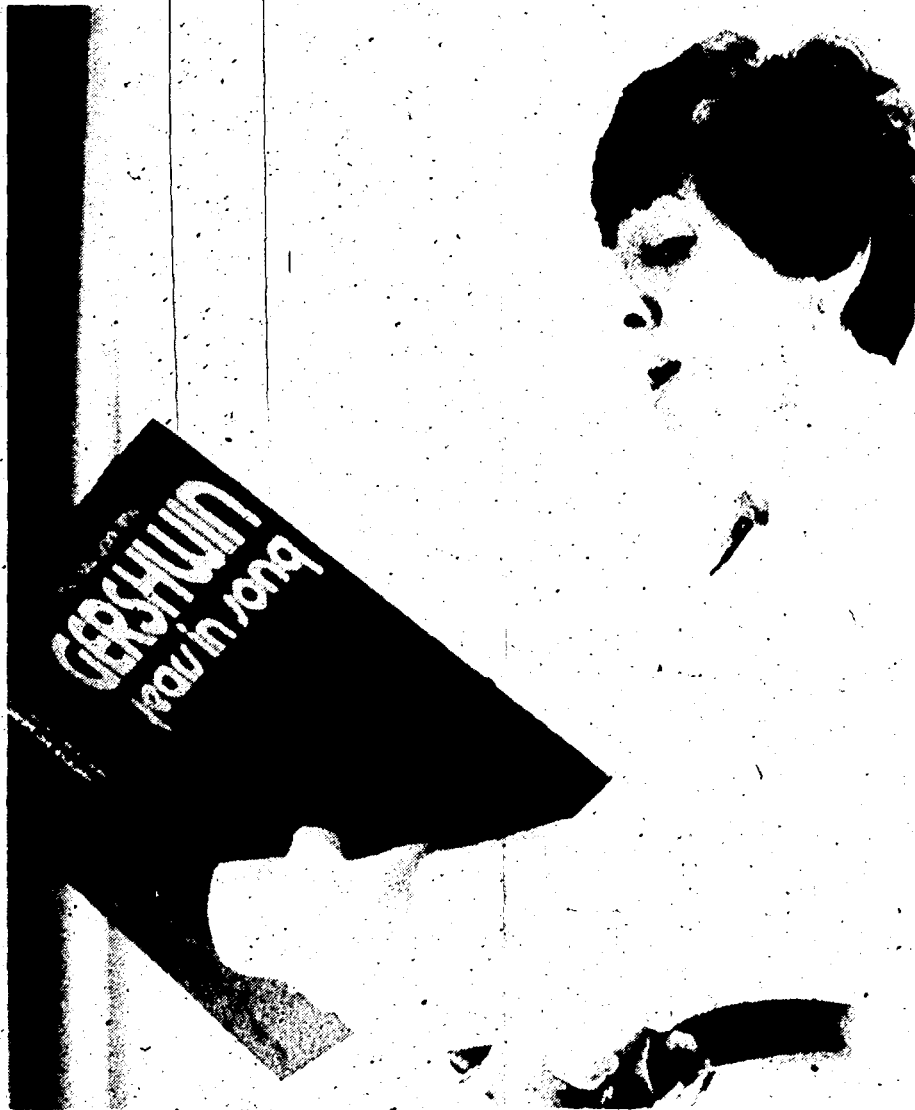

Lin-Cohn Lao, chairman of the Schoolcraft College Art Department, was the juror.

The exhibit opened May 1 at the Ann Arbor Library and will continue through May 28.

An evening with Gershwin music

"RHAPSODY 'n RHYTHM" was the theme of the evening at the Plymouth Symphony's last event of the season, the annual Pops Concert. Performing a host of Gershwin favorites, the Symphony lineup included several special guests including pianist Ruth Burczyk (top photo), soloist Connie Heidt (right) and soloist Dick Schaw. Selections at the event included George Gershwin Favorites for Orchestra, "I Got Rhythm" Variations, a vocal medley, "An American in Paris," selections from "Porgy and Bess" and "Rhapsody in Blue." The program also included a sing-along for concert patrons. The big surprise of the evening was a special presentation to Symphony League President Fran Lang (center in bottom photo), who is soon to retire from the League Board of Directors. Flanked by her husband Charles (left) and Plymouth Symphony Conductor Johan van der Merwe, Lang was honored by the gathering for her many years of service to the League, and to the Symphony. Howard A. Harris, 61, Plymouth, died May 2 at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Ann Arbor. Memorial services will be conducted at Lambert-Loeniskar & Vermuelen Funeral Home, Plymouth, with The Rev. Richard Weeden officiating.

Born April 15, 1921, in Michigan, he was a machinist with B & K Hydraulic.

He is survived by his wife, Carol.

Stecker

Mrs. Barbara B. Stecker, 73, Plymouth, died April 27 at Ann Arbor. Funeral services were conducted April 30 at Schrader Funeral Home, Plymouth, with The Rev. Frederick C. Vosburg officiating.

Born Dec. 8, 1908, in Grand Rapids, she was a life-long resident of Plymouth. She was a member of Plymouth Woman's Club and past president of Plymouth Garden Club. She was active in the Republican party and was instrumental in developing several community groups in Plymouth Township.

She is survived by her husband, Austin; daughters, Suzanne Scharmen of Canton and Julie Totzke of Plymouth; a brother, William Bake of St. Louis, Mo.; and six grandchildren.

Burial was in Riverside Cemetery, Albion.

Memorial contributions can be made to charity of choice.

78 years ago Fred D. Schrader directed his first funeral in Plymouth.

Today, three generations later, the Schrader family is continuing to follow those principles of thoughtful, considerate and personal service that were established so long ago.

Leukemia Foundation seeks Western Wayne funding

The Dingeldey family of Canton and the Western Wayne County Chapter of the Children's Leukemia Foundation is seeking local community support for research and service programs of the Foundation.

The Dingeldeys organized the local chapter last December after Mary Dingeldey, former Canton Chamber of Commerce manager, was diagnosed as a leukemia patient back in November of 1980.

She underwent successful bone marrow transplant at the University of Minnesota last July and now oversees the leukemia chapter.

President of the chapter is Frank Chakrabarty, also of Canton.

The chapter seeks to provide services to persons suffering from leukemia and allied blood diseases, increase community awareness and raise money to support further research.

Patients or families of patients seeking the supportive services of the chapter are encouraged to call Mary Dingeldey at 459-0509 or Chakrabarty at 455-1007. Persons wishing to join the chapter may also call either of these numbers.

Donations to the chapter may be made by mail to Western Wayne County Chapter, 6810 Bunker Hill Lane, Canton.

In Schoolcraft College journalism contest

C.E.P. Perspective takes honors

CEP Perspective, the student newspaper serving Salem and Canton High Schools, was awarded eight citations at the Schoolcraft College Eighth Annual High School Journalism Contest held on May 6.

A first place for sports columns was won by Dan Fisher for his work, "Blame Your Name." The category was judged by Dennis O'Connor, editor of the Canton Observer.

Ruth Sample was awarded second place for news writing, for her article "Election Validity Questioned." The category was judged by Robert Wisler, copy editor for Observer and Eccentric Newspapers. Sample also won third place awards for humorous features and book review categories. The humorous features category was judged by Crier managing editor Dan Bodene, and reviews were judged by Susan Stark of the Detroit News.

CEP Perspective also copped third place in typography and design, and was cited for best photo essay. Observer and Eccentric editor and design coordinator Dennis Rosenblum judged the category.

In addition, two honorable mentions were awarded to Perspective staffers, and another to the overall publication.

Steve Socie won an honorable mention in the cartoon and illustration category, which was judged by Nolan Ross of the Detroit Free Press; and Michelle Yuen was cited for her humorous feature article. An honorable mention was awarded to the paper in the advertising category, judged by Glenna Merillat, creative services director for the Observer and Eccentric Newspapers. David Callahan is business director of the Perspective.

CEP Perspective staffers Sample and Callahan also work for The Community Crier -- Sample in the production department, and Callahan as assistant sports editor.

Local judges for the contest included Robert Woodring of Canton, and W. Edward Wendover, Mike Arnholt, Merillat, O'Connor and Bodene of Plymouth.

Oakwood Canton Center offers first aid course

People in the Plymouth-Canton Community who want to learn more about first aid will have an opportunity to do so at the Oakwood Hospital Canton Center.

Oakwood Canton Center is sponsoring a six-hour first aid course beginning Friday, May 14.

The course, which will be offered over a three-day period, continues on May 21 and June 4, at the Canton Center located at Canton Center and Warren Roads. The classes will run from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Taught by Nancy Gillespie, R.N., the course covers a variety of areas, including how to act in the event of an accident, the dangers of moving a badly injured person and the best ways to obtain medical help quickly.

Participants will also be taught what to do in case of shock, serious bleeding, internal poisoning and heart attack, while learning about treatment for burns, insect stings, sprains and nosebleeds.

In addition, such topics as bandaging, broken bones, frost bite and unconsciousness will be covered as well as first aid for heat stroke and choking.

The course was labeled "ideal and especially helpful for Scouts who are seeking a first aid badge, Scout leaders and campers," by members of the Canton Center staff.

For further information or to register, call Canton Center at 459-7030.

Rumberger: 7 RBIs, 2 HRs for the day

Canton diamondmen crack Salem's win streak Saturday

BY KEN VOYLES

The streak is over.

Both Salem High and Canton High baseball squads are 12-2 overall.

The Rocks, carrying a 12-0 winning streak into Saturday dropped both ends of a non-league doubleheader to district rivals, the Chiefs.

"The key things just happened at the right time and in the right place," said Canton coach Fred Crissey. "We played outstanding defense all day. We also had some outstanding pitching. All in all it was a usual Salem-Canton match-up."

Salem coach Brian Gilles was disappointed that his squad's streak ended. He said, "We were disappointed we didn't at least get a split out of it. The kids were tight the first game no question. We wanted to keep the streak alive, but it's better it ended now than in three weeks."

Gilles also said, "We played good defense in the second game but (Fred) Rumberger's grand slam took us out of the game."

Canton won the first game, 6-2. The Chiefs had seven hits while Rocks tallied six.

Mike Battaglia was the winning pitcher for the Chiefs in game one. He hurled five and a third innings, struck out seven and walked four. Dan Smith came on for the final innings and struck out two.

Joe Humphries was the losing pitcher for the Rocks. He hurled five innings, walked two and struck out one. Bill Culver came on in relief and gave up three walks while on the mound.

Salem opened the scoring with a run in the first inning when Mickey Madsen doubled. Todd Riedel walked, the runners moved up on a fly out and Dave Slavin sacrificed home Madsen.

Canton tallied one the first when Scott Bricker singled, went to third on two fly balls and scored on a passed ball on the Salem catcher.

The Chiefs went ahead 2-1 with a run in the second inning when Smith walked, and Rumberger tripled.

Canton went up 4-1 in the fourth inning when Steve Johnson singled and Rumberger cracked his first of two homers during the day.

Then in the fifth, the Chiefs made it 6-1 when they combined two walks, a passed ball and a two-RBI single by Marty McCarthy.

Salem fought back with one more run in the sixth inning on a single by Humphries, a walk to Jeff Hubert and a single by John Blanchard.

Rumberger paced Canton with two hits in three trips to the plate and three RBIs, while Humphries had two hits for Salem.

The Chiefs won the second game 6-3. Jamie Chileoff got the victory for Canton.

He pitched six and one third innings, had two walks and struck out four. He also gave up five hits.

Barry McNamara suffered the loss for Salem. He lasted four innings, walked two and gave up four hits. Ken Vermeulen came on and finished for the Rocks. He struck out two and gave up a home run while on the mound.

Canton jumped out to a 5-0 lead in the second inning on an RBI single by Darren Weise and the bases loaded home run off the bat of Rumberger.

Canton added its final run in the fifth when Don Dombey smacked a solo home run.

Salem reacted with three runs in the bottom of the sixth inning. Madsen singled, Riedel got an infield hit and Slavin walked. Dave Haut then hit a fly ball that dropped in, scoring one run. Blanchard then hit a ground ball to second. A force was made at second but the throw to first went wild and two runners scored.

Rumberger paced the Chiefs hitting, while Dombey added two hits and one RBI. Madsen had two hits for Salem as did Haut.

"We waited for the big hit but we didn't get it," said Gilles. "We'll be back. We're a good team and we're not going to let this stop us after the good start we had. It wasn't the end of the world losing both games."

Chiefs softball team wins 4

BY DAVID CALLAHAN

Canton High's womens softball team broke out of its slump last week and broke out of it in grand style, winning a 9-6 decision over Farmington Harrison Monday night to cap a four-game winning streak.

"We've had some good pitching and defense," said Canton coach Max Sommerville. "We're finally getting in the groove."

Monday, the Chiefs broke a 2-2 tie in the bottom of the fifth inning as Vicki Skeen bunted with the bases loaded to score the tie-breaking run. With the bases still loaded Marie Krashovetz slammed a double which scored all three runners, but was thrown out trying to stretch her hit into a triple.

Harrison fought back, tying the game in the top of the sixth inning off of Canton's winning pitcher, Missy Aiken. With two outs, two singles and a double scored four runs, and knotted the score at six each.

Canton picked up the winning runs in the bottom of the sixth when Pearly Cunningham knocked in the winning run with a single to right field, scoring Sue Gerke. Skeen added two more runs with her two-out single to rightfield. In the top of the final inning, Aiken mowed down the Patriots in order, striking out two.

Canton swept its doubleheader with Belleville Saturday, winning the first game 2-0 on Aiken's two-hitter, and taking the second game 3-1. Janine Carpenter picked up the win in the second game, pitching the distance without allowing any walks.

Last Wednesday, the Chiefs began their winning ways thanks to a strong no-hitter from pitcher Aiken, who has become the ace of the Canton staff. Canton bats powered the team past Livonia Churchill, 7-0.

Canton faces Western Six League foe Walled Lake Western today at 4 p.m.

Rock kickers defeated Monday

Shelly Staszal scored a goal in her fifth straight game for the fledging Salem High womens soccer team, but it wasn't enough to help the Rocks as they fell, 3-2, to Western Suburban Soccer Association foe Livonia Stevenson Monday night.

Staszal's goal came late in the second half of play on a free kick and closed the gap to 3-2. Stevenson scored once in the first half and added two in the second to lead 3-1 before the goal.

"We then tried to press for the tying goal but couldn't get it," said Salem coach Ken Johnson. "Stevenson was just a little quicker and a little more aggressive."

Salem's first goal came when Cathy Prochazky knocked in a free kick. Prochazky's tally came early in the second half after the Spartans had tallied one in the first and one early in the second.

Last Wednesday the Rocks fell to another Livonia team, Bentley's Bulldogs, 3-2.

Staszal knotted both Rock goals. The first came on a breakaway and the second was set up by a pass from Cherly Truskowski.

"Bentley was the same as Stevenson, a little faster and a little more aggressive toward the ball. We were in both games and we're starting to get tougher. I'm pleased with the way the girls hang in there."

Salem is now 2-2-1 in the Gold Division of the WSSA and 2-3-2 overall.

The Rocks will travel to Farmington today and attempt to notch a third win. Game time is 3:45 p.m. On Monday (May 17) Salem will travel to North Farmington.

Chief tracksters win dual

BY DAVID CALLAHAN

Plagued by injuries Canton High's men's track squad had to scrap to win its first dual meet of the season Thursday, beating Northville, 68-64.

"The meet was closer than I had expected," said Canton coach Mike Spitz, who added that his players' injuries were in areas that the Mustangs were strongest in.

The Chiefs competed without Tommy Harris, Dan Henry, Butch Steele, and Anton Ivezaj, all of whom were lost to injuries or illness.

David Simms helped the Chief cause in the 100-yard where he scored a first place. He also won the quarter mile with a time of 51.9 seconds.

Simms also scored a first in the 220-yard dash.

Canton was paced in field events by Rich Tarr, who cleared 10 feet, six inches to win the pole vault. Don Page captured the other Canton first-place in a field event, winning the discus with a toss of 114 feet.

Canton's relay teams were also successful, winning two of three relays from the Mustangs.

In the mile relay the foursome of Simms, Mark Ritchey and Brian and Elijah Rodgers scored first for the Chiefs, while the 880-yard squad of Ritchey, Frank Asis, Rodgers and John Hermeses clocked 1:36.5 for their first place.

In the 120-yard high hurdles, Jin Kim clocked 16.6 seconds for second place, while Troy Anger was third.

Ritchey finished second in the 100-yard dash, while Brian Rodgers clocked 52.8 seconds for a second place in the 440-yard dash. Rodgers was also second in the 880-yard run. Steve Light, running in the 330-yard low hurdles for the first time, scored a third place, with a time of 45.5 seconds.

Last Tuesday, at the annual Jeff Mangan Relays the Chiefs lost to a larger Salem High squad, 98-34. Canton's two first places came from Elijah Rodgers, who won the 880-yard run, and the mile relay team of Simms, Ritchey, and the Rodgers brothers, who turned in a time of 3:31.5, only two-tenths of a second short of a school record.

Livonia Churchill visits the Canton track tomorrow for a dual meet with the Chiefs. Meet time is 4 p.m.

Rock golfers win

Salem High's womens golf squad dropped a conference dual match to foe Brighton Monday night. Brighton tallied 198, while the Rocks shot 226.

Carol Ross paced Salem with a 46 and medalist honors. Beth Miller carded a 53, Yvette Totzke a 54, Debbie Darlington a 72 and Julie Kenny a 74.

Last Wednesday Salem defeated conference opponent Howell tallying a 221 round. Howell shot 246.

Ross again paced Salem with a 43, while Totzke was next at 52.

The Rocks travel to Ann Arbor Pioneer today for a 3 p.m. conference match. Then on Monday (May 17) Salem will compete in the Central Golf Conference meet to be held at Brae Burn Golf Course starting at 7:45 a.m. Brae-Burn is located at Five Mile and Napier Roads.

DAVID SIMMS

Salem softball splits

Salem High's softball squad split a doubleheader with league foe Trenton Monday night winning the first game, 9-3, and dropping the second, 6-5.

Diane Murphy got the pitching win for Salem. Jeanne Papa paced Salem hitters in the first game with three and one RBI, while Mary Pryslak was 2-4, Lori Jarski 2-2 and two RBIs, and Dawn Henning 2-3 and one RBI.

Terri Lesniak suffered the defeat in the second game after relieving starter Jarski in the fifth inning. The Rocks had five hits to Trenton's eight.

Chief netters lose

"They're all seniors, so we're looking for them next year," said Canton High's mens tennis coach Jim Hayes following his team's 7-0 loss to Farmington Harrison, Monday.

Last Wednesday the Chiefs had a 180-degree turnaround, as they defeated Livonia Churchill, 7-0. Canton is now 4-3 overall in dual matches; and 2-2 in the Western Six League.

Ron Austin, playing at No. 1 singles for Canton, lost 6-1 and 6-3 to Harrison's Adam Gordon. At the No. 2 singles slot, Tom Pasley dropped his match by the same score of 6-1 and 6-3 to Dave Brady.

At the No. 3 singles position, Ruben Rabillas dropped a 6-1 and 6-3 decision to his Harrison opponent, while at No. 4 singles, Ray Lademan became the fourth Chief to lose by scores of 6-1 and 6-3.

Mark Sawyer and Dave Schendel, the team's No. 1 doubles duo lost their match 6-2 and 6-3 to their Farmington foes, while Tim Feldkamp and Todd Garret lost a 6-0 and 6-1 match.

At the final doubles slot, the pair of Eric Popp and Joe Melican lost a 6-1 and 7-6 match to end competition.

Canton travels to Walled Lake Western today, then faces Walled Lake Central Friday, finishing the week with Northville next Monday.

Salem women runners 4th at meet

BY KEN VOYLES

"Stevenson was our toughest competition so far this year," said Salem High womens track coach Scott Kurtz after his charges finished fourth in the 15-team Livonia Stevenson Relays on Saturday.

Chief kickers lose Monday

It's tough to win when all of your opponents seem to play just a little bit better than you.

But that's the situation facing Canton High's womens soccer coach Tony Lonigro, whose squad continues to improve without the won-loss column showing it.

Monday the Chiefs dropped to 0-5, with two ties, as they lost a 4-0 contest to Livonia Churchill. The Chiefs were behind 1-0 at the half, but then the Chargers broke through the Canton defense in the second half, scoring three times.

"My girls are getting better," said Lonigro, "and their playing quite well, but they (Churchill) seem to be a little bit better."

Lonigro said that one reason for his team's lack of victories this season has been the lack of time that his squad has been together. Women's soccer is in its first season at the school.

Last Wednesday, Canton lost a close contest to Livonia Franklin, dropping a 1-0 decision. Last Tuesday, the Chiefs were blasted by Northville, losing 6-0.

"It takes a long time for the players to get to know one another on the field," said Lonigro. "It's going to take a while before we really get it together."

Canton's next match is today when it faces Farmington Harrison at home. Match time is 4 p.m.

Salem netters drop 2 matches

Salem High's mens tennis squad dropped a pair of Suburban Eight League matches to Trenton, falling 5-2 Monday night, and 4-3 last Tuesday.

The Rocks are now 4-3 overall in dual matches.

Salem winners on Monday were Pete Iverson, 6-2 and 6-0, over Brushaber at No. 3 singles, and John Wimmer, 7-5 and 6-2, over Burt at No. 4 singles.

In the 4-3 loss Iverson won, as did David Goodsir at No. 2 singles and Salem's No. 2 doubles squad of Rob Rowland and Paul Weber.

Salem will play Dearborn Edsel Ford and Brighton today and host Dearborn tomorrow at 4p.m.

Chiefs baseball

With a five-game week looming ahead, Canton High's baseball squad picked up an easy win Monday night, shelling Farmington Harrison, 18-3.

Dan Smith pitched four innings to pick up his fifth win of the year. Smith also had four singles to lead the 17-hit Chiefs attack. Scott Bricker and Mike Scarpello had two hits each.

Canton jumped out to a 4-0 lead after the first inning, then picked up six more runs to take a 10-0 lead after two frames. Harrison got all three of its runs in the final inning.

The Rocks scored 20 points. Westland John Glenn won the meet with 26 points, while Redford Union and Ann Arbor Pioneer had 23 points each.

Salem won two events, the long jump relay and the 400-meter relay.

In the long jump, Salem tallied 48.4 feet for three jumpers. Dawn Johnson leaped 16 feet three inches, while Ann Glomski leaped 16 feet one and a half inches, and Kelly Bemiss leaped 15 feet nine and three quarter inches.

"The girls had an outstanding performance in that event. It's the second year in a row we've won it," said Kurtz.

The foursome of Glomski, Mary Dazer, Bemiss and Johnson clocked 51.2 seconds to win the 400-meter relay. It was the fastest effort in that race for Salem this year, said Kurtz.

The Rocks were second in the discus with a combined total of 275 feet eight inches. Cheri Munico paced Salem with a school record toss of 107 feet nine inches, besting the old mark of 103 feet. Karen Tanski and Sue Remer were Salem's other throwers.

In the 800-meter relay Glomski, Dazer, Bemiss and Johnson clocked 1:48.9 for third, while the foursome of Linda Lybarger, Carol Lindsay, Lori Grissom and Shelly Simons clocked 10:21.9 for fifth place in the two mile relay.

Last Tuesday, the Rocks bested district rival Canton High in the annual Jeff Mangan Relays between the two schools. Salem scored 84 points to Canton's 39.

The Rocks won all but three events.

Cindy McSurely was first in the high jump, four feet 10 inches and Lindsay was second for Salem.

Glomski won the long jump, 16 feet, while Johnson was second and Bemiss third.

Munico was second in the discus, 93 feet two and a half inches. She was also second in the shot put, 28 feet, while Remer was third.

McSurely won the 110-foot hurdles, 17.8 seconds and Lindsay was third.

Johnson had a personal best in the 100-yard dash, 11.8 seconds, for first.

The 880-yard relay of Lybarger, Bemiss, Dazer and Glomski finished first, 1:52.9.

Simons won the mile, 5:46.8, and Michelle Donnelly was third.

Salem won the 440-yard relay, 52.2 seconds, with the same team as in the 880 relay.

Lybarger won the 440-yard dash, 64.3 seconds, and Lindsay was second.

McSurely won the 220 hurdles, 33.3 seconds and Connie Marciniak was third.

Grissom won the half mile, 2:38, and Johnson set a school record in the 220 dash, 26.3 seconds.

Simons won the two mile with a personal best of 12:54.9 and Pam Hodge was third.

Salem won the mile relay, 4:26.8, with Lindsay, Grissom, Glomski and Lybarger.

"We are coming along," said Kurtz. "The girls are starting to learn each others habits on the track. Our hard work is starting to pay off. Stevenson was a small relay but with a lot of quality teams. We are now gearing for regionals."

The Rocks will travel to Belleville today for a 3:30 p.m. league meet. On Saturday, Salem will run the Redford Union Relays.

Rocks baseball

Salem High's baseball squad upped its overall record to 14-2 with a pair of wins over Trenton in a Monday night Suburban Eight League doubleheader.

The Rocks won the first game, 4-2, behind the seven-inning pitching of Bill Culver.

Canton wins doubleheader

Earlier in the week the Chiefs blanked Western Six League foe Livonia Churchill 12-0.

Smith picked up his fourth win of the season against no defeats.

Brian Capnerhurst and Hanis hit back to back doubles in the third inning for Canton to break the game wide open. Capnerhurst also singled with the bases loaded in the fourth inning. Dombey also homered for the Chiefs.

The Chiefs will face Walled Lake Western today at Western, 4 p.m., and then play Walled Lake Central on Friday at home, 4 p.m. On Saturday, the Chiefs will play three games in the Midland Tournament. According to Crissey all three teams, Alpena, Bay City and Midland are ranked in the state.

The Rocks meanwhile will face Suburban Eight League foe Dearborn tomorrow at home. Game time is 4 p.m. Salem then plays Livonia Bentley next Tuesday (May 18) at Bentley's home field. Game time is 4 p.m.

Salem men runners 2nd at relays

BY KEN VOYLES

Salem High mens track squad was unable to defend its title in the Area Relays last week, but came back strong Friday afternoon finishing second in the 15-team Livonia Stevenson Relays.

The Rocks tallied 35 points to finish behind Ann Arbor Huron with 37. Host Stevenson was third with 23 points.

"That was certainly Salem's finest performance in a good year," said Salem coach Gary Balconi. "Our finish was a very pleasant surprise. These kids are just a group of fighters. Almost every kid had a personal best during the meet. We were a little disappointed after the Area Relays but at Stevenson we had a total team performance."

Coming out of the field events portion of the meet the Rocks were leading the field of teams with 19 points. Balconi said, "We knew that Huron would come on strong in the track events. We try'd to hold on. We got the best out of our kids this year."

Last year the Rocks finished seventh in the relays after winning the Area Relays.

Going into the final race of the day, the mile relay, the Rocks were still four points in front. "We were pulling for everybody but Huron," said Balconi. "We had finished third in the second heat in the relay and knew if Huron was second we'd be tied, if they were third we'd win and if they won they would be first."

In the field events for Salem, Pat Tortora won the discus with a personal best of 152 feet 10 inches.

Dan Lingg was second in the pole vault, 13 feet one inch, and Mike Perkowski was third, 12 feet nine inches.

Scott Fuller was second in the high jump, six feet two inches and Scott Raymer was fourth, six feet.

Salem's shuttle hurdle relay was second, 1:01.65. The foursome included Olof Danielson, Mary Zurek, Arvinder Zoch, and Scott Bublin.

The sprint medley foursome of Scott Smith, Marc Tindall, Mark Davis and Mike McBride were third, 2:31.01 as was the 880-yard relay of Bublin, Tindall, Smith and McBride. They clocked 1:31.33 for a fastest time thus far this season.

Bublin, Tindall, Davis and Smith won the 440-yard relay with an effort of 4:15 for Salem's other points.

Last Wednesday the Rocks dumped Livonia Bentley, 91-41, in a Suburban Eight League dual meet.

"We had two goals for that meet, keep our kids healthy and to run well and win the meet," said Balconi. "We won 13 of 16 events."

On Tuesday the Rocks bested district rival Canton High, 98-31, in the annual Jeff Mangan Memorial Relays, held between the two high schools.

"Canton is a much better track team than that score indicated," said Balconi. "We had a big edge in field events where Canton is weak. This is the best Canton club I've seen in years."

The Rocks won 14 of 16 events. Tortora won the discus, Darryl Bartkowiak won the shot put, Lingg won the long jump, Fuller won the high jump and Perkowski won the pole vault for Salem.

In individual events Bublin won the 100 and 220 dashes, Geoff Baker won the mile, Zurek won the high and low hurdle events and Frank Brosnan won the two mile.

Salem will host Suburban Eight League foe Belleville today at 3:30 p.m.

Salem softball wins 3

Improved pitching has brought Salem High's womens softball squad some winning ways.

On Saturday, the Rocks defeated Novi High in both ends of a non-league doubleheader, 4-1 and 2-0. Salem is now 9-2 overall and 3-2 in the conference.

Diane Murphy pitched the distance for Salem and got the victory. She has a 6-2 record thus far for the Rocks. Murphy walked two batters and struck out seven in seven innings.

Last Wednesday the Rocks won a slugfest over non-league foe Redford Thurston, 15-13. Salem had 10 hits and five errors, while Thurston had six hits and one error.

Salem next takes to the diamond tomorrow at 4 p.m. against Suburban Eight League rival Dearborn.

Chief women runners

There was some good news and some bad news for Canton High's women's track squad last week.

After beating Northville 86-37 on Thursday, for the squads first dual meet victory this season, the Chiefs travelled to the Stafford Relays Saturday. At the relays, run by Walled Lake Western, Canton failed to place any runners.

The Chiefs also competed in the annual Jeff Mangan relays on Tuesday.

At the Mangan event the Chiefs scored three firsts and lost to district rival Salem, 84-39. The memorial race features Canton and Salem High men's and women's teams competing against each other.

Canton travels to Livonia Churchill tomorrow, to face a much larger Charger squad in a Western Six League dual. Meet time is 4 p.m.

"They've got a lot of depth," said Canton coach Bob Richardson, "so we'll have to take a lot of first places, and win two of three relays."

MAX: congrats new job; do you take rate hike complaints?

THE CRIER STAFF congratulates colleagues Dave Callahan, Ruth Sample, Patty Detrich and their C.E.P. PERSPECTIVE friends for their journalism awards at the Schoolcraft College last week.

A belated happy May Day to All Staff at The Crier.

Beth - How about "Watchers of the Sky" for the title of my play? Ken

If I give up and go away to fields far, far away will you still call me kook?

Eli Cross is alive and well and living in a frat house in Ann Arbor.

Bill Fischer of Livenia has finished two years in the Air Force. And he's seen the nukes!

FLIP - HURRY BACK! I MISS YOU ALREADY.

Let's Do Lunch.

Congrats Randy and Debbie.
